Hi Yolande,

For the sake of not holding up things please go ahead and select RM6x6.

However, we would have greatly appreciated if the builder could put some pressure on the suppliers for us. This is ordered in November 2020.

We spent over $150k (+$30k) on upgrades and not satisfied with the selection of the upgrades offered. This on top of $2.21M for the house.

Just to clarify myself: we are satisfied with the service you and the other team members in your office provided, but not with the products builder offered.

Thanks
Arben Cani
