Hi Andrea R. Alsip,

I am in India too at this time. I had asked Jolly to cancel the deal. I had faxed him cancellation letter. Please void this deal as per my application/notification to Dinesh Jolly.

Thanks,

Good Morning Sandeep,

I'm contacting you to inform you that the Agreement that was faxed to us a few weeks ago was not witnessed by anyone. If I could kindly get a fax number to fax you the agreement again to have it re-signed and witnessed it would be much appreciated. I have tried to touch base with Rai and Jolly however they are out of the country and have been for the past few weeks. I'm hoping that we can resolve this as soon as possible as I have not been able to take your deal firm due to the fact that it was not witnessed by anyone.

Please contact me as soon as you receive this email.

Thank you,

Andrea R. Alsip
