- (c) The Purchaser shall maintain insurance on any decoration, furnishing or improvement to the Unit as well as for third party liability and shall indemnify the Vendor from any damage to property or injury to persons within or on the Unit or elsewhere if caused by the Purchaser or any person for whose actions the Purchaser may in law be liable;
- (d) The Purchaser's right to occupy the Unit may be terminated by the Vendor if the Purchaser is in default under this Agreement or the Occupancy Agreement, or if this Agreement has been terminated for any reason. If the Occupancy Agreement or this Agreement is terminated, the Purchaser shall vacate the Unit immediately, and shall indemnify the Vendor for any costs incurred in connection with its repossession of the Unit and/or in restoring or repairing the Unit;
- (e) Subject to the provisions hereof, the Purchaser may not assign or sublet the Occupancy Agreement or otherwise part with possession of the Unit, without the Vendor's prior written consent which consent may be arbitrarily withheld; and
- (f) The Vendor shall have the right to enter the Unit at all reasonable times (unless there is an emergency, in which case such right to enter the Unit can be at any time) for the purpose of conducting inspections thereof, for facilitating the registration of the Condominium under the Act, and for correcting and completing any outstanding work with respect to the Condominium.

6. CONSTRUCTION, CHANGES AND DECOR PACKAGES

The Vendor agrees to complete the Unit and common elements in a good and workmanlike manner. The Vendor shall have the right from time to time to make reasonable changes in the opinion of the Vendor in the plans and specifications of the Unit and the Condominium (regardless whether the aforesaid have been submitted to the relevant governmental authority) and any changes required by any relevant governing authority in the plans and specifications of the Unit and the Condominium and every aspect thereof if required and to substitute other material for that provided for under this Agreement or in the plans and specifications of the Unit or the Condominium, provided that such alternative material is of a quality equal to or better than the material hereunder or in the plans and specifications and the Purchaser agrees to complete this transaction notwithstanding same and the Purchaser hereby consents to such changes and substitutions. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may insert or add any items, including without limitation, windows, columns, fire walls, conduits, beams and/or bulkheads within or adjacent to the Unit and/or remove, change, delete, vary, alter or modify the number, size and location of any of the foregoing items from the number, size and/or location of same as displayed or illustrated in the sketch of suite attached hereto as Schedule "B" or any promotional material or information which may include, without limitation, sales brochure(s), model(s), rendering(s), vignette(s) and/or floor plan(s) previously delivered or shown to the Purchaser or to the public (regardless of the extent or impact thereof). The Purchaser shall have absolutely no claim or cause of action whatsoever against the Vendor or its sales representatives (whether based or founded in contract, tort or in equity) for any such insertions, additions, removals, changes, deletions, variations, alterations or modifications, nor shall the Purchaser be entitled to any abatement or reduction in the Purchase Price whatsoever as a consequence thereof. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall have the right, in its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion to effect the changes to the Condominium contemplated in the Disclosure Statement, to change the legal description or the municipal address of the residential unit and the right to change the Condominium's municipal address or numbering of the Units in terms of unit number and/or level number and the number of units in the Condominium as a result of a combination of units, splitting units, adding additional units, removing units and reducing or increasing the height of the Condominium by reducing or increasing the number of floors of the Condominium and altering the exterior design and features of the Condominium, which the Vendor can effect in its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion; provided, however, that the Purchaser's residential unit on the floor-plate and configuration shall not be altered except as provided herein. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the construction timetable for the lands adjacent to and/or nearby the Condominium, if applicable, and the type, character, composition, number of buildings and other development matters of the improvements to be constructed thereon will be totally at the discretion and control of the owners thereof. The Purchaser covenants and agrees that in the event that there is a 'material change' permitting the Purchaser to rescind this Agreement pursuant to s.74(6) of the Act, then the Purchaser agrees that its only recourse against the Vendor is such right of rescission pursuant to the Act and the return of its deposits paid under this Agreement and the Purchaser shall not claim specific performance and/or damages of any kind against the Vendor as a result, notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary.

The items set out in Schedule "A" attached hereto are included in the Purchase Price. Model unit and vignette furnishings, decor, improvements, mirrors, drapes, tracks and wallpaper, if any, described and/or illustrated within any promotional material or information which may include, without limitation, sales brochure(s), model(s), rendering(s), vignette(s) and/or floor plan(s) are for display purposes only and are not included in the Purchase Price. The floor area and dimensions of the represented units relate to units that are located midway in the building and, because the structural, mechanical and architectural elements will differ on a floor by floor basis, the floor area and the dimensions of such units will vary on a floor by floor basis (if applicable), and the Purchaser is notified of the following statement pursuant to the requirements of the applicable Tarion Bulletin: "Floor area measurements were calculated on the middle floor, such that units on lower floors may have less floor space due to thicker structural members, mechanical rooms, etc., while units on higher floors may have more floor space." The Purchaser acknowledges that the Unit may be a reverse mirror image plan of the plan attached hereto as Schedule "B" and that the floor area and dimensions of any room contained thereon or the Unit as represented in any schedules hereto and sales or promotional material or provided by the Vendor's sales agents has been determined in accordance with the provisions of the applicable Builder Bulletin issued pursuant to the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act (the "Warranty Act"), that such calculations and measurements are approximate only, that the net living area of the Unit will differ from the floor area of the Unit determined in accordance with the aforesaid bulletin, that there is no representation or warranty as to the size of the Unit, that the Purchase Price is not based on the floor area of the Unit and that the Purchaser shall not be entitled to an adjustment for same in the event that the actual floor area of the constructed Unit differs from that indicated by the promotional material or provided by the Vendor's agents. In accordance with the foregoing, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, all details and dimensions are approximate and are subject to change without notice to the Purchaser. Any reference to ceiling heights in this Agreement or the schedules attached hereto shall mean the approximate height from unfinished floor slab surface to unfinished ceiling slab surface and such heights will be reduced by sound attenuation features, finishes of floors and ceilings and installations such as bulkheads, etc..

Purchaser's choice of colours and materials shall be from Vendor's standard samples, if not yet ordered or installed, and provided that colours and materials are available from suppliers. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any of the foregoing selection of features and finishes made by the Purchaser in accordance with this Agreement shall be subject to the availability thereof at the time that the Vendor is prepared to install same and if any selected feature or finish is not then available, the Purchaser will then be required to re select from any additional standard samples then available from the Vendor, again subject to the requirement of further re selection in the event that the additional selection(s) made by the Purchaser are also not available as described above. Purchaser agrees to select the colour and material within 4 days after notification by the Vendor; otherwise the Vendor reserves the right to choose the colour and material to complete the dwelling and the Purchaser agrees to close the transaction with the Vendor's choice of colour and material. In addition, the Purchaser shall select its appliances no later than 21 days after the date on which it has chosen the aforesaid colour and material, failing which the Vendor shall be entitled to select the appliances (including the colour thereof).

The Vendor is not responsible for shade difference occurring in the manufacture of items such as, but not limited to, finishing materials or products such as cushion floor, carpet, floor tiles, roof shingles, brick, aluminum or vinyl siding, bath tubs, water closets, sinks and other such products where the product manufacturer establishes the standard for such finishes. The Vendor is also not responsible for colour variations in natural products or the finishes on natural products such as but not limited to marble, porcelain, limestone, slate, granite, hardwood flooring, kitchen cabinets, wood stairs railings, spindles, trim as well as stains or finishes applied to any of the aforesaid which colours may vary when finishes are applied to them. Nor shall the Vendor be responsible for shade difference in colour of components manufactured from different materials but which components are designed to be assembled into either one product or installed in conjunction with another product such as but not limited to toilet seats, toilets, tubs, cabinet finishes and paint and in these circumstances the product as manufactured shall be accepted by the Purchaser. The Purchaser acknowledges that where adjoining rooms have different flooring materials, there may be installed thresholds between the different types of flooring and that the height of the floors may vary.

The Purchaser covenants and agrees that the Purchaser shall pay to the Vendor in advance for all extras, upgrades or changes, and Applicable Taxes in addition thereto, ordered by the Purchaser at the time such order is made and the Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that such payment is non-refundable in the event that this transaction is not completed due to a default, fault, action or inaction of the Purchaser. Notwithstanding anything herein contained to the contrary, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that if, upon the Unit Transfer Date, any of the extras, upgrades or changes ordered by the Purchaser remain incomplete in whole or in part or if the Vendor shall, in its sole discretion, determine that it will not provide extras, upgrades or changes or cannot complete the extras, upgrades or changes then there shall be refunded to the Purchaser upon the Unit Transfer Date that portion of the amount paid by the Purchaser in connection with such extras, upgrades or changes allocated to those extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete in whole or in part as aforesaid, as determined by the Vendor. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the amount so paid to the Purchaser (or for which, in the alternative, the Purchaser receives credit in the statement of adjustments) shall be accepted by the Purchaser as full and final settlement of any claim by the Purchaser with respect to the extras, upgrades or changes which remain incomplete as aforesaid. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the Vendor's liability with respect to such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes shall be limited to the return of the amounts referred to aforesaid and, thereafter, there shall be no further liability upon the Vendor in connection with such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes and upon such payment being made or credit being given, the Vendor shall be deemed to have been released from any and all obligations, claims or demands whatsoever with respect to such incomplete extras, upgrades or changes. If the Purchaser neglects to advise the Vendor forthwith upon request as to the Purchaser's selection of finishing specifications, or orders any extras, upgrades in interior finishings, or performs any work in or about the Unit which causes delay on the Vendor's construction operations, the Vendor may require the Purchaser to take occupancy of the Unit and complete this transaction on the Unit Transfer Date herein set out without holdback of any part of the Purchase Price, on the Vendor's undertaking to complete any one of the Vendor's outstanding work from time to time. On occasion, certain extras/upgrades may be installed by the Vendor after the Occupancy Date at the Vendor's discretion.

The Purchaser acknowledges that the consumption of electricity, water and heating/cooling in the residential units shall be separately metered or check or consumption metered on a per unit basis with each residential unit owner being responsible for the cost of such utilities consumed in its residential unit, in addition to and not part of the common expenses payable by such owner. If requested by the Vendor, the Purchaser covenants and agrees to execute and deliver to the Vendor prior to the Occupancy Date or thereafter such documentation as is required to facilitate the separate metering, check or consumption metering and per unit billing of such utilities.

Notwithstanding anything herein, the Vendor reserves the right to bulk meter any utility or service, including without limitation, any utility which is described herein as being separately, check or consumption metered and the Purchaser is specifically put on notice of same. Further, and notwithstanding anything herein, the Vendor reserves the right to separately meter / check meter / consumption meter any utility which was not previously described herein as being separately, check and/or consumption metered and the Purchaser is specifically put on notice of same. The Purchaser covenants and agrees, prior to the Occupancy Date or thereafter, to execute and deliver to the Vendor such documentation as may be required by the Vendor for the separate, check or consumption metering and billing of a utility which documentation may include, without limitation, a contract(s) with the provider of a utility and/or the party monitoring the consumption of a utility or an assumption agreement(s) with regards to such contract(s). The Purchaser further covenants and agrees to pay to Vendor (or as it may otherwise direct) the cost in respect of the provision and installation of a meter for any utility servicing the Unit which was not previously described herein as being separately, check and/or consumption metered plus Applicable Taxes as an adjustment on the Occupancy Date or on the Unit Transfer Date if so required by the Vendor.

The Purchaser acknowledges that the distance and views from the proposed building shown on any site plan, marketing materials, signs, artists renderings or scale model are approximate only and/or may be modified during construction. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor may, at its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, make alterations, changes, additions or deletions to anything, including without limitation any buildings, structures and improvements, included or depicted on any such site plan, marketing materials, signs, artists renderings or scale model. The Purchaser further acknowledges that the Vendor shall only be required to provide the amenities to the Condominium as specifically set out in the Condominium Disclosure Statement (and subject to the modifications permitted therein), notwithstanding any artist renderings, models, displays, any advertising or marketing material or otherwise to the contrary.

7. WARRANTY

Notwithstanding what may otherwise be expressed in this Agreement, the Vendor covenants that on the Occupancy Date a written warranty in the Warranty Act standard form will be requested by the Vendor from the administrator of the Warranty Act. The Purchaser agrees to accept such warranty in lieu of any other warranty or guarantee, expressed or implied, it being understood and agreed that there is no representation, warranty, guarantee, collateral agreement or condition precedent to, concurrent with, or in any way affecting this Agreement or the subject land or Unit other than as expressed in the Warranty Act.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Purchaser hereby releases the Vendor from any liability whatsoever in respect of water damage caused to the Purchaser's improvements, if any, and chattels stored in the Unit, and acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall not be liable or responsible for any damage to improvements, chattels or décor caused by material shrinkage, twisting or warpage, nor for any secondary or consequential damages whatsoever resulting from any defects in materials, design or workmanship related to the Property, nor for any item requiring rectification or completion in respect of which the Purchaser has attempted to complete or rectify on his own, and the Vendor's only obligation shall be to rectify any defects pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. The Purchaser agrees to remove at his expense any finishes and/or improvements made by the Purchaser as requested by the Vendor in order to enable the Vendor to do any completion or rectification work. In addition, if the Purchaser orders the installation of engineered wood flooring or a similarly offered product within the kitchen, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that product warranties and responsibilities of the Vendor will not extend to: (a) water damage; (b) damage from the installation and/or movement of appliances; and (c) other kitchen related issues arising from such installation.

8. INSPECTION OF UNIT

- (a) The Purchaser or its designate shall inspect the Unit (such inspection hereinafter referred to as the "PDI") immediately prior to the Occupancy Date with a representative of the Vendor at a time appointed by the Vendor and the parties shall indicate on the face of the Warranty Act's Certificate of Completion and Possession and Warranty Certificate (the "Certificate"), the approval of the Purchaser, which shall be subject only to the completion of seasonal work, and any items of a similar nature uncompleted, and listed thereon, and save as to such list the Purchaser shall be conclusively deemed to have accepted the Unit as complete in accordance with this Agreement. On or before the PDI, the Vendor shall provide the Purchaser with a Homeowner Information Package that is available from the Taron Warranty Corporation ("Taron"). The Vendor will complete all matters set out in the said Certificate as soon as reasonably practicable. Further, the Vendor agrees to rectify any defects in materials or workmanship covered by the Warranty Act's warranty issued to the Purchaser as soon as reasonably practicable after the same will have been called to the Vendor's attention by notice in writing and in accordance with the guidelines of Taron. Except for the aforementioned inspection with the Vendor's representative, the Purchaser shall not enter (and shall not direct or cause anyone to enter) the Condominium and Unit until the Purchaser has completed his obligations under this Agreement on the Occupancy Date. The Purchaser shall provide the Vendor with written notice, at least five (5) days prior to the date appointed by the Vendor for the PDI, irrevocably appointing the Purchaser's designate, if any. The Purchaser acknowledges that: a Homeowner Information Package is available from Taron Warranty Corporation; the Vendor has/will deliver to the undersigned a Homeowner Information Package as provided by Taron Warranty Corporation on or before the date of the PDI; and the Purchaser shall execute any confirmation or statements confirming receipt of the Homeowner Information Package in accordance with Taron's requirements.
- (b) The completion of the foregoing inspection and the preparation and endorsement of the Certificate are conditions of the Vendor's obligation to give occupancy of the Unit and to complete this transaction. Failure by the Purchaser to attend at the appointed time for the inspection and to complete the Certificate shall be deemed to be a default by the Purchaser under this Agreement. The Vendor, at its sole option, may thereupon either terminate the transaction in accordance with the provisions set out in the paragraph(s) headed Default herein, or may elect to complete the Certificate on behalf of the Purchaser. The Purchaser hereby irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints the Vendor or any of its authorized signing officers to be and act as his lawful attorney in the Purchaser's name, place and stead for this purpose.

9. DAMAGES BEFORE CLOSING

The Unit shall be and remain at the risk of the Vendor until the Unit Transfer Date, and pending completion of the sale the Vendor will hold all insurance policies and the proceeds thereof in trust for the parties as their interests may appear. In the event that the Unit or the building of which the Unit forms a part are substantially damaged or destroyed, and the Vendor's lender requires that insurance proceeds be applied to reduce its loan rather than to the reconstruction of the Unit or building and the Vendor does not have alternative financing arrangements satisfactory to the Vendor, in its sole and absolute discretion, then the Purchaser and Vendor agree that such event shall constitute a frustration of this Agreement and the Purchaser's deposits shall be returned to the Purchaser with interest as required by law, without deduction, and the Vendor shall not be liable for any costs and/or damages incurred by the Purchaser thereby whatsoever, whether arising from (or in connection with) the termination of the Purchaser's existing occupancy of the Unit, or the termination of this transaction, by virtue of the frustration of this contract.

10. ACCESS BY VENDOR FOR MAINTENANCE AND COMPLETION

- (a) Notwithstanding the transfer of title to the Unit to the Purchaser, or occupancy of the Unit by the Purchaser, the Vendor or its duly authorized agents shall have free access at all reasonable times (unless there is an emergency, in which case such access can be at any time) to the Unit in order to make inspections or do any work or repairs thereon which may be deemed necessary in connection with the completion of the Unit or other units and the common elements in the Condominium or of any servicing or installations in connection with either the Unit or the common elements and this right shall be in addition to any rights and easements in favour of the Vendor under the Act.
- (b) The Purchaser shall not interfere with the completion of other units and the common elements by the Vendor. Until the Condominium is completed and all units sold, both in other phases of the condominium, if any, and in other condominium plans, as applicable, the Vendor may make such use of the Condominium as may facilitate such completion and sale, including, but not limited to the maintenance of a sales office, signs and model units, the showing of unsold units and the display of signs. The Purchaser covenants and agrees for itself and its agents and permitted assigns that they shall not enter the Unit or the common elements prior to the Occupancy Date except as approved or required by the Vendor.

11. ACCEPTANCE OF TITLE BY PURCHASER

The Purchaser agrees that the Unit and the subject property shall be subject to all registered restrictions and agrees to accept title to the Unit and the subject property subject to all the rights and easements now registered or to be registered hereafter against the Unit, the common elements and/or subject property for the supply and installation of telephone and other communication services, electricity, gas, sewers, water, heating, cooling, television cable or satellite facilities and other usual services; provided that if such rights and easements have not been determined when the Purchaser receives a transfer, such transfer will contain a covenant by the Purchaser to grant such rights and easements and/or confirm same upon the written request of the Vendor, and the Purchaser shall, if requested, execute such transfer or transfers as the Vendor shall require and submit same, provided the title is good and free from all encumbrances except:

- (a) as aforesaid;
- (b) the Declaration, Description, and By-Laws, notwithstanding that they may be amended or varied from the proposed Condominium Documents given to the Purchaser when entering into this Agreement;
- (c) any development agreements, subdivision agreements or site plan agreements and any other agreements with the municipal corporation or regional municipality or other tier of municipal government having jurisdiction, applicable by-laws whether registered or not, provided that the Vendor is in compliance thereof;
- (d) any easements, rights-of-way, crane swing agreements, tie-back agreements, cost sharing and/or reciprocal agreements, easement and cost sharing agreements and/or reciprocal agreements, restrictions, restrictive covenants, encroachment agreements, conditions or covenants that run with the land, and subject to all rights, licences, and easements or agreements now registered or to be registered for the installation and maintenance of any public or other utility including, without limitation, telephone, internet, electricity, gas, sewer, water, heating, cooling, cable or satellite and any easements or right of entry for the operation and maintenance of adjacent condominium corporations or lands;
- (e) any easements, rights-of-way, crane swing agreements, tie-back agreements, licences, or agreements with or required by the municipal corporation or regional municipality or other tier of municipal government having jurisdiction with respect to future services to be installed or for other purposes;
- (f) temporary easements, licenses or other rights in favour of the Vendor and/or its affiliates and/or the Vendor's assigned successors for construction and sales of this Condominium and any development in the vicinity thereto;
- (g) any easements or licences for the installation of the maintenance of public or other utilities including, without limitation, telephone, electricity, gas, sewer, water, cable/satellite, as well as any rights, easements and interests in land reserved by the Vendor that do not materially affect the use of the Unit for residential purposes. The Purchaser shall execute any easements required for the said purposes upon being requested by the Vendor both before or after closing. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Deed or Transfer of the Unit may reserve such rights and easements;
- (h) official plan and zoning amendments passed by the municipal corporation or regional municipality or other tier of municipal government having jurisdiction;
- (i) any agreement(s), easement(s), covenants and restrictions between or among the Vendor on its behalf and on behalf of the owner(s) of improvements constructed or to be constructed on lands adjoining the subject property;
- (j) a Notice of Security Interest relating to any building automation system and equipment relating thereto, waste disposal system and to any other equipment as herein provided;
- (k) any lease agreement between the Condominium Corporation and any provider of equipment for the Condominium;
- (l) as herein expressly provided; and

- (m) as to minor breaches in any of the foregoing that have been remedied or are in the process of being remedied as established by a statutory declaration of an officer or director of the Vendor.

The Purchaser agrees that the retention by the relevant authority of security that is satisfactory to such authority intended to guarantee fulfilment of any outstanding obligations under any of the aforementioned agreements shall be deemed to be satisfactory compliance with the terms and provisions of the agreements. It is understood and agreed that the Vendor shall not be obliged to obtain or register on title to the Unit or property a release of (or an amendment to) any of the aforementioned development agreements, site plan agreements, subdivision agreements, easements, easement and cost sharing agreements, reciprocal agreements or restrictive covenants, nor shall the Vendor be obliged to have any of the same deleted from the title to the property. The Purchaser shall satisfy himself as to the Vendor's due compliance with the provisions of any such agreements, licences, restrictions or easements listed herein. The Purchaser further agrees to accept the Vendor's solicitors' undertaking to discharge any mortgages, debentures, liens or encumbrances (the "Encumbrances") against the Unit or Common Elements that the Purchaser is not assuming and to close notwithstanding such mortgages, liens or encumbrances. In any event, the Vendor shall not be required to discharge the Unit from the Encumbrances until such time as the Purchaser has paid to the Vendor the Purchase Price for the Unit in full.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that deposits paid hereunder shall be deemed to be monies held in trust pursuant to the provisions of Section 81 of the Act, and the Purchaser shall therefore be deemed to be a "home buyer" within the meaning of s.1(1) of the Construction Act of Ontario and the Purchaser shall not be entitled to request or demand that any holdback for construction liens be maintained for any portion of Purchase Price on the Occupancy Date or on the Unit Transfer Date.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the registered Condominium Documents and final budget statement for the one year period immediately following registration of the Condominium may vary from the proposed Condominium Documents and budget statement given to the Purchaser when entering into this Agreement, and in the event there is a material change to any of the documents comprising the Condominium Documents, then the Purchaser's only remedy shall be rescission of this Agreement in accordance with the Act and the return of its deposits paid under this Agreement and the Purchaser shall not claim specific performance and/or special damages against the Vendor as a result, notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary. The Purchaser further agrees to accept title to the Unit subject to the Condominium Documents being registered on title, notwithstanding that they may be amended and varied from the proposed Condominium Documents which were given to the Purchaser when entering into this Agreement.

The Vendor shall be entitled to insert in the transfer specific covenants by the Purchaser pertaining to such restrictions, easements, covenants or agreements referred to in this Agreement, and in such case the Purchaser shall be required to execute the transfer prior to the Unit Transfer Date, or the Vendor may require that the Purchaser deliver his separate written covenant on the Unit Transfer Date. In the event that the Vendor is not the registered owner of the Unit, the Purchaser agrees to accept a conveyance of title from the registered owner in lieu of the Vendor's.

The Purchaser agrees to accept title to the Unit subject to any easements or licences for the installation of the maintenance of public or other utilities including, without limitation, telephone, electricity, gas, sewer, water, heating, cooling, satellite facilities and cable/satellite television, as well as any rights, easements and interests in land reserved by the Vendor that do not materially affect the use of the Unit for residential purposes. The Purchaser shall execute any easements required for the said purposes upon being requested by the Vendor both before or after closing. The Purchaser acknowledges that the Deed or Transfer of the Unit may reserve such rights and easements.

12. VENDOR'S COVENANTS

The Vendor hereby covenants as follows:

- (a) to take all reasonable steps to sell the units within the Condominium without delay except for the units that the Vendor intends to lease, and in this regard, the Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor may from time to time lease any and all unsold units in the Condominium for residential purposes and this paragraph shall constitute notice to the Purchaser as registered owner of the Unit after the Unit Transfer Date pursuant to the Act;
- (b) to take all reasonable steps to deliver to the Purchaser a registrable deed or transfer of the Unit without delay; and
- (c) to hold in trust for the Condominium Corporation the money, if any, that the Vendor collects from the Purchaser on behalf of the Condominium Corporation.

The covenants of the Vendor in this paragraph contained shall constitute the covenants of the Vendor pursuant to subsection 78(1) of the Act and are hereby understood and agreed to be the extent of the Vendor's obligations in that regard and it is understood and agreed that there are no further obligations or covenants in that regard other than those specifically stated above.

13. EXAMINATION OF TITLE BY PURCHASER

The Purchaser shall not call for the production of any title deeds or abstracts of title, survey sketch or other proof or evidence of title, nor have furnished any copies thereof. The Purchaser shall be allowed until 10 days prior to the Unit Transfer Date to examine the title at his own expense. If within that time he shall furnish the Vendor in writing with any valid objections to the title which the Vendor shall be unable or unwilling to remove and which the Purchaser will not waive, this Agreement shall, notwithstanding any intervening acts or negotiations in respect of such objections, be void and the deposit money shall be returned to the Purchaser without interest except as may be required by law and without deduction and the Vendor shall not be liable for any costs or damages. Save as to any valid objections so made within such time the Purchaser shall be conclusively deemed to have accepted the title of the Vendor to the Unit. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall be entitled to respond to some or all of the requisitions submitted by the Purchaser through the use of a standard title memorandum or title advice statement prepared by the Vendor's solicitors and that the same shall constitute satisfactory manner of responding to the Purchaser's requisitions. Further, the Purchaser agrees that in the event that any valid requisition is not sufficiently answered by the Vendor, then the requisition shall be deemed sufficiently answered if a title insurance policy, available for issuance to the Purchaser by any company which issues title insurance policies in Ontario, would insure over the title matter which is being requisitioned.

14. ADJUSTMENTS ON CLOSING

The balance due on the Occupancy Date shall be adjusted on the Occupancy Date (or adjusted on the Unit Transfer Date if so required by the Vendor) as to all prepaid and accrued expenses or charges and as to other items required by the terms of this Agreement which shall include, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following:

- (a) contribution towards the common expenses and any adjustment of Occupancy Fees as of the Unit Transfer Date, if applicable;
- (b) The Purchaser agrees to deliver on the Unit Transfer Date and specifically as directed by the Vendor either (a) a series of twelve post-dated cheques, or (b) a pre-authorized payment form; in an amount estimated by the Vendor to be payable monthly to the Condominium Corporation on account of common expenses;
- (c) any other prepaid or current expense, such as gas, electricity, fuel, water, heating and cooling which shall be adjusted by attributing to the Purchaser's unit its share of such expenses, as determined by its proportionate contribution to the common expenses or which are assessed against the Unit directly, and any charges paid by the Vendor to a utility which is attributable to the Unit and/or the Condominium, including, without limitation, any charges and deposits (which shall be adjusted equally among the residential units) for the connection or energization of any water, sewage, gas, electricity, heating and cooling services to the Unit and/or Condominium, or the installation of a meter for same and the cost of such meters, notwithstanding that the Purchaser shall not own such meter, unless such charges are included in common expenses;
- (d) realty taxes (including local improvement rates) on the Unit. Realty taxes shall be estimated by the Vendor for the calendar year in which this transaction is completed and the following calendar year where the Vendor has posted security for such taxes or has been advised by the applicable authority that taxes will be billed to its account for such following year and realty taxes shall be adjusted as if such sum had been paid by the Vendor notwithstanding that the same may not by the Occupancy Date have been levied or paid, subject, however, to readjustment upon the actual amount of said realty taxes being ascertained, and the Purchaser shall forthwith pay to the Vendor any balance owing to the Vendor upon receiving notice in writing thereof and the Vendor shall forthwith return to the Purchaser any balance owing to him. If realty taxes are owing for a period when the Condominium was assessed and taxed as one structure and not as individual units, then the adjustment of realty taxes shall include an amount calculated to attribute a portion of such realty taxes owing on the Condominium to the Purchaser's Unit based on its common interest or alternately, equally among all of the residential dwelling units or in such other manner as the Vendor may elect, acting reasonably. Alternatively and at the Vendor's option realty taxes shall not be adjusted until individual unit assessments have been made. The Purchaser shall be responsible for all monthly realty tax reassessments and/or supplementary tax bills relating to the Unit subsequent to the Occupancy Date or the Unit Transfer Date if there is no Occupancy Date;
- (e) the transaction levy surcharge imposed upon the Vendor or its solicitors by the Law Society of Upper Canada plus Applicable Taxes;
- (a) the enrolment and/or regulatory fees, plus applicable taxes, paid by the Vendor for the Real Property under, pursuant to or as a requirement or prerequisite of any governmental authority and any of the following: the New Homes Warranty Plan Act, New Home Construction Licensing Act, 2017, or by any of the regulators or authorities pursuant to the foregoing, including, without limitation, the Taron Warranty Corporation and/or the Home Construction Regulatory Authority;
- (f) all deposits paid to the Vendor hereunder, together with interest to be paid/credited to the Purchaser in accordance with the provisions of the Act;
- (g) a $250.00 administrative fee shall be charged to the Purchaser for any direct deposit or cheque paid for a deposit, the monthly occupancy fee or for any upgrades which is not honoured or accepted by the Purchaser's bank for any reason, including a cheque returned N.S.F. or upon which a "stop payment" has been ordered;
- (h) if the Purchaser is not a resident of Canada for the purposes of the Income Tax Act, Canada (the "ITA"), the Vendor shall be entitled to withhold and remit to Canada Revenue Agency the appropriate amount of interest payable to the Purchaser on account of his deposits paid hereunder, in accordance with the ITA;
- (i) the charge with respect to the provision of a status certificate;
- (j) any increase after the date of execution of this Agreement by the Purchaser in any levy, development charge, education development charge, cash in lieu of parkland dedication payment, impost charge, fee or assessment (collectively, the "Existing Levy") imposed as of that date by the municipality, the public or separate school board or any other authority having jurisdiction and/or any of the aforesaid authorities impose a new or any other levy, development charge, impost charge, fee or assessment (collectively referred to as the "New Levy") under the Development Charges Act, the Education Act, or any other legislation after the date of execution of this Agreement then, the Purchaser shall pay the increase to the Existing Levy and/or amount of the New Levy, as the case may be, as an adjustment on the Unit Transfer Date plus Applicable Taxes exigible thereon. The Purchaser and Vendor agree that the harmonized sales tax (the "HST") applies to this transaction and the Purchase Price includes the HST, net of the federal and Ontario new housing rebates or the like (collectively the "Rebate"). The Purchaser or any related person thereof (a "Related Person"), as defined by section 251 of the Income Tax Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. 1, as amended from time to time, shall assign in a form required by the Vendor and/or by any of the Government of Canada, Government of Ontario and/or any other governmental and/or tax authority (collectively, the "Government") to the Vendor all of its right, title and interest in the Rebate to which the Purchaser or any Related Person is entitled. If the Purchaser or any Related Person is not entitled to the Rebate for any reason whatsoever or if the Rebate is reduced or withdrawn by the Government and not replaced with an amount equivalent to the amount of the Rebate to which the Purchaser or any Related Person is entitled by the Government or if the Rebate is not or cannot be assigned to the Vendor or the Rebate is claimed and payment/credit of the Rebate to the Vendor is denied by the Government then, the Purchaser shall forthwith upon demand by the Vendor pay to the Vendor an amount equal to the Rebate or the amount so reduced or withdrawn and until so paid, the amount of the Rebate shall form a charge against the Unit which charge shall be recoverable by the Vendor in the same manner as a mortgage in default. If the Vendor does not receive the full benefit of the Rebate for any reason whatsoever, whether or not as a result of the acts or omissions of the Purchaser or any Related Person, the Purchaser shall indemnify and save the Vendor harmless in the amount that the Vendor would have been entitled to had such Rebate been received, together with all interest and penalties thereon, and all losses, costs, damages and liabilities which the Vendor may suffer, incur or be charged with in connection therewith, as a result of the Purchaser's or any Related Person's failure to qualify for the Rebate, or as a result of the Purchaser or any Related Person having qualified initially but being subsequently disentitled to the Rebate, or as a result of the inability to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor (or the ineffectiveness of the documents purporting to assign the benefit of the Rebate to the Vendor), which indemnity shall survive the Unit Transfer Date. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Purchaser and any Related Person shall not be entitled to any refund, credit or abatement in any manner whatsoever should the HST, or any portion thereof, not apply to this transaction for any reason whatsoever. The HST that is included in the Purchase Price is based on the federal portion and the provincial portion of the HST at the rates of 5% and 8%, respectively. If either or both of the rates increase, the Purchaser shall be responsible for the increase and shall pay same as an adjustment on the Unit Transfer Date, and if either or both of the rates decrease, the Purchaser shall not be entitled to any abatement or reduction of the Purchase Price. Notwithstanding that the Purchase Price is inclusive of the HST net of the Rebate as aforesaid, the Purchaser, shall, at the Purchaser's own cost and expense, be responsible for the payment of the HST and all other taxes, value added taxes, sales taxes, use taxes or transfer taxes and any increases thereof which may be applicable (collectively the "Applicable Taxes") on all closing adjustments and amounts payable for extras, changes, upgrades, fees and charges.

If the Vendor believes, for whatever reason, that the Purchaser and/or any Related Person does not qualify for the Rebate, regardless of any documentation provided by or on behalf of the Purchaser or any Related Person (including any statutory declaration sworn by the Purchaser) to the contrary, and the Vendor's belief or position on this matter is communicated to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor on or before the Unit Transfer Date, then notwithstanding anything hereinbefore or hereinafter provided to the contrary, the Purchaser shall be obliged to pay to the Vendor (or to whomsoever the Vendor may in writing direct), by certified cheque delivered on Unit Transfer Date, an amount equivalent to the Rebate, in addition to the Purchase Price. In those circumstances where the Purchaser maintains that he or she or any Related Person is eligible for the Rebate despite the Vendor's belief to the contrary, the Purchaser or any Related Person shall (after payment of the amount equivalent to the Rebate as aforesaid) be fully entitled to file the rebate form directly with (and pursue the procurement of the Rebate directly from) the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA").

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees for any matter related to HST that is applicable to this transaction, including without limiting the generality of the foregoing the Rebate, the Vendor (or any party or parties comprising the Vendor, if applicable) or any other party as may be designated by the Vendor may be a party to such of the HST documentation as may be required by the Vendor under this Agreement.

In the event that the Vendor, as a pre-requisite to the procurement and provision of any utility service to the Condominium is required to pay or provide any public utility authority or service supplier with cash security or a letter of credit (hereinafter the "Utility Security Deposit"), then in such circumstances the Vendor shall be entitled to a proportionate reimbursement of the Utility Security Deposit from the Purchaser, by charging the Purchaser in the Statement of Adjustments with that portion of the Utility Security Deposit, which proportion is calculated by multiplying the Utility Security Deposit by the common interest percentage allocation referable to the Unit, as set forth in the declaration.

15. MANAGEMENT OF THE PROPERTY

A management company to be named by the Vendor shall manage the Condominium. The management company shall enter into a management agreement with the Condominium Corporation and the management fees, together with all proper common expenses incurred in connection with such management, shall be a common expense and will be included with the monthly common expense charge.

The Vendor shall have the right from time to time prior to the Unit Transfer Date or any extension thereof to modify the proposed Condominium Documents, being comprised of the disclosure statement with the accompanying declaration, by-laws and rules, and/or to provide such additional material and information, to comply with the requirements of the Act, as may be amended from time to time, the Ministry of Consumer and Business Services or any other ministry, the Office of Land Titles, the Municipality, or other authorities, agencies or commissions having jurisdiction.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the registered Condominium Documents and final budget statement for the one year period immediately following registration of the Condominium may vary from the proposed Condominium Documents and budget statement given to the Purchaser. In the event there is a material change to any of the documents comprising the Condominium Documents, then the Purchaser's only remedy shall be rescission of this Agreement to be exercised by the Purchaser within ten (10) days of the Purchaser receiving notice of such material change, and the Purchaser may not claim specific performance and/or special damages against the Vendor as a result, notwithstanding any rule of law or equity to the contrary.

18. AGREEMENT CONDITIONAL

This Agreement and the transaction arising therefrom are conditional upon compliance with the provisions of the Planning Act of Ontario, and amendments thereto.

19. AGREEMENT NOT TO BE REGISTERED

The Purchaser acknowledges this Agreement confers a personal right only and not any interest in the Unit or property and that the registration against title of any notice or caution or other reference to this Agreement or his or her interest is likely to cause inconvenience and prejudice or irreparable harm to the Vendor and other unit purchasers, for example, by impeding financing and the registration of the Condominium. If any such registration occurs, the Vendor may terminate this Agreement forthwith and take full forfeiture of the Purchaser's deposits as liquidated damages and not as a penalty. Further, the Purchaser hereby irrevocably consents to a court order removing such registration and agrees to pay all Vendor's costs and expenses in obtaining such court order including, but not limited to, fees of its solicitors on a solicitor and client basis together with any Applicable Taxes thereon. Additionally, the Purchaser hereby irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints the Vendor or any of its authorized signing officers to be and act as his lawful attorney in the Purchaser's name, place and stead, without liability or claim, for the purpose of removing any such registration from title.

This Agreement is not assignable or transferable in any manner whatsoever by the Purchaser, and the Purchaser covenants not to offer, list or advertise for sale, lease or transfer the Unit, nor to sell, lease, assign or transfer his interest under this Agreement (or in the Unit) until after acquisition of title to the Unit on the Unit Transfer Date. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that once a breach of the preceding covenant occurs, such breach is (or shall be) incapable of rectification, and accordingly the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event of such breach, the Vendor shall have the unilateral right and option of terminating this Agreement (and the Occupancy Agreement) effective upon delivery of notice of termination to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor, whereupon the provisions of this Agreement dealing with the consequence of termination by reason of the Purchaser's default, shall apply. At any time prior to the Unit Transfer Date, the Vendor shall be permitted to assign this Agreement to any party registered as a Vendor pursuant to the Warranty Act, and upon notification of assumption of this Agreement and such assignment to the Purchaser, the Vendor shall be automatically released from all obligations arising pursuant to this Agreement and the assignee shall continue from the date of such assignment as the Vendor as if it had been the original party to this Agreement.

Any tender of documents or money may be made by the Vendor upon the Purchaser hereto or upon the respective solicitor, will be deemed to be good and valid if made in accordance with the provisions of paragraph herein headed Electronic Registration. The Vendor shall not be required to register any discharge of any outstanding mortgage, charge or other encumbrance not being assumed by the Purchaser on the Unit Transfer Date, in order to validate or perfect the Vendor's tender upon the Purchaser, and need only make arrangements to discharge same in accordance with the provisions of paragraph headed Acceptance of Title by Purchaser herein in the event that the Purchaser completes this transaction. The parties agree that payment of monies must be made or tendered in such form and by such method as may be directed in writing by the Vendor, in its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion. Unless otherwise directed, in accordance with the foregoing, payment shall be made by way of the Purchaser's solicitor's certified cheque drawn on a Canadian Chartered bank or trust company. The Purchaser further acknowledges and agrees that the key(s) to the Unit may be released to him directly from the sales office, the construction site, or from any other location designated by the Vendor, upon payment of all requisite monies and the delivery of all relevant documents to the Vendor, and the Vendor shall not be required to provide any key(s) as part of any tender made by it. Upon completion of this transaction, if the Purchaser fails to attend to pick up the keys by fifteen minutes after five (5:15) p.m. on that date, the Vendor may retain the keys and release same to the Purchaser on the next business day (in this Agreement the term "business day" or "business days" shall mean Monday to Friday, excluding statutory holidays in the Province of Ontario).

22. DEFAULT

The Purchaser shall be deemed to be in default under this Agreement if the Purchaser registers any instrument against title to the Unit other than the transfer to be delivered by the Vendor, or if any lien, execution or encumbrance arising from any action or default whatsoever of the Purchaser is charged against or affects the Unit.

If any (a) monetary default by the Purchaser occurs under this Agreement; or (b) any non-monetary default by the Purchaser occurs under this Agreement and such non-monetary default continues for FIVE (5) days after written notice thereof is given to the Purchaser or his solicitor, then the Vendor may retain all monies paid as liquidated damages without prejudice to any other rights of the Vendor and the Vendor may thereupon cancel this Agreement. If the Vendor is required to pay any lien, execution or encumbrance, the Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor for all amounts and costs so paid. Any monies owing to the Vendor (a) pursuant to this Agreement and not paid to the Vendor in accordance with the terms hereof; or (b) as a result of any expenses incurred by the Vendor arising from a breach by the Purchaser of any of the Purchaser's obligations described in this Agreement, shall bear interest at the rate of twenty-four (24%) per annum, calculated daily, not in advance, from the date of default with respect to any monetary default and from the date of written demand with respect to the aforesaid expenses. The Purchaser shall pay the Vendor's solicitor's fees in the amount of $500.00 (plus Applicable Taxes and disbursements) for each letter or other form of notice sent to the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor relating to any default by the Purchaser.

In the event that the person(s) executing this Agreement as Purchaser have done so for a disclosed or undisclosed beneficiary or principal, such person(s) executing this Agreement shall nevertheless be liable to the Vendor for the Purchaser's obligations under this Agreement and shall not plead such agency, trust relationship or other relationship as a defence to such liability.

In the event that this Agreement is terminated and the Purchaser is entitled to the return of its deposits and interest thereon in accordance with the Act and this Agreement, the Purchaser acknowledges that the Vendor and any undisclosed beneficiary, agent or other person or corporation, shall not be liable for any damages or costs whatsoever incurred by the Purchaser resulting from the termination of this Agreement including, without limitation, relocation costs, moving costs, professional fees and disbursements, opportunity costs, loss of bargain or other damages or costs incurred by the Purchaser, whether direct or indirect and the Purchaser further acknowledges that this provision may be pleaded by the Vendor as a complete defence to any claim, action or proceeding which may be made or brought against the Vendor and/or its agents and/or affiliates.

If the payment of a deposit pursuant to this Agreement that has been permitted by the Vendor to be made by way of wire transfer or direct deposit is less than the corresponding amount described in this Agreement, then the Vendor shall have the option, in its sole, absolute and unfettered discretion, of accepting such lower amount as a deposit against the Purchase Price and such acceptance shall not constitute full acceptance of the deposit in lieu of the required amount or a waiver of the Vendor's rights and remedies under this Agreement or at law.

24. AGREEMENT NOT TO MERGE WITH TRANSFER

All of the covenants, warranties and obligations contained in this Agreement to be performed by the Purchaser shall survive the closing of this transaction and shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the transfer of title to the Unit to the Purchaser. It is provided that in the event of a breach of any covenant, warranty or obligation contained in this Agreement to be performed by the Purchaser, the Vendor shall be entitled, at its option, to declare this Agreement null and void and to retain all amounts paid by the Purchaser without prejudice to any other rights of the Vendor arising from that breach.

25. WAIVER

No provision of this Agreement may be waived by either party except in writing. The waiver of any of the provisions hereunder shall not affect the right of either party to enforce all other provisions not so waived.

The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that in the event that the Vendor has entered this Agreement and/or has distributed the Disclosure Statement as a trustee or agent for an undisclosed or disclosed beneficiary or principal, whether or not so stated herein, that there shall be no liability on such undisclosed or disclosed beneficiary or principal and that the only recourse or remedy that the Purchaser shall have on default by the Vendor herein and/or in respect of the Disclosure Statement is against the Vendor and the property that is the subject of this Agreement, the Purchaser hereby waiving any rights of recovery or recourse against such beneficiary or principal whether in law or equity.

26. SUBORDINATION OF AGREEMENT

The Purchaser agrees that this Agreement shall be subordinate to and postponed to any mortgages arranged or to be arranged by the Vendor and any advances thereunder from time to time, and to any easement, service agreement and other similar agreements made by the Vendor concerning the property or lands and also to the registration of all Condominium Documents. 28. TIME OF ESSENCE

Time shall in all respects be strictly of the essence of this Agreement and no extension of time for any payment by the Purchaser or rectification of any breach of any agreement, stipulations, condition or restriction shall operate as a waiver of this provision with respect to any other payment or rectification of any other breach, except as specifically agreed upon in writing by the Vendor or the Purchaser, as the case may be.

29. PREPARATION AND COST OF REGISTERING DOCUMENTS

The Transfer is to be prepared by the Vendor on the Vendor's standard form. 36. ELECTRONIC DOCUMENTS AND TRANSFER OF FUNDS

- (a) Pursuant to subsection 3(1) of the Electronic Commerce Act of Ontario, as amended (or any successor or similar legislation) (the "EC Act"): (i) the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees to use and accept any information and/or document to be provided by the Vendor and/or its solicitors in respect of this transaction in an electronic form if, when and in the form provided by the Vendor and/or its solicitors including, without limitation, accepting and providing electronic signatures, delivery by electronic mail and/or by the Vendor making information or documentation available to the Purchaser or its solicitor for access or download from a website; and (ii) the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees to provide to the Vendor and/or its solicitors any information and/or document required in respect of this transaction in an electronic form or in originally executed paper form as, when and in the form required by the Vendor and/or its solicitors, in their sole and unfettered discretion. The terms "electronic", "electronically" and "electronic signature" utilized in this Agreement shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the EC Act. In the event that the Purchaser and/or its solicitor is not willing or able to use, provide and/or accept information and documentation in electronic form in accordance with the foregoing, the Vendor in its sole and unfettered discretion may provide or accept documentation or information other than in electronic form, in which event the Purchaser agrees to pay all of the Vendor's solicitor legal fees and disbursements for same forthwith.

- (b) The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Vendor shall determine, in its sole and unfettered discretion, the method by which the Purchaser is to make payment of any funds payable by the Purchaser in respect of this transaction. Such method may include, at the option of the Vendor, delivery of funds by the Purchaser electronically through an electronic funds transfer system (the "EFTS") designated by the Vendor or the Vendor's Solicitors, including, without limitation, the Closure Service provided by Teranet Inc. In such case:
- (i) the Purchaser's solicitor shall be registered with the provider of the EFTS, and, at the request of the Vendor's solicitors, shall provide evidence of such registration to the Vendor's solicitors at least 10 days prior to closing;
 - (ii) the Purchaser and/or the Purchaser's solicitor shall execute such documents as the Vendor or the Vendor's solicitors may require in connection with the EFTS; and
 - (iii) the Purchaser shall pay as an adjustment on closing to the Vendor or its solicitors all fees and charges imposed by the provider of the EFTS together with any wire transfer fees and charges imposed upon the Vendor or its solicitors by their banks in connection with the transfer of funds.

37. ELECTRONIC REGISTRATION

If the electronic registration system (hereinafter referred to as the "Electronic System" or "ERS") is operative in the applicable Land Registry Office in which the Unit is registered, the following provisions shall prevail, namely:

- (a) the Purchaser shall be obliged to retain a lawyer in good standing with the Law Society of Upper Canada to represent the Purchaser in connection with the completion of the transaction, and shall authorize such lawyer to enter into an escrow closing agreement with the Vendor's solicitor on the latter's standard form (hereinafter referred to as the "Escrow Document Registration Agreement"), establishing the procedures and timing for completing this transaction. The Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor as an adjustment on closing for any additional legal costs that the Vendor may incur to complete this transaction under ERS of $250.00, plus Applicable Taxes.
- (b) the delivery and exchange of documents and monies for the Unit and the release thereof to the Vendor and the Purchaser, as the case may be:
 - (i) shall not occur contemporaneously with the registration of the transfer/deed (and other registerable documentation); and
 - (ii) shall be governed by the Escrow Document Registration Agreement, pursuant to which the solicitor receiving the documents and/or certified funds will be required to hold same in escrow, and will not be entitled to release same except in strict accordance with the provisions of the Escrow Document Registration Agreement;
- (c) if the Purchaser's lawyer is unwilling or unable to complete this transaction via ERS, in accordance with the provisions contemplated under the Escrow Document Registration Agreement, then said lawyer (or the authorized agent thereof) shall be obliged to personally attend at the office of the Vendor's solicitor at the time on the scheduled Closing Date as may be directed by the Vendor's solicitor or as mutually agreed upon, in order to complete this transaction via ERS utilizing the computer facilities in the Vendor's solicitor's office;
- (d) the Purchaser expressly acknowledges and agrees that he or she will not be entitled to receive the transfer to the unit for registration until the balance of funds due on closing, in accordance with the statement of adjustments, are either remitted by certified cheque via personal delivery or if agreed to by the Vendor's solicitor, by electronic funds transfer to the Vendor's solicitor (or in such other manner as the latter may direct) prior to the release of the transfer for registration;
- (e) each of the parties hereto agrees that the delivery of any documents not intended for registration on title to the unit shall be delivered to the other party hereto on or before the Unit Transfer Date; and
- (f) notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, it is expressly understood and agreed by the parties hereto that an effective tender shall be deemed to have been validly made by the Vendor upon the Purchaser when the Vendor's solicitor has:
 - (i) delivered all closing documents and/or funds to the Purchaser's solicitor in accordance with the provisions of the Escrow Document Registration Agreement;
 - (ii) advised the Purchaser's solicitor, in writing, that the Vendor is ready, willing and able to complete the transaction in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Agreement; and
 - (iii) has completed all steps required by ERS in order to complete this transaction that can be performed or undertaken by the Vendor's solicitor without the cooperation or participation of the Purchaser's solicitor, and
 - (iv) without the necessity of personally attending upon the Purchaser or the Purchaser's solicitor with the aforementioned documents and/or funds, and without any requirement to have an independent witness evidencing the foregoing.

38. HEADINGS

The headings to the clauses of this Agreement form no part of the agreement but shall be deemed to be inserted for convenience of reference only.

39. MEANING OF WORDS

The meaning of the words, terms and phrases used in this Agreement, and particularly those terms not defined herein, shall be as defined in the Act as amended, unless specifically otherwise defined or amended herein. In the event there is a conflict between any term(s) in this Agreement, the Vendor shall determine which of the conflicting term(s) prevail(s). In the event that there is a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and the Act, and the Act provides that the provision in the Act prevails, then the provision of the Act shall prevail.

40. APPLICABLE LAW AND JOINT AND SEVERAL LIABILITY

This Agreement of Purchase and Sale shall be governed by the laws of the Province of Ontario. If more than one individual, partnership and/or company comprises the Purchaser, then all of the covenants, obligations and agreements of the Purchaser herein shall be deemed and construed to be the joint and several covenants, obligations and agreements of all the individuals, partnerships and companies comprising the Purchaser.

41. DEPOSIT RECEIPT

The Purchaser hereby irrevocably nominates, constitutes and appoints the Vendor to be and act as his lawful attorney, without liability or claim, in the Purchaser's name, place and stead, in order to execute the deposit receipt issued pursuant to the Warranty Act and the regulations thereunder, as may be amended from time to time, and any excess Condominium Deposit Insurance (and related documents) issued by any insurer providing prescribed security for the Purchaser's deposit monies pursuant to the Act and in accordance with the provisions of the Powers of Attorney Act (Ontario) as amended from time to time. The Purchaser hereby confirms and agrees that the power of attorney granted herein may be exercised by the Vendor during any subsequent legal incapacity of the Purchaser.

As soon as prescribed security for any deposit held by Loopstra Nixon LLP (the "Firm") has been provided as required under the Act, the Firm shall thereupon be entitled and is hereby irrevocably authorized and directed to release and disburse such deposit in the Vendor's discretion. The Firm may rely on this provision for the release of the deposit in whole or in part notwithstanding that the Firm is not a party to this Agreement.

Notwithstanding anything herein, if as of the day of execution of this Agreement of Purchase and Sale, the Condominium has already been registered under the Act, the deposits paid to the Firm hereunder are not required to be held by the Firm and the deposits may be directed and/or released to the Vendor at the Vendor's sole, absolute and unfettered discretion and without notice to the Purchaser. The Purchaser shall reimburse the Vendor as an adjustment on closing a deposit administration fee of $250.00 plus Applicable Taxes charged by the Vendor's Solicitor to the Vendor with respect to the provision of any required evidence of compliance or other forms or receipts in respect of the Purchaser's deposits as required by the Act.

42. FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The Purchaser hereby consents to the Vendor obtaining a consumer report containing credit and/or personal information for the purposes of this transaction. In addition, the Purchaser shall deliver to the Vendor, within ten (10) days of written demand from the Vendor or any agent thereof, all necessary financial and personal information required by the Vendor in order to evidence the Purchaser's ability to pay the balance of the Purchase Price on the Unit Transfer Date, including without limitation, written confirmation of the Purchaser's income and evidence of the source of the payments required to be made by the Purchaser in accordance with this Agreement. Any failure by the Purchaser to comply with the provisions of this paragraph shall constitute a default by the Purchaser, pursuant to which the Vendor shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and take forfeiture of the Purchaser's deposit in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement. In this regard, the Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that (a) the aforesaid information has been provided with the Purchaser's knowledge and consent that such information may be used by the Vendor, its consultants and its lending institution(s) for the purpose of arranging financing to complete the transaction contemplated by this Agreement and; (b) such information may remain on file by the Vendor for future reference.

43. PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Purchaser(s) consents to the Vendor collecting and possessing the Purchaser's name and "personal information" (as such term is defined in the Personal Information Protection and Electronic Documents Act 2000, c.5) obtained by the Vendor pursuant to and in connection with this Agreement. The Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the aforesaid information has been provided to the Vendor with the Purchaser's knowledge and consent. In addition, the Purchaser(s) consents to the Vendor using, releasing, disclosing and/or retaining on file the Purchaser's name and personal information to: (a) a company or organization affiliated, associated or related to the Vendor, in order to provide the Purchaser with information relating to this project and other projects of such entities; (b) any provider of utilities, services and/or commodities to the Unit (including, without limitation, gas, electricity, water, telephone, internet and other communication services, cable, heating, cooling, satellite t.v., appliances and/or property tax assessments) for the purpose of marketing, promoting and providing such utilities, services and/or commodities to the Unit; (c) the Vendor's consultants and lending institution(s) for the purpose of arranging financing to complete the transaction contemplated by this Agreement; and (d) the Vendor's sales agents and representatives for the purpose of using same for promotional and marketing purposes.

44. RENTAL EQUIPMENT

The Vendor intends that the Unit will not contain any rental equipment, however the Vendor reserves the right to make the hot water tank and/or the heat pump and related equipment for the Unit (the "Equipment") rental equipment which is not included in the Purchase Price and shall remain chattel property. The Purchaser acknowledges that (i) the Vendor will advise prior to the Unit Transfer Date which Equipment may be non-owned rental equipment; (ii) the terms governing the lease/rental for the Equipment will be provided by the Vendor prior to closing and the Purchaser may be required to execute a lease/rental document containing the terms prior to closing; and (iii) the terms of the lease/rental may contain a buy-out option allowing the Purchaser to purchase the Equipment if desired. If any provider of the Equipment no longer rents the Equipment and if arrangements are not made with another supplier for the installation of the Equipment on a rental basis, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, the Purchaser shall pay, as an adjustment on closing, the cost of the Equipment, such cost to be determined by statutory declaration sworn on the part of the Vendor.

45. MODEL HOME UNITS

Notwithstanding anything herein written, if at the time that this Agreement is executed, the Unit has already been substantially completed, the Purchaser shall purchase the Unit in an "as built" condition rather than in accordance with any other representations.

46. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

There is no oral and/or written representation, warranty, collateral Agreement or condition affecting this Agreement or the Unit, or supported hereby, except as set forth herein in writing. The Purchaser acknowledges that the new home industry is multi-faceted and complex and that while sales personnel or agents are knowledgeable about most issues regarding the purchase and construction of a new home, they cannot be expected to know all aspects in detail. Accordingly, the Purchaser acknowledges that no representations have been made to the Purchaser by the sales personnel or agents, upon which the Purchaser has relied upon, and which were material or instrumental to the Purchaser's decision to purchase this Property, except as are set forth herein in writing. There is no representation, warranty, collateral agreement or condition affecting this Agreement or the Property, or supported hereby, except as set forth herein in writing. The Purchaser is encouraged to have this Agreement reviewed by the Purchaser's solicitor prior to signing same.

47. COUNTERPARTS

This Agreement may be executed and delivered in counterparts, each of which shall be an original and all counterparts together shall constitute a single document. The fact of execution and delivery of this Agreement may be communicated to the other parties by facsimile or email (with a pdf attachment) or other form or electronic transmission of the signature page of this Agreement and shall constitute a valid and binding agreement of the parties.

48. ONE PURCHASER BINDS ALL PURCHASERS

In the event that more than one party comprises the Purchaser herein, the obligations of such parties under this Agreement shall be joint and several, and in the event that any one of the parties comprising the Purchaser executes any agreement, amendments, extension agreement, notice, colour or materials or upgrades/extras selections charts or order forms or any other agreement, notice, acknowledgment or matter in respect of this Agreement or the Unit, all of the parties comprising the Purchaser shall be bound by the document executed by the one party on behalf of the others and each such party hereby grants a Power of Attorney to the other or others for any such purpose. The Vendor may, but shall not be required, to obtain the signatures or execution of all parties comprising the Purchaser to any other documents as aforesaid.

49. RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, it is expressly understood and agreed that if the Purchaser comprises more than one individual, then all individuals comprising the Purchaser shall be deemed and construed to have acquired the Unit purchased hereunder on joint account with right of survivorship, and accordingly, should any of the individuals comprising the Purchaser is deceased before completion of the transaction contemplated by this Agreement, then the Vendor is hereby irrevocably authorized and directed to engross the transfer/deed in the name of the surviving individual(s) comprising the Purchaser, without requiring probate of the deceased individual's last will and testament (and regardless of the provisions of any last will and testament of the deceased individual comprising the Purchaser and/or any rules applicable on his or her intestacy), provided however that the surviving individual(s) comprising the Purchaser shall nevertheless be obliged to deliver to the Vendor's solicitor a notarial copy of the death certificate, or the funeral director's certificate, or other satisfactory proof of death of the deceased individual comprising the Purchaser, and shall also be obliged to execute and deliver, on or before the Unit Transfer Date, the Vendor's standard form of indemnity pursuant to which the surviving individual(s) comprising the Purchaser shall jointly and severally indemnify and save the Vendor and its solicitors harmless from and against all costs, claims, damages and/or liabilities which either or both of them may suffer or incur as a result of transferring title to the Unit to the surviving individual(s) exclusively (including any claims from any children, relatives or other heirs of the deceased individual comprising the Purchaser, or from any beneficiaries of the estate of the deceased individual comprising the Purchaser).

Warranty Information for New Condominium Units

This information sheet provides a basic overview of the warranties and protections that come with your new condominium unit. This warranty is provided to you by your builder and backed by Tarion. For more detailed information, visit tarion.com and log into our online learning hub at www.tarion.com/learninghub

The Pre-Delivery Inspection (PDI)

Before you take occupancy of your unit, your builder is required to conduct a pre-delivery inspection, (PDI) with you or someone you designate to act on your behalf. If you wish, you may be accompanied by someone who can provide expert assistance. The PDI is important because it is an opportunity to learn about how to operate and maintain parts of your unit, such as the ventilation and heating systems. It is also important because it gives you an opportunity to note items in your unit that are damaged, missing, incomplete, or not working properly before you take occupancy. This record is also very important as it may help show what items may have been damaged before you moved in and helps resolve any disputes relating to whether or not an item of damage was caused by your occupancy and use.

The PDI is only one piece of evidence relating to damaged or incomplete items, and you should note and document (e.g. via photos or video) any concerns or damaged items as soon as you notice them after taking occupancy if they were missed on the PDI. If the damaged items are not addressed by your builder, you can include them in your 30-Day Form to Tarion. Damaged items are covered under the warranty if the damage was caused by the builder. There is more information about the PDI here: www.tarion.com/learninghub

Deposit Protection

The Condominium Act requires your builder to hold the deposit for your condominium unit in trust until the deposit is provided to the person entitled to it or the amount of your deposit is insured, as applicable. If your Agreement of Purchase and Sale is terminated by the builder, except as a result of the Purchaser’s default, your deposit must be returned to you in full within 10 days. If your deposit is not returned, you are still protected by Tarion for the return of your deposit, or portion that has not yet been returned, up to $20,000. This protection includes the money you put down towards upgrades and other extras.

Delayed Occupancy Coverage

Your builder guarantees that your unit will be ready for you to move in by a date specified in the purchase agreement or a date that has been properly extended (if for certain reasons the original occupancy date cannot be met). You may be able to claim up to $7,500 from your builder in compensation if they do not meet the conditions for an allowable extension that are outlined in the Addendum to your Agreement of Purchase and Sale .

Warranty Coverage

The warranty on work and materials commences on your occupancy date and provides up to a maximum of $300,000 in coverage. There are limitations on scope and duration as follows. Your builder warrants that your home will, on delivery , have these warranties:

One-Year Warranty

- Your home is constructed in a workmanlike manner, free from defects in material, is fit for habitation and complies with Ontario’s Building Code
- Protects against unauthorized substitution of items specified in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or selected by you

Two-Year Warranty

- Protects against water penetration through the basement or foundation walls, windows, and the building envelope
- Covers defects in work and materials in the electrical, plumbing, and heating delivery and distribution systems
- Covers defects in work and materials that result in the detachment, displacement, or deterioration of exterior cladding (such as brick work, aluminum, or vinyl siding)
- Protects against violations of Ontario’s Building Code that affect health and safety

Seven-Year Warranty

- Protects against defects in work or materials that affect a structural load-bearing element of the home resulting in structural failure or that materially and adversely compromise the structural integrity; and/or that materially and adversely affect the use of a significant portion of the home .

Continued...

Construction Performance Guidelines

The Construction Performance Guidelines are a resource to provide advance guidance as to how Tarion may decide disputes between homeowners and builders regarding defects in work or materials. The Construction Performance Guidelines are intended to complement Ontario’s Building Code. They are supplemented by any applicable guidelines or standards produced by industry associations. They do not replace manufacturer warranties. The Construction Performance Guidelines are available in several different formats accessible via cpg.tarion.com.

Warranty Exclusions

Your warranty, provided to you by your builder and backed by Tarion, is a limited warranty, and the protection provided by Tarion is also limited. Exclusions to coverage include: normal wear and tear, damage caused by improper maintenance, damage caused by a third party, secondary damage caused by defects that are under warranty, supplementary warranties, deficiencies caused by homeowner actions, elevators, HVAC appliances, specific defects accepted in writing and damage resulting from an Act of God.

The Common Elements Warranty

For most condominiums, warranty coverage also includes the shared areas, known as the common elements. The common elements warranty is separate from your unit warranty. It begins when the condominium is registered and, unlike your unit warranty, is managed by your condominium corporation. For warranty assistance related to items located outside of the boundaries of your unit, contact your property manager or condominium corporation’s Board of Directors. To learn more about your unit and common element boundaries, you can refer to Schedule C of the proposed declaration in your disclosure statement or, if the condominium is registered, of the registered declaration.

Important Next Steps

1. Visit Tarion’s website to learn more about your warranty coverage and the process for getting warranty assistance, as well as your rights, responsibilities and obligations as a new homeowner.
2. Prepare for your pre-delivery inspection (PDI). Visit Tarion’s website for helpful resources, including a PDI Checklist and educational videos.
3. Register for Tarion’s MyHome right after you take occupancy. MyHome is an online tool you can use from your computer or mobile device that allows you to submit warranty claims and upload supporting documents directly to your builder and Tarion. It also alerts you to important dates and warranty timelines, allows you to receive official correspondence from Tarion electronically, and schedule an inspection with Tarion when you need assistance.

1. Critical Dates

The First Tentative Occupancy Date, which is the date that the Vendor anticipates the home will be completed and ready to move in, is: the 3rd day of January, 2025.

The Vendor can delay Occupancy on one or more occasions by setting a subsequent Tentative Occupancy Date, in accordance with section 1 of the Addendum by giving proper written notice as set out in section 1.

By no later than 30 days after the Roof Assembly Date (as defined in section 12), with at least 90 days prior written notice, the Vendor shall set either (i) a Final Tentative Occupancy Date; or (ii) a Firm Occupancy Date.

For purchase agreements signed after the Roof Assembly Date, the First Tentative Occupancy Date is inapplicable and the Vendor shall instead elect and set either a Final Tentative Occupancy Date or Firm Occupancy Date.

the ____ day of _____, 20____.
Final Tentative Occupancy Date or

If the Vendor sets a Final Tentative Occupancy Date but cannot provide Occupancy by the Final Tentative Occupancy Date, then the Vendor shall set a Firm Occupancy Date that is no later than 120 days after the Final Tentative Occupancy Date, with proper written notice as set out in section 1 below.

the ____ day of _____, 20____.
Firm Occupancy Date

If the Vendor cannot provide Occupancy by the Firm Occupancy Date, then the Purchaser is entitled to delayed occupancy compensation (see section 7 of the Addendum) and the Vendor must set a Delayed Occupancy Date which cannot be later than the Outside Occupancy Date.

The Outside Occupancy Date, which is the latest date by which the Vendor agrees to provide Occupancy, is: the 5th day of January, 2029.

2. Notice Period for an Occupancy Delay

Changing an Occupancy date requires proper written notice. The Vendor, without the Purchaser’s consent, may delay Occupancy one or more times in accordance with section 1 of the Addendum and no later than the Outside Occupancy Date.

Notice of a delay beyond the First Tentative Occupancy Date must be given no later than: the 4th day of October, 2024.

(i.e., at least 90 days before the First Tentative Occupancy Date), or else the First Tentative Occupancy Date automatically becomes the Firm Occupancy Date.

3. Purchaser’s Termination Period

If the home is not complete by the Outside Occupancy Date, then the Purchaser can terminate the transaction during a period of 30 days thereafter (the “Purchaser’s Termination Period”), which period, unless extended by mutual agreement, will end on: the 5th day of February, 2029.

If the Purchaser terminates the transaction during the Purchaser’s Termination Period, then the Purchaser is entitled to delayed occupancy compensation and to a full refund of all monies paid plus interest (see sections 7, 10 and 11 of the Addendum).

Note: Any time a Critical Date is set or changed as permitted in the Addendum, other Critical Dates may change as well. At any given time the parties must refer to: the most recent revised Statement of Critical Dates; or agreement or written notice that sets a Critical Date, and calculate revised Critical Dates using the formulas contained in the Addendum. Critical Dates can also change if there are unavoidable delays (see section 5 of the Addendum).

Acknowledged this 1st day of June, 2021.

SETTING AND CHANGING CRITICAL DATES

1. Setting Tentative Occupancy Dates and the Firm Occupancy Date

- (a) Completing Construction Without Delay: The Vendor shall take all reasonable steps to complete construction of the Building subject to all prescribed requirements, to provide Occupancy of the home without delay, and, to register without delay the declaration and description in respect of the Building.
- (b) First Tentative Occupancy Date: The Vendor shall identify the First Tentative Occupancy Date in the Statement of Critical Dates attached to this Addendum at the time the Purchase Agreement is signed .
- (c) Subsequent Tentative Occupancy Dates: The Vendor may, in accordance with this section, extend the First Tentative Occupancy Date on one or more occasions, by setting a subsequent Tentative Occupancy Date. The Vendor shall give written notice of any subsequent Tentative Occupancy Date to the Purchaser at least 90 days before the existing Tentative Occupancy Date (which in this Addendum may include the First Tentative Occupancy Date), or else the existing Tentative Occupancy Date shall for all purposes be the Firm Occupancy Date. A subsequent Tentative Occupancy Date can be any Business Day on or before the Outside Occupancy Date.
- (d) Final Tentative Occupancy Date: By no later than 30 days after the Roof Assembly Date, the Vendor shall by written notice to the Purchaser set either (i) a Final Tentative Occupancy Date; or (ii) a Firm Occupancy Date. If the Vendor does not do so, the existing Tentative Occupancy Date shall for all purposes be the Firm Occupancy Date. The Vendor shall give written notice of the Final Tentative Occupancy Date or Firm Occupancy Date, as the case may be, to the Purchaser at least 90 days before the existing Tentative Occupancy Date, or else the existing Tentative Occupancy Date shall for all purposes be the Firm Occupancy Date. The Final Tentative Occupancy Date or Firm Occupancy Date, as the case may be, can be any Business Day on or before the Outside Occupancy Date. For new Purchase Agreements signed after the Roof Assembly Date, the Vendor shall insert in the Statement of Critical Dates of the Purchase Agreement either: a Final Tentative Occupancy Date; or a Firm Occupancy Date
- (e) Firm Occupancy Date: If the Vendor has set a Final Tentative Occupancy Date but cannot provide Occupancy by the Final Tentative Occupancy Date then the Vendor shall set a Firm Occupancy Date that is no later than 120 days after the Final Tentative Occupancy Date. The Vendor shall give written notice of the Firm Occupancy Date to the Purchaser at least 90 days before the Final Tentative Occupancy Date, or else the Final Tentative Occupancy Date shall for all purposes be the Firm Occupancy Date. The Firm Occupancy Date can be any Business Day on or before the Outside Occupancy Date.
- (f) Notice: Any notice given by the Vendor under paragraph (c), (d) or (e) must set out the stipulated Critical Date, as applicable.

2. Changing the Firm Occupancy Date - Three Ways

- (a) The Firm Occupancy Date, once set or deemed to be set in accordance with section 1, can be changed only:
 - (i) by the Vendor setting a Delayed Occupancy Date in accordance with section 3;
 - (ii) by the mutual written agreement of the Vendor and Purchaser in accordance with section 4; or
 - (iii) as the result of an Unavoidable Delay of which proper written notice is given in accordance with section 5.
- (b) If a new Firm Occupancy Date is set in accordance with section 4 or 5, then the new date is the “Firm Occupancy Date” for all purposes in this Addendum.

3. Changing the Firm Occupancy Date - By Setting a Delayed Occupancy Date

- (a) If the Vendor cannot provide Occupancy on the Firm Occupancy Date and sections 4 and 5 do not apply, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a Delayed Occupancy Date in accordance with this section, and delayed occupancy compensation is payable in accordance with section 7.
- (b) The Delayed Occupancy Date may be any Business Day after the date the Purchaser receives written notice of the Delayed Occupancy Date but not later than the Outside Occupancy Date.
- (c) The Vendor shall give written notice to the Purchaser of the Delayed Occupancy Date as soon as the Vendor knows that it will be unable to provide Occupancy on the Firm Occupancy Date, and in any event at least 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, failing which delayed occupancy compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, in accordance with paragraph 7(c). If notice of a new Delayed Occupancy Date is not given by the Vendor before the Firm Occupancy Date, then the new Delayed Occupancy Date shall be deemed to be the date which is 90 days after the Firm Occupancy Date.
- (d) After the Delayed Occupancy Date is set, if the Vendor cannot provide Occupancy on the Delayed Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall select and give written notice to the Purchaser of a new Delayed Occupancy Date, unless the delay arises due to Unavoidable Delay under section 5 or is mutually agreed upon under section 4, in which case the requirements of those sections must be met. Paragraphs (b) and (c) above apply with respect to the setting of the new Delayed Occupancy Date.
- (e) Nothing in this section affects the right of the Purchaser or Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement on the bases set out in section 10.

4. Changing Critical Dates - By Mutual Agreement

- (a) This Addendum sets out a framework for setting, extending and/or accelerating Critical Dates, which cannot be altered contractually except as set out in this section 4. Any amendment not in accordance with this section is voidable at the option of the Purchaser. For greater certainty, this Addendum does not restrict any extensions of the Closing date (i.e., title transfer date) where Occupancy of the home has already been given to the Purchaser.

Condominium Form
(Tentative Occupancy Date)

- (b) The Vendor and Purchaser may at any time, after signing the Purchase Agreement, mutually agree in writing to accelerate or extend any of the Critical Dates. Any amendment which accelerates or extends any of the Critical Dates must include the following provisions:
- (i) the Purchaser and Vendor agree that the amendment is entirely voluntary - the Purchaser has no obligation to sign the amendment and each understands that this purchase transaction will still be valid if the Purchaser does not sign this amendment;
 - (ii) the amendment includes a revised Statement of Critical Dates which replaces the previous Statement of Critical Dates;
 - (iii) the Purchaser acknowledges that the amendment may affect delayed occupancy compensation payable ; and
 - (iv) if the change involves extending either the Firm Occupancy Date or the Delayed Occupancy Date, then the amending agreement shall:
 - i. disclose to the Purchaser that the signing of the amendment may result in the loss of delayed occupancy compensation as described in section 7;
 - ii. unless there is an express waiver of compensation, describe in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation; and
 - iii. contain a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser waives compensation or accepts the compensation referred to in clause ii above, in either case, in full satisfaction of any delayed occupancy compensation payable by the Vendor for the period up to the new Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date .

If the Purchaser for his or her own purposes requests a change of the Firm Occupancy Date or the Delayed Occupancy Date, then subparagraphs (b)(i), (iii) and (iv) above shall not apply.

- (c) A Vendor is permitted to include a provision in the Purchase Agreement allowing the Vendor a one-time unilateral right to extend a Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be, for one (1) Business Day to avoid the necessity of tender where a Purchaser is not ready to complete the transaction on the Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be. Delayed occupancy compensation will not be payable for such period and the Vendor may not impose any penalty or interest charge upon the Purchaser with respect to such extension .
- (d) The Vendor and Purchaser may agree in the Purchase Agreement to any unilateral extension or acceleration rights that are for the benefit of the Purchaser.

5. Extending Dates - Due to Unavoidable Delay

- (a) If Unavoidable Delay occurs, the Vendor may extend Critical Dates by no more than the length of the Unavoidable Delay Period, without the approval of the Purchaser and without the requirement to pay delayed occupancy compensation in connection with the Unavoidable Delay, provided the requirements of this section are met.
- (b) If the Vendor wishes to extend Critical Dates on account of Unavoidable Delay, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, and an estimate of the duration of the delay . Once the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has commenced, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser by the earlier of: 20 days thereafter; and the next Critical Date.
- (c) As soon as reasonably possible, and no later than 20 days after the Vendor knows or ought reasonably to know that an Unavoidable Delay has concluded, the Vendor shall provide written notice to the Purchaser setting out a brief description of the Unavoidable Delay, identifying the date of its conclusion, and setting new Critical Dates. The new Critical Dates are calculated by adding to the then next Critical Date the number of days of the Unavoidable Delay Period (the other Critical Dates changing accordingly), provided that the Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, as the case may be, must be at least 10 days after the day of giving notice unless the parties agree otherwise. Either the Vendor or the Purchaser may request in writing an earlier Firm Occupancy Date or Delayed Occupancy Date, and the other party's consent to the earlier date shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- (d) If the Vendor fails to give written notice of the conclusion of the Unavoidable Delay in the manner required by paragraph (c) above, then the notice is ineffective, the existing Critical Dates are unchanged, and any delayed occupancy compensation payable under section 7 is payable from the existing Firm Occupancy Date.
- (e) Any notice setting new Critical Dates given by the Vendor under this section shall include an updated revised Statement of Critical Dates.

EARLY TERMINATION CONDITIONS

6. Early Termination Conditions

- (a) The Vendor and Purchaser may include conditions in the Purchase Agreement that, if not satisfied, give rise to early termination of the Purchase Agreement, but only in the limited way described in this section.
- (b) The Vendor is not permitted to include any conditions in the Purchase Agreement other than: the types of Early Termination Conditions listed in Schedule A; and/or the conditions referred to in paragraphs (i), (j) and (k) below. Any other condition included in a Purchase Agreement for the benefit of the Vendor that is not expressly permitted under Schedule A or paragraphs (i), (j) and (k) below is deemed null and void and is not enforceable by the Vendor, but does not affect the validity of the balance of the Purchase Agreement .

The date by which Condition #2 is to be satisfied is .

The date for satisfaction of any Early Termination Condition may be changed by mutual agreement provided in all cases it is set at least 90 days before the First Tentative Occupancy Date, and will be deemed to be 90 days before the First Tentative Occupancy Date if no date is specified or if the date specified is later than 90 days before the First Tentative Occupancy Date. This time limitation does not apply to the condition in subparagraph 1(b)(iv) of Schedule A which must be satisfied or waived by the Vendor within 60 days following the later of: (A) the signing of the Purchase Agreement; and (B) the satisfaction or waiver by the Purchaser of a Purchaser financing condition permitted under paragraph (k) below.

Note: The parties must add additional pages as an appendix to this Addendum if there are additional Early Termination Conditions.

- (e) There are no Early Termination Conditions applicable to this Purchase Agreement other than those identified in subparagraph (d) above and any appendix listing additional Early Termination Conditions.
- (f) The Vendor agrees to take all commercially reasonable steps within its power to satisfy the Early Termination Conditions identified in subparagraph (d) above.
- (g) For conditions under paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A the following applies:
- (i) conditions in paragraph 1(a) of Schedule A may not be waived by either party;
 - (ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice not later than five (5) Business Days after the date specified for satisfaction of a condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied (together with reasonable details and backup materials) and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
 - (iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed not satisfied and the Purchase Agreement is terminated.
- (h) For conditions under paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A the following applies:
- (i) conditions in paragraph 1(b) of Schedule A may be waived by the Vendor;
 - (ii) the Vendor shall provide written notice on or before the date specified for satisfaction of the condition that: (A) the condition has been satisfied or waived; or (B) the condition has not been satisfied nor waived, and that as a result the Purchase Agreement is terminated; and
 - (iii) if notice is not provided as required by subparagraph (ii) above then the condition is deemed satisfied or waived and the Purchase Agreement will continue to be binding on both parties.
- (i) The Purchase Agreement may be conditional until Closing (transfer to the Purchaser of title to the home), upon compliance with the subdivision control provisions (section 50) of the Planning Act and, if applicable, registration of the declaration and description for the Building under the Condominium Act, 1998, which compliance shall be obtained by the Vendor at its sole expense, on or before Closing.
- (j) The Purchaser is cautioned that there may be other conditions in the Purchase Agreement that allow the Vendor to terminate the Purchase Agreement due to the fault of the Purchaser.
- (k) The Purchase Agreement may include any condition that is for the sole benefit of the Purchaser and that is agreed to by the Vendor (e.g., the sale of an existing dwelling, Purchaser financing or a basement walkout). The Purchase Agreement may specify that the Purchaser has a right to terminate the Purchase Agreement if any such condition is not met, and may set out the terms on which termination by the Purchaser may be effected.

MAKING A COMPENSATION CLAIM

7. Delayed Occupancy Compensation

- (a) The Vendor warrants to the Purchaser that, if Occupancy is delayed beyond the Firm Occupancy Date (other than by mutual agreement or as a result of Unavoidable Delay as permitted under sections 4 and 5), then the Vendor shall compensate the Purchaser up to a total amount of $7,500, which amount includes: (i) payment to the Purchaser of a set amount of $150 a day for living expenses for each day of delay until the Occupancy Date or the date of termination of the Purchase Agreement, as applicable under paragraph (b) below; and (ii) any other expenses (supported by receipts) incurred by the Purchaser due to the delay.
- (b) Delayed occupancy compensation is payable only if: (i) Occupancy and Closing occurs; or (ii) the Purchase Agreement is terminated or deemed to have been terminated under paragraph 10(b) of this Addendum. Delayed occupancy compensation is payable only if the Purchaser's claim is made to Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Occupancy, or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and otherwise in accordance with this Addendum. Compensation claims are subject to any further conditions set out in the ONHWP Act.
- (c) If the Vendor gives written notice of a Delayed Occupancy Date to the Purchaser less than 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date, contrary to the requirements of paragraph 3(c), then delayed occupancy compensation is payable from the date that is 10 days before the Firm Occupancy Date.
- (d) Living expenses are direct living costs such as for accommodation and meals. Receipts are not required in support of a claim for living expenses, as a set daily amount of $150 per day is payable. The Purchaser must provide receipts in support of any claim for other delayed occupancy compensation, such as for moving and storage costs. Submission of false receipts disentitles the Purchaser to any delayed occupancy compensation in connection with a claim.
- (e) If delayed occupancy compensation is payable, the Purchaser may make a claim to the Vendor for that compensation after Occupancy or after termination of the Purchase Agreement, as the case may be, and shall include all receipts (apart from living expenses) which evidence any part of the Purchaser's claim. The Vendor shall assess the Purchaser's claim by determining the amount of delayed occupancy compensation payable based on the rules set out in section 7 and the receipts provided by the Purchaser, and the Vendor shall promptly provide that assessment information to the Purchaser. The Purchaser and the Vendor shall use reasonable efforts to settle the claim and when the claim is settled, the Vendor shall prepare an acknowledgement signed by both parties which:
- (i) includes the Vendor's assessment of the delayed occupancy compensation payable;
 - (ii) describes in reasonable detail the cash amount, goods, services, or other consideration which the Purchaser accepts as compensation (the "Compensation"), if any; and
 - (iii) contains a statement by the Purchaser that the Purchaser accepts the Compensation in full satisfaction of any delayed occupancy compensation payable by the Vendor.
- (f) If the Vendor and Purchaser cannot agree as contemplated in paragraph 7(e), then to make a claim to Tarion the Purchaser must file a claim with Tarion in writing within one (1) year after Occupancy. A claim may also be made and the same rules apply if the sale transaction is terminated under paragraph 10(b), in which case, the deadline for a claim is one (1) year after termination.
- (g) If delayed occupancy compensation is payable, the Vendor shall either pay the compensation as soon as the proper amount is determined; or pay such amount with interest (at the prescribed rate as specified in subsection 19(1) of O.Reg. 48/01 of the Condominium Act, 1998), from the Occupancy Date to the date of Closing, such amount to be an adjustment to the balance due on the day of Closing.

8. Adjustments to Purchase Price

Only the items set out in Schedule B (or an amendment to Schedule B), shall be the subject of adjustment or change to the purchase price or the balance due on Closing. The Vendor agrees that it shall not charge as an adjustment or readjustment to the purchase price of the home, any reimbursement for a sum paid or payable by the Vendor to a third party unless the sum is ultimately paid to the third party either before or after Closing. If the Vendor charges an amount in contravention of the preceding sentence, the Vendor shall forthwith readjust with the Purchaser. This section shall not: restrict or prohibit payments for items disclosed in Part I of Schedule B which have a fixed fee; nor shall it restrict or prohibit the parties from agreeing on how to allocate as between them, any rebates, refunds or incentives provided by the federal government, a provincial or municipal government or an agency of any such government, before or after Closing.

MISCELLANEOUS

9. Ontario Building Code - Conditions of Occupancy

- (a) On or before the Occupancy Date, the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser:
- (i) an Occupancy Permit (as defined in paragraph (d)) for the home; or
 - (ii) if an Occupancy Permit is not required under the Building Code, a signed written confirmation by the Vendor that all conditions of occupancy under the Building Code have been fulfilled and Occupancy is permitted under the Building Code.

Condominium Form
(Tentative Occupancy Date)

- (b) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (a), to the extent that the Purchaser and the Vendor agree that the Purchaser shall be responsible for one or more prerequisites to obtaining permission for Occupancy under the Building Code, (the “Purchaser Occupancy Obligations”):
- (i) the Purchaser shall not be entitled to delayed occupancy compensation if the reason for the delay is that the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations have not been completed;
 - (ii) the Vendor shall deliver to the Purchaser, upon fulfilling all prerequisites to obtaining permission for Occupancy under the Building Code (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations), a signed written confirmation that the Vendor has fulfilled such prerequisites; and
 - (iii) if the Purchaser and Vendor have agreed that such prerequisites (other than the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations) are to be fulfilled prior to Occupancy, then the Vendor shall provide the signed written confirmation required by subparagraph (ii) on or before the Occupancy Date.
- (c) If the Vendor cannot satisfy the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), the Vendor shall set a Delayed Occupancy Date (or new Delayed Occupancy Date) on a date that the Vendor reasonably expects to have satisfied the requirements of paragraph (a) or subparagraph (b)(ii), as the case may be. In setting the Delayed Occupancy Date (or new Delayed Occupancy Date), the Vendor shall comply with the requirements of section 3, and delayed occupancy compensation shall be payable in accordance with section 7. Despite the foregoing, delayed occupancy compensation shall not be payable for a delay under this paragraph (c) if the inability to satisfy the requirements of subparagraph (b) (ii) is because the Purchaser has failed to satisfy the Purchaser Occupancy Obligations.
- (d) For the purposes of this section, an “Occupancy Permit” means any written or electronic document, however styled, whether final, provisional or temporary, provided by the chief building official (as defined in the Building Code Act) or a person designated by the chief building official, that evidences that permission to occupy the home under the Building Code has been granted.

10. Termination of the Purchase Agreement

- (a) The Vendor and the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by mutual written agreement. Such written mutual agreement may specify how monies paid by the Purchaser, including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras are to be allocated if not repaid in full.
- (b) If for any reason (other than breach of contract by the Purchaser) Occupancy has not been given to the Purchaser by the Outside Occupancy Date, then the Purchaser has 30 days to terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor. If the Purchaser does not provide written notice of termination within such 30-day period, then the Purchase Agreement shall continue to be binding on both parties and the Delayed Occupancy Date shall be the date set under paragraph 3(c), regardless of whether such date is beyond the Outside Occupancy Date.
- (c) If: calendar dates for the applicable Critical Dates are not inserted in the Statement of Critical Dates; or if any date for Occupancy is expressed in the Purchase Agreement or in any other document to be subject to change depending upon the happening of an event (other than as permitted in this Addendum), then the Purchaser may terminate the Purchase Agreement by written notice to the Vendor.
- (d) The Purchase Agreement may be terminated in accordance with the provisions of section 6.
- (e) Nothing in this Addendum derogates from any right of termination that either the Purchaser or the Vendor may have at law or in equity on the basis of, for example, frustration of contract or fundamental breach of contract.
- (f) Except as permitted in this section, the Purchase Agreement may not be terminated by reason of the Vendor’s delay in providing Occupancy alone.

11. Refund of Monies Paid on Termination

- (a) If the Purchase Agreement is terminated (other than as a result of breach of contract by the Purchaser), then unless there is agreement to the contrary under paragraph 10(a), the Vendor shall refund all monies paid by the Purchaser including deposit(s) and monies for upgrades and extras, within 10 days of such termination, with interest from the date each amount was paid to the Vendor to the date of refund to the Purchaser. The Purchaser cannot be compelled by the Vendor to execute a release of the Vendor as a prerequisite to obtaining the refund of monies payable as a result of termination of the Purchase Agreement under this paragraph, although the Purchaser may be required to sign a written acknowledgement confirming the amount of monies refunded and termination of the purchase transaction. Nothing in this Addendum prevents the Vendor and Purchaser from entering into such other termination agreement and/or release as may be agreed to by the parties.
- (b) The rate of interest payable on the Purchaser’s monies shall be calculated in accordance with the Condominium Act, 1998.

Ontario's Residential Condominium Buyers' Guide - Using the Condo Guide

Purpose

According to section 72 (1) of the Condominium Act, 1998 (the "Condo Act"), Ontario's Residential Condominium Buyers' Guide ("the Condo Guide") prepared by the Condominium Authority of Ontario (CAO) is required to be provided to buyers of residential pre-construction/new condo units by the declarant ("developer") when buyers are purchasing from the developer or a person acting on behalf of or for the benefit of the developer. Purchasers of resale residential condo units may also wish to review the Condo Guide.

This Condo Guide has been approved by the Minister of Government and Consumer Services.

The purpose of the Condo Guide is to provide condo purchasers in Ontario with information and resources to make a more informed decision when purchasing a residential condo unit ("unit").

Under section 73(2) of the Condo Act, purchasers have a 10-day cooling off period in which they may rescind their agreement of purchase and sale. This 10-day period begins on the later of the date on which you receive your agreement of purchase and sale and your disclosure documents and the Condo Guide. The CAO recommends that you carefully review the disclosure statement, agreement of purchase and sale, and the Condo Guide within the 10-day period.

The Condo Guide can be found below, commencing on page three with the table of contents, and will be updated from time-to-time. To confirm that you have the most up-to-date version, please visit the CAO website at www.thecao.ca.

Introduction

What is a Condominium?

When most people hear the word “condo” they may think of a single residential tower or maybe a townhouse, but what “condo” really refers to is a specific kind of real estate ownership structure that involves shared ownership of common elements and community decision making. This means that a condo could resemble a park, parking lot, or even an empty field. If you are considering purchasing property in a condo corporation, it is important to understand upfront that condo living involves shared ownership and therefore a responsibility to your community.

Unlike when you own a traditional house, when you purchase a condo you become part of a condo community and become responsible for paying your share of the common expenses and complying with the condo corporation’s governing documents, among other things. You will also be able to participate in condo governance by, for example, voting for directors.

A “condo” is also a type of corporation. A condo corporation is responsible for making decisions about the condo property on behalf of the owners. A condo corporation may also get a condo manager/management services provider to help manage the property and the affairs of the corporation on the corporation’s behalf. The condo property is described in certain documents that must be completed and officially registered to establish the condo corporation. Those documents specify how the land is divided into units and common elements, as applicable. The owner of the land where the condo corporation is being established arranges for those documents to be registered with a Land Registry Office. That owner is known as a “declarant”, who may be the developer of the land. The condo owners (e.g., unit buyers) are the members of the condo corporation. The Condo Act sets out rights and responsibilities related to the management of a condo, including rights and responsibilities of condo owners and condo boards.

Condo corporations are created for many different uses including for residential, commercial, industrial, or mixed-use purposes.

Different Kinds of Condominiums

The Condo Act outlines various types of condo corporations. There are two main categories of condo corporations: freehold and leasehold. Freehold condos are condo corporations where the condo property is owned by the condo owners. Leasehold condos are condo corporations on leased land. Owners have a leasehold interest in units and common elements but do not own the land. Under the Condo Act, there are four different types of freehold condos:

1. Standard Condominium

- The most common type of condo corporation in Ontario.
- Has individual units.
- May include common elements, which often include areas such as a foyer, exterior walls, and amenities (e.g., pools, gardens).

2. Phased Condominium

- A condo corporation that is intended to be built and registered in phases.
- New units and common elements are constructed and added to the condo corporation.
- Upon completion, a phased condo corporation becomes a standard condo corporation.

3. Vacant Land Condominium

- The units may be vacant lots at the time of purchase, and the layout of the lands may resemble a subdivision. Common elements are often things such as roadways, sewer systems, and amenities such as parks or recreation facilities.
- The developer can sell the lots as vacant or build (e.g., homes) on the lots and sell the lots with buildings on them.

4. Common Elements Condominium

- There are no units in this type of condo corporation. Instead, ownership is of a common interest in the common elements of the condo corporation by a separate parcel of land that is “tied” to the common elements corporation.
- Owners purchase a part of a common elements. Examples include shared roads, golf courses, or ski hills.

Leasehold Condominium

- Developed on land that is leased for a term between 40 and 99 years.
- Common expenses include a portion of the rent payable to the landowner.
- Once the lease expires, the owners’ rights to occupy their units are automatically terminated.
- Leasehold condo corporations may be less common in Ontario.

It is important to note that the Condo Act has some different requirements for different types of condo corporations.

Part 1: Buying a Condominium Unit

1.1 Before you Buy a Condominium Unit

One of the most important steps you can take before you buy is to educate yourself and get the help you need to make an informed decision. Consulting this Condo Guide is a good start, but it is also important to seek legal advice before you buy. Buying a condo is a complex process and involves reviewing lengthy and sometimes difficult-to-understand documents. Seeking legal advice is the best way to ensure you are making an informed decision.

Reviewing a condo corporation’s governing documents provides an opportunity to learn important information about the condo corporation you are considering. The information found in a condo corporation’s governing documents may be key to your enjoyment of your unit and could have an impact on your buying decision. For more information on governing documents, including the 1) the declaration; 2) the by-laws; and 3) the rules, see section 3.3.

Researching builders is another important step you may wish to take before purchasing a pre-construction unit. It is important to ensure that the builder you plan to buy a unit from is licensed by Tarion (Ontario's new home warranties and protections administrator – for more information see section 2.3 of this Condo Guide).

Tarion's Ontario Builder Directory is a useful resource for confirming the status of the builders before you buy. Please note that the Ontario Builder Directory will be available through The Home Construction Regulatory Authority (HCRA) starting in early 2021.

The HCRA is an independent, not-for-profit corporation that is preparing to potentially be designated as the new regulator of new home builders and vendors under the New Home Construction Licensing Act, 2017. If a regulatory authority is designated, Tarion would cease to provide this function, subject to potential exceptions during transition. At this time, it is expected that the future regulatory authority would be operational in early 2021.

1.2 Buying a Pre-Construction Condominium Unit

Documents to Review

Along with reviewing the information in this Condo Guide, it is important to review and fully understand the information in the following documents that are generally required to be provided to purchasers by developers:

1. Pre-construction Agreement of Purchase and Sale

The agreement of purchase and sale, sometimes referred to as the purchase agreement, contains important information about your rights and obligations as a condo buyer, the builder's rights and obligations, the unit, and the condo construction project. You may wish to review this document carefully with a legal professional.

2. Tarion's Information Sheet for Buyers of Pre-Construction Condominium Homes about the Possible Termination of Purchase Agreement

All buyers of residential units in a standard or phased pre-construction condominium project where the first arm's length purchase agreement for the project was signed on or after January 1, 2020 must be given an information sheet that includes an outline of the possible risks of buying a unit in a pre-construction condominium project, in addition to other information (e.g., the estimated occupancy date for your unit and the status of construction).

3. Tarion Addendum

The Tarion Addendum (expected to be a joint Tarion/HCRA addendum if the HCRA is designated in early 2021) is a required part of the agreement of purchase and sale for a residential condo and contains important information that both the builder and condo buyer are required to agree to. Information contained in the Tarion Addendum includes the delayed occupancy warranty provided by the builder, in accordance with the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act. The Tarion Addendum also contains a Statement of Critical Dates and early termination conditions that apply to the agreement. In a disagreement or dispute about information contained within the agreement of purchase and sale and the Tarion Addendum, the Tarion Addendum prevails over the agreement of purchase and sale document and any other attachments to the extent of any conflict or inconsistency.

4. Disclosure Statement

Another very important document to review and understand is the disclosure statement which the builder is required to provide to condo buyers who buy directly from the developer or a person acting for the developer's benefit. This is required under section 72 of the Condo Act. Your agreement of purchase and sale is not binding on you as a buyer until you receive the disclosure statement and this Condo Guide from the developer.

The disclosure statement includes a lot of important information, including but not limited to:

- A copy of the existing or proposed declaration, by-laws, and rules for the condo corporation.
- A summary of the agreements to be entered into by the builder before the turn-over meeting, including agreements for condo management services and services like repairs and landscaping, and
- A copy of the budget statement for the first year after registration of the condo corporation.

It is important to carefully review the disclosure statement, consult with a legal professional about it and ensure that you do not have any outstanding questions.

Deposits

Generally, under the Condo Act, funds received by the builder of a condo project must be held in trust. This includes deposits and certain other payments covered by the purchase agreement.

If a project is terminated, the builder is generally required under the Tarion Addendum to refund all monies paid, plus interest, if any, calculated in accordance with the Condo Act (for information on the interest rates, see section 19 (3) of Ontario Regulation 48/01 under the Condo Act).

If the money is not refunded, then buyers may be able to make a claim to Tarion under the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act. Deposits and other payments by residential condo buyers are protected under the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act for up to a maximum of $20,000.

For more information about deposit protection, please click here.

Cooling Off Period and Rescission of Agreement

Section 73 of the Condo Act provides you as a buyer with a cooling off period of 10 days to consider whether you want to proceed with the purchase. Section 73 allows you to rescind the purchase agreement by notifying the developer of your wish to do so within the 10-day cooling off period.

This 10-day period begins on the later of the date on which you receive your agreement of purchase and sale executed by the declarant and the purchaser and your disclosure documents and Condo Guide. Within the 10-day cooling off period, you have the right to rescind or cancel the purchase agreement that you have signed for any reason whatsoever. Generally, you should also be refunded, without penalty or charge, all money deposited toward the purchase price, along with any applicable interest (for information on the interest rates, see section 19(3) of Ontario Regulation 48/01 under the Condo Act).

Additionally, the Condo Act provides for a further rescission right where there is a material change in the disclosure statement. If there is a material change (i.e. an important change that would have caused a reasonable buyer to no longer want to proceed with the purchase, had that information been included in the disclosure received by the purchaser), then you may be able to rescind or cancel your purchase agreement during an additional 10-day cooling off period. This 10-day cooling off period starts from the later of:

1. the date that the declarant has delivered a revised disclosure statement or a notice to you confirming the material change;
2. the date that you otherwise become aware of the material change; or
3. the date that the Ontario Superior Court of Justice has determined that a material change has occurred.

Occupancy Dates & Delayed Occupancy

A page of the Tarion Addendum within your agreement of purchase and sale contains a Statement of Critical Dates which must be signed by both the condo buyer and the builder. The Statement of Critical Dates sets out when the builder expects to finish the unit and the latest dates for permitted extensions. You should review these dates closely including the firm occupancy date and the outside occupancy date.

Note that condo construction can sometimes be delayed, which means you may not be able to take occupancy of your unit on the anticipated occupancy date set out in the agreement. This is called delayed occupancy.

Your new home warranty coverage includes delayed occupancy coverage in certain circumstances. Details on the delayed occupancy warranty are provided in the Tarion Addendum in your agreement of purchase and sale.

For more information about occupancy dates and delayed occupancy warranty, visit Tarion's webpage.

Condo Cancellations

Pre-construction condo projects can sometimes be cancelled even after you have made a deposit on your purchase. This is because there are many stages in building a condo that may remain to be completed after you have made a deposit. The Tarion Addendum forming part of your purchase agreement must set out any conditions that may result in the condo not proceeding and therefore the potential termination of the purchase agreement. In these cases, it is the vendor who would terminate the agreement.

These conditions may include, but are not limited to:

- Failure to sell enough units,

- Inability to secure financing for the project, or
- Delays in obtaining the required building or planning approvals.

It is important for you to be aware of the potential conditions when you are thinking of entering the purchase agreement. Buyers may wish to review the Tarion Addendum for identification of early termination conditions applicable to their purchase agreement.

In most cases, if a condo project is cancelled, buyers are entitled to get their deposit back, plus any accrued interest, if applicable. The Condo Act also provides for interest to be paid based on an interest rate calculation (for more information on those interest rates, see section 19(3) of Ontario Regulation 48/01 under the Condo Act).

For more information on condo cancellations, please click here.

1.3 Buying a Resale Condominium Unit

Purchasing a resale unit involves buying a unit from the current owner rather than from the developer. If you are thinking of buying a resale unit, it is important to do your research on the unit and condo corporation before making any decisions and consult a legal professional. Before purchasing a unit, you may wish to consider the following:

- The status of the reserve fund and age of the building. A reserve fund is required to ensure that the condo corporation has enough money to pay for major repairs and replacement of the common elements and assets of the condo corporation. It is important to note if the building will require any significant repair, maintenance or updating with its age and the plan for addressing those issues. You should consider the health of the reserve fund and review what is your responsibility to repair and maintain.
- Common expenses. This is the amount unit owners pay toward the operation of the condo corporation (e.g., security costs, cleaning costs, etc.) and contributions to the reserve fund. It is important to incorporate common expense fees into your budget when considering purchasing a condo. Common expense fees may change over time depending on the needs of the condo corporation.
- The units and common elements. The size, layout, and boundaries of the unit and the common elements generally will not change. You may wish to consider what is your responsibility to repair and maintain. For more information on units and common elements, see section 3.5 of this Condo Guide.
- Amenities. Consider that, in general, all the owners must pay for the common elements, regardless of whether you use them or not.
- Litigation. It is important to be aware of any litigation against the condo corporation or that the condo corporation is a party to, as owners generally will be responsible for the costs. If the condo corporation cannot cover the costs with the operating fund, a special assessment (an extra one-time charge added to an owner's common expenses) may be required. You can learn about on-going litigation by requesting a status certificate from the condo corporation, which is described in the next section.

- New Home Warranty Information. You may wish to consider whether the unit is still covered by any remaining new home warranties and protections under the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act. There are three different warranty periods that cover different types of defects, the longest of which is seven years. The maximum statutory coverage available is $300,000. More information about new home warranties and protections can be found on the Tarion website. To check the status of your home's warranty you may wish to contact Tarion by phone (toll free) 1-877-982-7466 or via e-mail at ismyhomecovered@tarion.com.

Documents to Review

- The condo corporation's governing documents. You will be required to abide by your condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules. For more information see section 3.3 of this Condo Guide.
 - The declaration is the foundational document of the condo corporation and includes, among other things, the proportion which each unit owner contributes to common expenses and the repair and maintenance responsibilities of owners vs. the condo corporation. The declaration may also include information about how units and common elements can or cannot be used. The existing or proposed declaration will be included in the disclosure statement you receive from the developer when purchasing a pre-construction/new condo.
 - The by-laws may lay out how the condo corporation governs itself and how the condo corporation operates (e.g., some of the requirements for electing directors).
 - The rules may govern what the owners and occupants can and cannot do in their specific condo community in certain circumstances (e.g., for safety reasons).
- Status Certificates. A status certificate is an important document for purchasers of resale condos containing information about a specific completed condo unit and the condo corporation to which it belongs. Any person can request a status certificate for a unit from a condo corporation. A condo corporation can charge up to $100 (including all applicable taxes) for the status certificate. The condo corporation must provide the status certificate within 10 days of receipt of the request and payment for it.

Status certificates are particularly important for prospective buyers of resale units because they contain important information, such as:

- A copy of the condo corporation's current declaration, by-laws, and rules.
- A copy of the budget for the current fiscal year, the last annual audited financial statements and the auditor's report.
- A statement of the most recent reserve fund study.
- A statement of the common expenses for the unit and whether the unit is in arrears of payment.
- If the common expenses for the unit have increased since the current year's budget was prepared, a statement of the increase and the reason.

- If an assessment has been charged against the unit since the current year's budget was prepared, a statement of the assessment and the reason.
- The address for service for the condo corporation (e.g., the address where the condo corporation receives mail).
- The names and addresses for service for the directors and officers of the condo corporation.
- A certificate of insurance for each of the current insurance policies.
- Information about certain legal issues that may affect the condo corporation (e.g., whether there are outstanding legal judgments against the condo corporation, or if the condo corporation is involved in any ongoing litigation).

You can also access key information on any condo corporation in the province through the CAO's Public Registry. You may wish to consider speaking to a legal and/or real estate professional when considering purchasing a resale condo and before signing any documents.

1.4 Leasing Your Unit

Leasing out a condo unit is an option that many condo owners use at some point during their time as a condo owner, however, there are special considerations that you must keep in mind if you choose to lease out a condo unit. In Ontario, the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006 outlines the rights and responsibilities of landlords and tenants who rent residential properties. The Commercial Tenancies Act applies to leasing commercial properties.

It is the responsibility of the unit owner to ensure that the renter abides by the condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules. Additionally, a unit owner must, within 10 days of entering the lease or the renewal of the lease, provide the renter with these documents. Section 83 (1) of the Condo Act requires that an owner also notify the condo corporation that the unit has been leased within the same timeframe, and provide the renter's name, the unit owner's address and a copy of the lease or renewal or a summary of the lease or renewal. A form is available on the CAO's website which will allow you to easily communicate this information to a condo corporation.

If you plan on leasing your unit you must also be aware of restrictions that the condo corporation's governing documents may place on owners in relation to leases. For example, the condo corporation could have minimum terms for unit leases to prevent the units in the condo corporation from being used as short-term rentals.

Part 2: Moving into a Pre-Construction Condominium Unit

2.1 Interim Occupancy

Interim occupancy occurs in pre-construction condo projects when the developer/builder lets the buyer take occupancy in the unit before the declaration has been registered and the title can be transferred to the buyer. During interim occupancy, you cannot make mortgage payments until the condo corporation is registered.

As your building nears completion, your developer/builder will advise you of your interim occupancy date. On the interim occupancy date, you can live in your unit, but it is important to note that you do not own it yet. Ownership of your unit can only be transferred to you once the condo corporation has been registered.

During the interim occupancy period, you will be required to pay the developer/builder an interim occupancy fee, regardless of whether you move into the unit or not.

The interim occupancy fee cannot be more than the total of:

- The interest (calculated monthly) on the unpaid balance of the purchase price at the prescribed interest rate;
- The estimated monthly municipal taxes for the unit; and,
- The projected common expense fees for the unit.

For additional information regarding interim occupancy, click here.

2.2 Creating the Condominium Corporation

Condominium Registration Process

Condo corporations are created when the developer registers the declaration and description with the Land Registry Office. Some registration requirements vary by the type of condo corporation being proposed (e.g., phased, common elements etc.).

The declaration and description are legal documents that contain fundamental information about the condo corporation and the property. The proposed or existing declaration must be included in the disclosure statement provided to you by your developer. You may wish to review this carefully.

The declaration will contain information such as:

- The proportions, expressed in percentages, of the common interests allocated to each unit;
- How much each unit will pay for common expenses, expressed as a percentage;
- Which parts of the building will be exclusive use common elements, which are often things such as balconies; and
- The responsibilities of owners and the condo corporation to repair and maintain the units and common elements.

The description defines the units and the common elements and specifies the boundaries between them. The description will contain information such as:

- A survey showing the boundaries of the property;

- Diagrams showing the shape and dimensions of each unit; and
- Specification of the boundaries of each unit and what is considered part of the common elements.

The Condo Act requires developers to take all reasonable steps to finish construction and register the condo corporation without delay.

More information about the declaration and description as well as your condo corporation's other governing documents can be found in section 3.3 of this Condo Guide, or by clicking here.

Declarant-controlled boards

*Please note that, for ease-of-understanding the Condo Guide uses the term “developer” throughout in place of the term “declarant”, which is used in the Condominium Act, 1998. This section will use both as the term “declarant-controlled board” is used often in materials related to pre-construction and new condo projects.

Within ten days after the condo corporation has been registered, the declarant (who is generally your developer/builder) is required to appoint at least three individuals to make up the condo corporation's first board of directors. This first board is called the declarant-controlled board. The declarant-controlled board is responsible for carrying out all normal board duties until the declarant ceases to own a majority of the units in the condo corporation. For example, the declarant-controlled board may propose or make by-laws and rules. More information about condo boards and condo board duties can be found in section 3.2 of this Condo Guide.

Once the declarant ceases to own a majority of the units, the declarant-controlled board is required to call a meeting of the owners to elect a new board within 21 days. The meeting must then be held within 21 days of being called, meaning that the meeting must occur within 42 days of the declarant no longer owning a majority of the units. This meeting is called a turn-over meeting.

Turn-over Meetings

The turn-over meeting is an important meeting for the condo corporation because the turn-over meeting must cover two important items:

- The turn-over of important documents from the declarant (i.e. generally your developer or builder) to the condo corporation, and
- The election of the first owner-controlled condo board of directors.

The declarant is responsible for turning over important documents at the turn-over meeting such as:

- The condo corporation's minute book (a minute book is the primary record of a condo corporation's meetings);
- The condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules;
- Agreements already entered into on the condo corporation's behalf;

The declarant must turn over other important information within 30 days of this turn-over meeting, such as:

- All financial records of the condo corporation and of the declarant for the condo corporation from the date of registration onwards;

- A copy of any reserve fund studies conducted to date (if any); and
- A copy of the most recent disclosure statement.

Within 60 days after the turn-over meeting, the declarant must also turn over audited financial statements.

Additionally, at the turn-over meeting, unit owners will vote for new board members. For certain requirements related to a turn-over meeting, see section 43 of the Condo Act.

First-Year Budget

According to section 72 of the Condo Act, the declarant (i.e. generally your developer or builder) is responsible for preparing, and including in the disclosure statement, the first-year budget (also referred to as the budget statement) which covers the one-year period immediately following the registration of the declaration and description. Information included in the first-year budget should include, among other things:

- The projected common expenses for the condo corporation;
- The particulars of the type, frequency, and level of services to be provided;
- The projected costs of the performance audit;
- The projected monthly common expense contribution for each type of unit;
- The projected cost of the first reserve fund study; and
- The costs of preparing the audited financial statements.

Overall, the first-year budget is meant to give you a good idea of the expenses you can expect to pay in addition to the cost of buying your unit.

Additionally, section 75 of the Condo Act requires that the declarant be accountable for the first-year budget. After receiving the audited financial statements for the period covered by the first-year budget, the board has 30 days to compare the actual expenses with the first-year budget prepared by the declarant. If there is a shortfall (i.e., there are less funds projected based on the first-year budget than the actual first year expenses), the declarant may be responsible for the shortfall.

2.3 Tarion and the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act

What is Tarion?

Tarion is an independent not-for-profit corporation with responsibility for administering the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act, including warranties and protections claims. Until early 2021, Tarion also serves the function of licensing new home builders and vendors.

For more information on Tarion, please visit their website by clicking here.

What is The Home Construction Regulatory Authority?

The Home Construction Regulatory Authority (HCRA) is an independent, not-for-profit corporation that is preparing to potentially be designated by the Ontario government as the new regulator of new home builders and vendors under the New Home Construction Licensing Act, 2017. If the HCRA is designated, Tarion would cease to regulate builders and vendors, subject to potential exceptions during transition. Tarion would remain responsible for warranty administration. At this time, it is expected that the future regulatory authority would be operational in early 2021.

For more information on the HCRA, please visit their website by clicking here.

New Home Warranties Plan Act and Coverage

Tarion's legal responsibilities and mandate come from the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act. In Ontario, all new residential condos are required to be enrolled in the Ontario new home warranty and protection program, administered by Tarion. If you purchase a new condo and there are warrantable defects (e.g., construction issues, unfinished work, etc.), you can report these to Tarion and your builder. If your builder does not fix the defects, Tarion may provide warranty assistance, if the item is warrantable. Be sure to visit the Tarion website for a breakdown of new home warranty and protection coverage and more information.

For more information about new home warranty coverage click here.

Information for purchasers of units in residential condominium conversions is available here.

The common elements of most condos are also covered by Tarion's warranties. If a common element requires warranty coverage, the condo corporation will address the issue (rather than any one individual owner). Section 44 of the Condo Act requires that between the six- and ten-month mark following the registration of the declaration, the board must appoint an engineer or architect to conduct a performance audit. This audit must be submitted to Tarion which will allow the corporation to make claims regarding issues with the common elements. If the corporation does not file in time, it will be impossible to make claims under the Tarion warranty program. It is common that the condo board directors appoint an individual to manage this process on behalf of the board.

To access more information on the common elements warranty process, please click here.

Pre-Delivery Inspection

A very important step for identifying potential issues or deficiencies is the pre-delivery inspection (PDI). A PDI is your chance to raise issues you notice with your new condo, such as incomplete construction, a damaged area, or an element of poor workmanship of the unit.

During the inspection, the builder of the condo will take you to inspect the new unit and may demonstrate the internal systems (such as air conditioning) of your unit. If you identify a defect during your PDI, your builder should note it on the PDI Form to establish that it existed prior to closing and thus was something not caused by you. It is your builder's responsibility to list these items and provide you with a copy of the completed PDI Form.

The PDI form is an important document, as it will be the official record of the state of your home before you move in, so keep your copy in a safe place. However, the PDI form is not an official warranty form and any items that are not corrected by the time you move in need to be listed on a 30-Day or Year-End Form.

Builder Registration/Licensing

Under the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act, all new home builders and vendors must be registered with Tarion and enroll their homes in the Ontario new home warranty and protection program.

In early 2021, the Home Construction Regulatory Authority (HCRA) is expected to be designated as the new regulator for new home builders and vendors. As the regulator of new home builders and vendors upon designation, the HCRA would be responsible for receiving and responding to any licensing related inquiries or complaints regarding a builder or vendor. Tarion would remain responsible for any warranty-related inquiries or complaints.

Until early 2021, Tarion will maintain an Ontario Builder Directory of all new home builders and vendors. Buyers of new homes are encouraged to check the Ontario Builder Directory to ensure their builder or vendor is registered with Tarion.

In addition, the Ontario Builder Directory includes information about condominium projects retroactive to January 1, 2018, including cancelled condominium projects and the status of each condominium project (i.e., completed, in progress or cancelled).

If the HCRA is designated by the Ontario government as the new regulator for new home builders and vendors, the HCRA would become responsible for the Ontario Builder Directory once it is operational in early 2021.

Part 3: Condominium Living

3.1 Introduction to Condominium Living

Your Unit and Common Elements

In a condo corporation, as an owner, you typically own your individual unit and collectively share in the ownership of and expenses for the common elements.

Unlike units, common elements may not be for the exclusive use of a particular unit owner. Common elements may include parking garages, elevators, lobbies, and much more. They may also include structural elements like the walls between the units, doors, plumbing and electrical work.

Exclusive Use Common Elements

Certain common elements may be for the exclusive use of a particular condo owner. These are called exclusive-use common elements. An example of an exclusive-use common element may be the balcony of a unit. Although a condo owner might think of a balcony as part of their unit, it could be an exclusive-use common element.

Every condo corporation is unique in the breakdown between units and common elements. If you are unsure about what constitutes a common element in your condo corporation, you can refer to your condo declaration.

Rights and Obligations of Owners

Condo owners in Ontario have rights and obligations that you should be aware of before purchasing a unit:

Rights

- Attending and voting at owners' meetings;
- Seeking election to the condo board, if qualified under the Condo Act;
- Reviewing certain records of the condo corporation, such as certain financial statements and meeting minutes;
- Requisitioning an owners' meeting in certain circumstances;
- Using the common elements and amenities of the condo corporation in accordance with the Condo Act and the condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules; and
- Requesting that an item be added to an owners' meeting agenda.

Obligations

- Complying with the Condo Act and the condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules;
- Repairing and maintaining your unit in accordance with and subject to the Condo Act and the condo corporation's declaration and by-laws;
- Paying your common expense fees on time;
- Notifying the condo corporation if your unit is leased; and
- Attending and voting at certain meetings.

Click here for more information on condo ownership.

3.2 Condominium Governance

Board of Directors and Board Responsibilities

The board of directors of a condo corporation that is turned over is an elected group of people that is responsible for governing the affairs of the condo corporation. The board of directors will ideally play a critical role in supporting a positive, healthy condo community and ensure that the condo corporation and its assets are well managed and maintained.

The board has certain responsibilities such as:

- Setting the condo corporation's annual budget;
- Making most decisions about how the condo corporation will spend its money, including selecting contractors or service providers your condo corporation will work with;
- Hiring and overseeing the work of a condo manager (should your condo corporation decide to get a condo manager);
- Ensuring required maintenance and repairs are carried out;
- Hiring specialists, such as engineers, to conduct reserve fund studies;
- Proposing changes to the condo corporation's rules and/or by-laws;
- Giving various notices to owners; and
- Making decisions related to the condo corporation's finances.

A condo's board is usually made up of owners in the condo corporation (but can include non-owners depending on the provisions of the condo corporation's by-laws). Directors are elected by the owners and serve for defined terms. Directors must seek re-election when their term expires if they want to remain on the board.

Duties of Directors and Required Disclosures

Board directors are responsible under section 37 (1) of the Condo Act to exercise their power or carry out their duties for the condo corporation with a standard of care. This means directors have a duty under the Condo Act to:

- Act honestly and in good faith; and
- Exercise the care, diligence, and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

A condo corporation may also have a code of ethics outlined in a by-law. A code of ethics will govern matters such as conflicts of interest, confidentiality, and standards of behaviour at board meetings.

Individuals looking to become directors (i.e. candidates) must meet disclosure requirements listed under section 11.6 of Ontario Regulation 48/01 as well as any such requirements listed in the by-laws of the condo corporation. To qualify as a candidate an individual must disclose, among other things:

- Whether the candidate (or their spouse, child or parent) is party to a legal proceeding in which the condo is also a party;
- Whether the candidate has, directly or indirectly, an interest in a contract or transaction that the condo corporation is a party to;
- If the candidate is a unit owner with common expense fees in arrears for 60 days or more; and
- Whether the candidate has been convicted of an offence under the Condo Act or under the regulations within the preceding 10 years, a statement of that fact and a brief general description of the offence.

A director is immediately disqualified if they do not meet certain disclosure obligations. In addition, directors may be disqualified if they meet any of the criteria listed in section 29(2) of the Condo Act (e.g., they have the status of bankrupt).

More information regarding director disclosure obligations can be found on the CAO website here.

For a full list of disclosure obligations, please see 11.10 of Ontario Regulation 48/01.

Election Process

Aside from the developer-appointed directors, and instances where an individual is appointed to the board by the existing directors, directors are elected by the owners at a meeting, such as a turn-over meeting, an annual general meeting, a requisitioned meeting, or a meeting called specifically for elections due to loss of quorum. Directors usually serve for three-year terms, but this period may be shorter, depending on a condo corporation's by-laws. Once their term is over, they must seek re-election to continue to act as a board member.

Requirements for Being a Director

Before a candidate can become a director, there are a few requirements that must be met. The candidate must:

- Be an individual;
- Be at least 18 years old;
- Not have a status of bankrupt;
- Not have been found incapable of managing property;
- Not have been found incapable by a court; and
- Meet the required disclosure obligations, as mentioned above.

Once an individual becomes a director, they can be immediately disqualified from their position if, for example:

- They are bankrupt;
- They have been found incapable of managing property or found incapable by a court;
- They have a certificate of lien registered against their unit that has not been discharged within 90 days;
- They failed to complete the mandatory director training within six months; or
- They failed to comply with mandatory disclosure obligations.

Note that different condo corporations may have additional requirements for directors. You may wish to check your condo corporation's by-laws for more information.

Director Training Requirements

All directors appointed, elected, or re-elected on or after November 1, 2017 are required to complete the training program provided by the Condominium Authority of Ontario (CAO) within six months of their appointment, election, or re-election, and at least once every seven years. Director training is provided for free and is easily accessible online on the CAO website.

Directors who fail to complete the training within the six-month timeframe are immediately disqualified from their board and cease to be a director.

Although director training is mandatory for directors, director training is not just for condo directors. It is available to any individual and contains plenty of useful information regarding condo living and condo governance.

If you wish to know more about director training, please click here for more information.

Meetings and Quorum

Condo meetings can be divided into two types: owners' meetings and board meetings. The Condo Act requires that a minimum number of participants be present at meetings, which is called "quorum". Without quorum, voting cannot take place, however discussion on relevant business is still permitted. Note that a corporation may also be able to make by-laws with respect to meetings, including with respect to quorum and voting. For owners' meetings, owners can either attend in person or by proxy. For more information on proxies, see Voting by Proxy and Voting Method below.

Owners' meetings are meetings in which all condo owners are invited to attend. The following are the most common types of owners' meetings:

- Annual General Meetings (AGM) are annual meetings where the board has the chance to report to owners on matters such as the financial health of the condo corporation. The AGM also gives owners the opportunity to discuss matters that are relevant to the business of the condo corporation. The following items may be on the agenda at an AGM:

- Approval of the minutes of the previous AGM;
- Review of year-end audited financial reports;
- Selection of the condo corporation's auditor for the next fiscal year;
- Report of the board of directors regarding matters like past performance;
- Major upcoming projects (e.g., repairs or renovations), potential by-law changes and ongoing issues; and
- Election of directors.

The standard quorum for an AGM is the owners of 25% of the units. If the quorum is not reached on the first two attempts to hold the AGM, the quorum is reduced to 15% on the third and on any subsequent attempts unless the by-laws specify otherwise.

- Owner-Requisitioned Meetings are meetings that the board is required to call at the request of the owners of the condo corporation. All owners can attend. Some examples of why owner-requisitioned meetings may be called include:
 - Voting on a proposed rule;
 - Discussion of an emerging issue (e.g., the behaviour of owners, residents, or guests); or
 - The removal and replacement of a director before the expiry of that director's term.

Information related to requisitioning a meeting of owners can be found under section 46 of the Condo Act. Other sections also may be relevant.

More information on requisitioning a meeting can be found here.

- Board Meetings are meetings attended by the condo board to manage the affairs of the condo corporation. The only people who are entitled to attend board meetings are the directors, however, condo boards may invite individuals to attend board meetings as guests. A condo's board of directors can only conduct condo related business at a board meeting. Before any condo business can be conducted, the board must make sure there is a quorum of directors attending the board meeting. For board meetings, quorum is a majority of the total number of positions on the board. For example, if there are 3 positions on the board, quorum would be 2 board members in attendance at the board meeting.

Voting by Proxy and Voting Method

At owners' meetings, votes may be held regarding condo business.

Unless the Condo Act provides otherwise, at a meeting, votes may be cast by:

- A show of hands, personally or by proxy
- A recorded vote that is:
 - Marked on a ballot cast personally or by a proxy;
 - Marked on an instrument appointing a proxy; or
 - Indicated by telephonic or electronic means if the by-laws so permit.

If you are an owner who cannot attend a meeting but still want to participate in decision-making, you can enable somebody who will attend the meeting to vote for you. This individual is called a proxy (who need not be an owner in your condo corporation). You can appoint a proxy by completing a legal document called a proxy form and giving the form to the proxy. You can create only one proxy per unit. If you co-own your unit, the proxy represents all owners of the unit.

A form is available on the CAO website which gives instructions on how to use a proxy, and how a proxy can vote in a meeting.

Notices

A condo corporation must provide various notices to owners to make owners aware of upcoming owners meetings. There are a variety of notices required under the Condo Act, such as:

- Preliminary Notice of Meeting: The Preliminary Notice of Meeting must be delivered to owners at least 20 days before a Notice of Meeting. The Preliminary Notice will, among other things, let owners know that a Notice of Meeting will be sent, state the purpose of the meeting, and, if applicable, request that individuals interested in being candidates for director positions notify the board in writing.

More information about a Preliminary Notice of Meeting can be found by clicking here.

- Notice of Meeting: The Notice of Meeting must be delivered to owners in writing at least 15 days prior to the day of the meeting. A Notice of Meeting of owners will include the date, time, and place of the meeting. It must also identify the business to be discussed, among other things. No vote can take place on an item, other than routine procedure, that was not disclosed in the Notice of the Meeting.
 - If an owner wishes to receive notices electronically, they must provide an Agreement to Receive Notices Electronically form, and the condo corporation must have a statement of this method of receiving notices in the record of owners and mortgagees (unless the Condo Act provides otherwise).

More information about the Notice of Meeting can be found on the CAO website here.

Information Certificates

Information Certificates help ensure that condo owners receive important information about the state of the condo corporation throughout the year. Information certificates can be broken down into three types:

- Periodic Information Certificate (PIC). Sent out twice per fiscal year to all owners (within 60 days of the end of the first quarter and 60 days of the end of the third quarter). Includes key information about the condo's board, finances, insurance, reserve fund, legal proceedings, and other matters.
- Information Certificate Update (ICU). Sent to owners if there are certain key changes before the next scheduled PIC (such as changes in the directors or officers of the condo corporation). To be distributed within 30 days of the change.

- New Owner Information Certificate (NOIC). Sent to new owners within 30 days after the new owner provides written notice stating their name and the unit that they own in the condo corporation. A NOIC covers the most recent PIC and any subsequent ICUs.

Condo corporations may be able to pass by-laws related to PICs and ICUs.

More information on Information Certificates can be found on the CAO website here.

Records Requirements and Process to Request or Examine Records

As a condo owner, you have the right to access certain records regarding how the condo corporation is managed. It is the condo board's duty to ensure that adequate records are kept and that they are retained for the legally required amount of time. If an owner wants to access certain records, they must use a Request for Records form. In their request, they can specify whether they wish to review records or request copies of records and they can indicate whether they would like electronic or paper copies.

As an owner, you may have the right to access:

- Your condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules;
- The financial records of your condo corporation;
- The minute book containing the minutes of owners' meetings and the minutes of board meetings;
- A copy of the returns or notices of change that the condo corporation has filed with the CAO;
- All lists, items, records, and other documents from your condo corporation's turn-over meeting;
- A list of the names of the owners of each unit in the condo corporation and their address for service;
- All reserve fund studies and all plans to fund the reserve fund;
- All agreements entered by or on behalf of the condo corporation;
- All instruments appointing a proxy or ballots for a meeting of owners that are submitted at the meeting; and
- Other records as specified under the Condo Act, including in its regulations, or your condo corporation's by-laws.

More information about records can be found on the CAO website here.

3.3 Condominium Corporation Governing Documents

In addition to complying with all applicable requirements under the Condo Act, all owners, residents, employees of the condo corporation, guests and others must comply with the condo corporation's governing documents. It is very important that you read and understand a condo corporation's governing documents before purchasing a unit. If you are unfamiliar with the requirements set out in your governing documents, you may unknowingly cause issues, requiring the condo corporation to respond to enforce the provisions found in these documents. The governing documents include:

- 1. The Declaration;
- 2. By-laws; and
- 3. Rules.

The governing documents must be consistent with the Condo Act.

1. The Declaration is one of the foundational documents of the condo corporation. The declaration is often considered the constitution of the condo corporation and contains many important provisions. It will include:

- The proportions, expressed in percentages, of the common interests allocated to each unit;
- How much each unit will pay for common expenses, expressed as a percentage;
- Which parts of the building will be exclusive use common elements, which are often things such as balconies; and
- The responsibilities of owners and the condo corporation to repair and maintain the units and common elements.

The declaration may be changed with the consent of at least 80% or 90% of voting units depending on what the change is.

2. By-Laws describe how the condo corporation is to govern itself. The by-laws can be considered the administrative guide for the condo corporation. A condo corporation's by-laws often deal with a wide range of matters. For example, by-laws may govern:

- How directors are elected;
- How common expenses are collected; and
- When/how the condo corporation can borrow money.

By-laws must be both reasonable and consistent with the declaration, as well as the Condo Act. By-laws must be approved by the owners of a majority of the units, except where the Condo Act provides otherwise, and registered with the Land Registry Office.

3. Rules regulate the use of the units or common elements or assets in a condo corporation. The condo rules will dictate what individuals on the condo property can and cannot do. Rules must be reasonable and consistent with the declaration and by-laws, in addition to the Condo Act. Rules must either: promote the safety, security or welfare of the owners, property, or assets of the condo corporation; or prevent unreasonable interference with the use and enjoyment of units, common elements or assets. Examples may include:

- Restricting smoking, vaping and/or the growing of cannabis;
- Restricting short-term rentals; or
- Limiting the number or size of pets allowed in the building.

Upon making, amending or repealing a rule, the board shall give a notice of it to the owners that includes:

- A copy of the rule;
- A statement of the date that the board proposed the rule will become effective;
- A statement which says that the owners have a right to requisition a meeting; and
- A copy of sections 46 and 58 of the Condo Act.

Owners who disagree with the rule may be able to requisition an owners' meeting regarding the rule and then have a vote during the meeting to prevent the changes to a rule(s) from being passed. If the owners do not requisition a meeting, the rule becomes effective the day after 30 days have passed since the board gave the owners notice of the rule. For more information on owner requisitioned meetings, please see section 3.2 of this Condo Guide.

More information about the declaration, by-laws, and rules can be found on the CAO website here.

3.4 Condominium Finances

Reserve Funds

A reserve fund is a fund that condo corporations use for major repair or replacement of common elements and assets as needed. The Condo Act requires that all condo corporations have a reserve fund. Adequate reserve funds and proper use of those funds are critical to maintaining the structural integrity of the condo corporation's property. Reserve funds may only be used for major repairs and replacements of the common elements and assets of the condo corporation. Condo corporations must collect contributions to the reserve fund from owners as part of their common expense fees. Condo corporations must complete reserve fund studies. Reserve fund studies are completed by certain specialists (e.g., engineers) and determine how much money needs to be in the fund to be able to pay for anticipated major repairs/replacements that will be needed in the future. Generally, after the first reserve fund study, reserve fund studies are completed/updated every three years.

More information about reserve funds and reserve fund studies can be found on the CAO website.

Common Expenses

Common expenses, which are typically described in the Condo Guide as "common expense fees" (also commonly known as condo fees or maintenance fees) are collected by the condo corporation under the Condo Act. In addition to including a contribution to the reserve fund as described above, common expense fees may be used to fund:

- The cost of maintenance to the common elements (e.g., standard elevator repairs, cleaning).
- The cost of your condo manager or management service provider.
- The condo corporation's insurance policies.
- Services, such as garbage or snow removal, landscaping, security etc.

As an owner, you are required under section 84 (1) the Condo Act to pay your share of common expense fees attributed to your unit. As per section 84 (3) of the Condo Act, you are obligated to pay your common expense fees even if:

- You have waived or abandoned your right to use the common element(s);
- You have made a claim against the condo corporation; or
- The condo corporation's declaration, by-laws or rules restrict you from using the common element(s).

How are Common Expense Fees Calculated?

Condo boards make a budget every year which outlines various expenses for the fiscal year that are to be paid by the owners. The condo corporation's declaration will state the portion of the common expenses each owner is required to contribute, expressed as a percentage. The percentage may, but need not, relate to the size of your unit. The amount of common expenses you are required to contribute may fluctuate (e.g., increase) for various reasons (e.g., as the needs of the condo corporation change).

Section 56 (1) of the Condo Act also permits condo corporations to pass by-laws governing the assessment and collection of common expense fees.

Liens

If you as an owner default on your obligation to pay common expense fees, your condo corporation automatically has a lien on your unit. The lien will cover the unpaid amount owing as well as all interest, and all reasonable legal costs and expenses incurred by the condo corporation in its attempt to collect.

The condo corporation has three months from when the default occurred to register a certificate of lien, otherwise the lien will expire after three months of the default. At least ten days' notice is required to be provided to owners before the certificate of lien can be registered on title. Condo liens have priority over every other liability, including mortgages, subject to some exceptions, and may be enforced in the same manner as a mortgage.

Special Assessments

As described above, your condo corporation will create a budget for every fiscal year. Should there be a budget shortfall (i.e., where expenses exceed revenues), your condo corporation may levy a special assessment to cover expenses. A special assessment is an extra one-time charge added to your common expense fees.

Your board may need to levy a special assessment for unforeseen major expenses such as repairs related to flooding, costs related to legal proceedings, etc. Your condo corporation's by-laws may include provisions about special assessments.

Under section 84 of the Condo Act, you are required to pay your unit's share of the common expense fees, which may include special assessment fees. Your portion is calculated using the same percentage used to calculate your regular common expense fees.

More information about special assessments can be found on the CAO website here.

Chargebacks

A chargeback is an addition to an owner's common expense fees to reimburse the condo corporation for a cost it incurred. This is to ensure that certain expenses or costs incurred are not levied to all owners, particularly where they are not all responsible for the circumstances leading to the expense or cost.

Some chargebacks are specifically authorized by the Condo Act. For example, section 92 (4) of the Condo Act allows condo corporations to add repair costs to a unit's common expenses fees, where repairs were completed on an owner's behalf after they failed to complete them within a reasonable time. Condo corporations may also have provisions within their declaration that require owners to indemnify the condo corporation for certain costs, called an indemnification clause.

If an owner does not pay the chargeback, a lien will automatically be placed on the defaulting unit, just as would occur if the owner does not pay their regular common expenses on time. If the condo corporation registers a certificate of lien and the owner does not pay the lien in full (this is known as discharging the lien), the condo corporation has the ability to attempt to have the unit sold to cover the costs.

Condo Insurance

Under the Condo Act, condo corporations are required to obtain and maintain both property insurance and liability insurance.

- Liability Insurance: Under section 102 the Condo Act, condo corporations are required to obtain and maintain insurance against the liability resulting from a breach of duty as the occupier of the condo corporation's common elements or certain land as well as insurance against liability arising from the ownership and use of boilers, machinery, pressure vessels and motor vehicles.
- Property Insurance: Section 99 (1) of the Condo Act requires condo corporations to obtain and maintain insurance for damage to the units and common elements that is caused by certain major perils, including fire, smoke, lightning, windstorm, hail, or any other peril specified in the condo corporation's declaration or by-laws.

Standard Unit

A condo corporation's obligation to insure the units does not cover "improvements" made to units. Section 99 of the Condo Act states a condo corporation's obligation to insure against damage to units from major or other perils only includes what is called a "standard unit".

What constitutes a standard unit in your condo corporation is important as it not only outlines responsibility for property insurance coverage but also partly determines what the condo corporation or the condo owner is responsible for when dealing with repairs after damage.

For more information on where to find your condo corporation's definition of a standard unit, see section 3.5 of this Condo Guide - Living in Units and Using Common Elements.

Deductibles

According to section 105 (1) of the Condo Act, if an insurance policy obtained by the condo corporation has a deductible clause that limits the amount payable by the insurer, the condo corporation is responsible for paying the portion of a loss that is excluded from coverage, and that amount must be included in the common expenses.

A single owner may be responsible for paying a deductible if a claim to the condo corporation's insurer arose due to the owner's (among others) action or inaction. In this case, the lesser of the deductible limit or the actual cost of the repairs must be charged back to that owner's unit. For more information on chargebacks, please see section 3.4 of this Condo Guide.

Your condo corporation may also have an insurance deductible by-law that would extend the circumstances in which an owner would be responsible for paying for a property insurance deductible. Common examples of extended circumstances could include:

- Where the owner, occupant, or guest of the unit, through an act or negligence causes the insured damage; and/or
- Where the insured damage is caused by accident (i.e., where no one is at fault).

3.5 Living in Units and Using Common Elements

Units vs. the Common Elements

For a description of what a common element is and what an exclusive use common element is, please refer to section 3.1 of this Condo Guide. As noted in section 3.1, common elements are elements which may not be for the exclusive use of a particular unit owner.

In a condo corporation, typically owners own their individual unit(s) and collectively share ownership of and expenses for the common elements (e.g. roof, hallways, elevators, pool).

What is considered part of a "unit" and what is considered part of the "common elements" will be outlined in the condo corporation's declaration and description. Schedule C of the declaration contains this information for most types of condo corporations, and more, as explained below. In addition, the Condo Act includes information about what is a unit vs. a common element. The term "common elements" generally means all the property except the units.

Understanding the breakdown between a unit and the common elements is important when considering repair and maintenance obligations, condo insurance, and making changes to your unit.

Repair and Maintenance Obligations

Section 89 (2) of the Condo Act requires that, subject to the Condo Act and a condo corporation's declaration:

- Condo corporations are responsible for repairing damage to both the common elements and units. This obligation to repair does not include any improvements made to units.
- Unit owners are responsible for maintaining their units (i.e., upkeep and repairing after normal wear and tear) and condo corporations are responsible for maintaining the common elements (e.g., parking, gardens, hallways, elevators, amenities, etc.).

The following documents, together with the Condo Act, are notable when it comes to figuring out repair and maintenance responsibilities:

1. Schedule C. Schedule C (within your condo corporation's declaration) typically will outline unit boundaries and therefore clarify repair and maintenance responsibilities, especially in unclear areas (e.g., plumbing, electrical, areas behind drywall, etc.).

2. Standard unit by-law. A standard unit by-law or, if none, a schedule provided by the developer, will detail which components of a unit are the "standard unit" and therefore the responsibility of the condo corporation to repair.

Also, section 91 of the Condo Act allows condo corporations to alter these repair and maintenance obligations in their declaration. This means that when determining who is responsible for repairs or maintenance it is necessary to review your condo corporation's declaration. Note, there are some different repair and maintenance requirements under the Condo Act for different types of condo corporations (e.g., vacant land condo corporations).

Making Changes to Your Unit

A condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules may contain rules about making modifications to your unit or common elements (such as requiring notice to the board, restrictions on design, décor, materials to be used, restriction on days or times when renovations are permitted, etc.). You may wish to review these requirements, as well as applicable requirements under the Condo Act, before considering changes to your unit.

Modifications to the Common Elements by Owners

Changes to the common elements (e.g., exterior walls) by owners generally will require board approval. Section 98 of the Condo Act states that an agreement (often referred to as a section 98 agreement) must be entered into between the condo corporation and the owner specifying, for example:

- The allocation of cost of the proposed modification between the owner and the condo corporation; and
- The respective duties and responsibilities of the owner and condo corporation for the costs of repairs after damage, maintenance, and insurance of the modification.

The board may approve a proposed modification, and there will be no requirement to provide notice to other owners if the modification is to an exclusive use common element, and the board is satisfied that the modification will not:

- Have an adverse effect on units owned by other owners;
- Give rise to any expense to the corporation;
- Negatively impact the appearance of buildings on the property;
- Affect the structural integrity of buildings; or
- Contravene the declaration or any prescribed requirements.

Right of Entry

Section 19 of the Condo Act provides condo corporations, or a person authorized by the condo corporation, the right to enter units to perform the objects and duties or to exercise the powers of the condo corporation. They can only do so after providing reasonable notice to the owner of the unit.

Examples of when condo corporations may typically seek to enter units include:

- To perform maintenance and repairs to the common elements;
- To perform routine inspections on things such as smoke detectors; and
- To ensure compliance with the Condo Act and the condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules.

Your condo corporation will also have the right to enter units in the case of an emergency, such as a fire or water leak, without any reasonable notice.

3.6 Condominium Management

Condo corporations, while not required to, may decide to hire a condo manager or a condo management company to oversee the condo corporation's day-to-day operations. Condo managers act on behalf of the condo corporation and are directed by the board of directors. A condo manager's range of responsibilities may include:

- Creating and maintaining records for the condo corporation;
- Responding to owner complaints;
- Coordinating the maintenance and repair of the property;
- Hiring and monitoring the performance of service providers;
- Preparing draft annual budgets and monitoring the reserve fund;
- Issuing meeting notices; and
- Organizing board meetings and overseeing administration of all owners' meetings.

Under section 17.0.1 of the Condo Act, condo corporations cannot enter into agreements with a condo manager or management company unless they are licensed through the Condominium Management Authority of Ontario (CMRAO). For more information about the CMRAO, see section 4.2 of this Condo Guide.

For more information on the CMRAO, you can visit their website by clicking here.

Part 4: Resources for Issues Resolution

4.1 Raising Issues with your Condominium Board

Occasionally, issues can arise with condo living. There are several options that may be available to condo owners who have concerns with their board of directors or condo corporation generally. Before raising any issues, you may wish to consult the governing documents of your condo corporation as some condo corporations may have specific protocols for raising issues. When raising issues, you may wish to consider the following:

1. Writing a Letter to the Board

You may wish to contact your board to request formal consideration of your concern if you are experiencing a condo-related issue that you wish to raise with the board. Within the letter or email it is helpful to provide as much detail as possible about the issue.

The CAO also has email and letter templates for writing to your board, available on the CAO website by clicking here.

2. Requisitioning a Meeting of Owners

Owners may be able to requisition a meeting to discuss certain issues. For example, owners may be able to requisition a meeting to discuss:

- The removal and replacement of a director before the expiry of that director's term;
- A proposed new rule or change or repeal of an existing rule; and
- The discussion of any emerging issue (e.g., a board decision).

For more information on meetings in general, see section 3.2 of this Condo Guide.

For more information regarding the requisitioning of meetings, please click here.

3. Raising Issues at an AGM

An AGM provides another opportunity to bring up issues regarding the condo corporation and condo business to the board and other owners. Owners may be able to raise their concerns at their AGM. Section 45(3) of the Condo Act states that owners may raise any matters for discussion in the AGM, as long as they are relevant to the affairs and business of the condo corporation.

4. Seeking Legal Advice

If a particular issue cannot be resolved through any of the above options, you may wish to consider seeking legal advice.

If you require legal advice, you may wish to contact a lawyer or paralegal familiar with condo law. The names of lawyers or paralegals may be obtained from the Law Society of Ontario Referral Service. They may provide a free consultation of up to 30 minutes.

Additionally, you may wish to consider reviewing the CAO's Issues and Solutions page for additional information on common issues associated with condo living.

4.2 The Condominium Authority of Ontario

The CAO is a not-for-profit organization designated by the Ontario government to administer delegated provisions of the Condo Act and its regulations. The CAO's role is to support condo living by providing services and resources for condo communities and the general public. These include:

- Offering information about condo living to condo owners, residents, and other members of the public;
- Administering mandatory training for condo directors;
- Hosting and providing access to several mandatory and optional condo forms;
- Maintaining the CAO's Public Registry, which contains and displays information filed with the CAO through returns and notices of change; and
- Overseeing an online dispute resolution forum - the Condominium Authority Tribunal (CAT).

The CAT is an online tribunal that is authorized to resolve certain disputes primarily between condo corporations and owners. Part I.2 of the Condo Act and related regulations, including Ontario Regulation 179/17, set out certain provisions related to the CAT's jurisdiction.

Currently, the CAT resolves certain disputes relating to:

- the retention of and access to condo records.
- condo corporation governing document provisions about:
 - vehicles;
 - pets or other animals;
 - parking and storage; and
 - indemnification or compensation of the condo corporation, owner or mortgagee related to the above-noted governing document disputes.

For more regarding the CAT, its function, and its jurisdiction, click here.

4.3 Condominium Management Regulatory Authority of Ontario

The Condominium Management Regulatory Authority of Ontario (CMRAO) is a not-for-profit corporation that is responsible for administering provisions under the Condominium Management Services Act, 2015 (CMSA), including by licensing condo managers and management providers. The CMRAO:

- Ensures that condo managers and condo management companies are licensed, meet education standards, and comply with a code of ethics, among other requirements.
- Maintains a list of licensed condo managers and condo management providers.
- Promotes awareness of the condo management regulatory system and enforces compliance with the CMSA.

Handling Complaints

If you think your condo's manager or management service provider is in violation of the CMSA you can submit a complaint to the CMRAO. If the registrar of the CMRAO receives a complaint about a licensee, the registrar may do any of the following, as appropriate:

- Attempt to mediate or resolve the complaint;

- Give the licensee a written warning;
- Require the taking of further educational courses;
- Refer the matter, in whole or in part, to the discipline committee;
- Propose to suspend, revoke, or add conditions to a licence;
- Propose to refuse to renew a licence; or,
- Take further action as is appropriate in accordance with the CMSA.

More information about making a complaint can be found on the CMRAO's website here.

4.4 Compliance and Enforcement Mechanisms

Responsibility to Comply with the Condo Act

Section 119 of the Condo Act provides that the condo corporation, owners, directors, officers, employees, mortgagees, developer and occupants are all required to comply with the Condo Act as well as the condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules.

Section 17 (3) of the Condo Act provides that condo corporations have a duty to take all reasonable steps to ensure that owners, occupiers, lessees, agents and employees of a condo corporation comply with the Condo Act, the declaration, the by-laws and the rules. Additionally, section 119 (2) of the Condo Act provides that owners are obliged to take all reasonable steps to ensure occupants and visitors of their unit also comply with the Condo Act, the declaration, the by-laws, and the rules.

Mediation, Arbitration, and Compliance Orders

Under section 132 of the Condo Act, certain disputes must be resolved through mediation or arbitration. Condo corporations may also have provisions in their declaration or by-laws establishing a procedure for resolving certain disputes and compliance.

To resolve certain disputes between an owner and the condo corporation, the first step would be mediation, and then arbitration, if required.

As per section 134 of the Condo Act, certain compliance disputes may be resolved through an application to the Superior Court of Justice, including if the mediation and arbitration process has failed to solve the issue. Condo corporations, owners, occupants of a proposed unit, and developers are all entitled to apply as set out in that section; however, it is recommended to talk to a lawyer or paralegal if considering any legal action.

Please note that sections 132 and 134 of the Condo Act do not apply to disputes that may be brought to the CAT.

Offences Under the Condo Act

Sections 136.1 and 137 of the Condo Act set out provincial offences under the Condo Act that the Ministry of Government and Consumer Services (Ministry) administers. If you have information about conduct you believe may constitute an offence under section 136.1 or section 137 of the Condo Act, you may provide that information to the Ministry.

You can file the information by clicking here.

The Ministry will review the information and determine if compliance or enforcement action would be appropriate. Please note that not every complaint will lead to compliance or enforcement action.

Section 136.2 of the Condo Act sets out provincial offences under the Condo Act which are administered by the CAO. If you have information about conduct that you believe may constitute an offence under section 136.2 of the Condo Act, you may provide that information to the CAO.

Part 5: Glossary of Key Terms

Addendum: The Tarion Addendum (expected to be a joint Tarion/HCRA addendum if the HCRA is designated in early 2021) is a required part of the agreement of purchase and sale for a residential condo and contains important information that both the builder and condo buyer are required to agree to.

Agreement of Purchase and Sale: The Agreement of Purchase and Sale contains important information about your rights and obligations as a condo buyer, the builder's rights and obligations as seller (as applicable), the unit, and the condo construction project.

Annual General Meeting: Annual owners' meeting where the board of directors presents to the owners on the financial health of the condo corporation and other business.

Board Meetings: Meetings attended by board members to manage the affairs of the condo corporation.

By-laws: By-laws are part of the condo corporation governing documents. By-laws govern how a condo corporation operates. By-laws can cover topics such as: the size of your condo board, the process for electing directors, and the format of board meetings. By-laws must be consistent with the declaration and the Condo Act as well as reasonable.

Chargebacks: Charges that are added to the amount of a unit owner's common expense fees. This may happen, for example, due to a condo corporation handling an owner's maintenance obligations or where a condo corporation incurs certain court costs in a legal proceeding against an owner to enforce compliance.

Common Elements: All condo property except units.

Common Elements Condominium: A condo corporation that creates common elements but does not divide the land into units. Owners purchase land tied to part of a common element condo corporation in which they also have an ownership interest (such as a shared road, ski hill or golf course) and pay common expense fees.

Common Expense Fees: The amount of money that an owner contributes in the proportions specified in the declaration. These go towards paying expenses (operating and reserve), including for, among other things, the maintenance and upkeep of the condo corporation's common elements.

Condo Corporation: A legal entity that comes into existence when a declaration and description are registered with the Land Registry Office. All units and common elements are part of a condominium corporation, and condominium corporations are governed by boards of directors on behalf of owners.

Condo Manager: An individual licensed by the Condominium Management Regulatory Authority of Ontario who is hired by a condo corporation to oversee a condo corporation's day-to-day operations. Condo managers are accountable to the board of directors of the condo corporation.

Condominium Act, 1998 (Condo Act): The Condo Act provides a legal framework that enables condo owners and their elected board of directors to make decisions about the governance of a condo corporation.

Condominium Authority Tribunal (CAT): an online tribunal administered by the Condominium Authority of Ontario that is authorized to resolve certain disputes primarily between condo corporations and owners.

Condominium Management Services Act (CMSA): The CMSA provides a framework for regulating condo managers and condo management providers and requires that they be licensed to provide condo management services in Ontario.

Cooling Off Period: Ten-day period within which buyers of pre-construction condos have the right to rescind, or cancel, a purchase agreement they have signed, for any reason whatsoever. Begins on the later of the date the buyer received the disclosure statement, a copy of this Condo Guide, and the copy of the agreement of purchase and sale.

Declarant: The owner of the land where the condo corporation is being established. *Note that, for ease-of-understanding, the Condo Guide sometimes uses the term “developer” in many places in place of the term “declarant”, which is used in the Condominium Act, 1998. The Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act also uses the terms “vendor” and “builder”.

Declaration: Governing document that contains important information about the condo corporation, such as the percentage that the unit owner must contribute to the common expenses and a breakdown of the responsibilities for repairing and maintaining the units and common elements.

Description: The description defines the units and the common elements and specifies the boundaries between them.

Declarant-Controlled Board: A condo corporation board including directors appointed by the declarant (i.e. the developer).

Delayed Occupancy: When a unit buyer is unable to take possession of the new residential unit by the firm or outside occupancy dates contained in the Addendum to a purchase agreement.

Director / Board of Directors: The individuals who are appointed or elected to manage the affairs of the condo corporation. Directors are responsible for making important decisions and serve for terms of up to three years.

Director Training: Training program provided by the Condominium Authority of Ontario. All condo directors appointed, elected, or re-elected on or after November 1, 2017 are required to complete the training program within six months of their appointment, election, or re-election. Directors do not have to take the training if they have completed the program within the previous seven years.

Disclosure Statement: A document that your declarant must provide when you purchase your unit from them or someone benefiting them, and which includes important information about your unit and the condo corporation (proposed or registered).

Exclusive Use Common Elements: Are common elements that specific unit owners/occupiers have exclusive use of (e.g., a balcony connected directly to a single unit).

Governing Documents: A condo corporation's declaration, by-laws, and rules.

Information Certificates: Information Certificates help to ensure that owners receive ongoing information about their condo corporation throughout the year. There are three types: Periodic Information Certificates, Information Certificate Updates, New Owner Information Certificates.

Information Certificate Updates: are information certificates which include information on certain key changes before the next scheduled Periodic Information Certificate (such as changes in the directors or officers of the condo corporation). These are to be distributed within 30 days of the change.

Interim Occupancy: When a buyer takes occupancy of their unit before the condo corporation has been registered with the Land Registry Office, and before ownership is transferred to the buyer. The duration of the interim occupancy is called the interim occupancy period, and during that period the buyer is required to pay occupancy fees.

Interim Occupancy Fee: The amount that a buyer is required to pay the declarant during the interim occupancy period.

Interim Occupancy Period: The period from your interim occupancy date to the date ownership is transferred to you.

New Owner Information Certificates: Information certificates which are sent to new owners within 30 days after the new owner provides written notice stating their name and the unit that they own in the condo corporation.

Notices: Notices are documents containing information that an individual is entitled to receive as a unit owner. Notices will be delivered to you in either hardcopy or digitally (if the condo corporation and owner agree to electronic delivery or if that is otherwise permitted).

Owners' Meetings: Meetings which all owners are invited to. Includes annual general meetings, owner-requisitioned meetings, turn-over meetings, and meetings called by the board regarding the transaction of any condo business.

Owner-Requisitioned Meetings: Meetings requested by the owners to discuss/vote on a specific topic, such as the removal of a director or voting on a rule proposed by the board of directors.

Periodic Information Certificates: Information certificates which focus on the condo corporation's board, finances, insurance, reserve fund, legal proceedings, and other matters.

Phased Condominium: A condominium that is built and registered in phases. Once the construction is complete, it becomes a standard condominium.

Quorum: The law requires that a minimum number of owners be present (either in person or by proxy) at a meeting. Without quorum, voting cannot take place, however discussion on relevant business is still permitted.

Reserve Fund: A fund condo corporations save and use to handle the larger financial burdens, for major repair or replacements of common elements and assets as needed.

Reserve Fund Study: Determines how much money needs to be in the reserve fund to ensure the major repairs/replacements can be paid for in the future. The reserve fund study must be prepared by a specialist, like an engineer. The board of directors approves the study, then informs owners of the results of the study.

Rules: Rules are part of the condo corporation's governing documents. Rules exist for the protection of those living in the condo corporation as well as the protection of the assets of the condo corporation itself, and to prevent unreasonable interference with the use and enjoyment of the units, common elements, and assets of the condo corporation. Rules must be consistent with the Condo Act and the declaration and by-laws of the condo corporation as well as reasonable.

Special Assessment: An extra one-time charge added on top of an owner's common expense fees.

Standard Condominium: The most common type of condo corporation in Ontario, where the condo corporation is made up of units and common elements.

Statement of Critical Dates: The Statement of Critical Dates can be found in the Addendum to your purchase agreement. The Statement contains the dates you can expect to take occupancy of your unit, as well as other important information.

Status Certificate: A document that anyone can request from a condo corporation and which contains important information about the unit and condo corporation.

Turn-Over Meeting: The meeting held by the declarant-controlled board within 42 days of the declarant ceasing to own a majority of the units. At this meeting, the owners will elect a new board and the declarant-controlled board will turn over several items to the new owner-elected board.

Vacant Land Condominium: A type of condo corporation in which the units may be vacant lots at the time of purchase, and the condo corporation may resemble a subdivision. Common elements are often things such as roadways, sewer systems, and amenities such as parks or recreation facilities.

D. GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PROJECT

Section 1 – Type of Condominium

The proposed condominium ("Condominium") is a freehold condominium corporation that is a standard condominium corporation. The condominium corporation to be created upon registration of the declaration and description of the Condominium upon the Property is herein referred to as the ("Corporation").

Section 2 – Division and Composition of the Overall Site

The Condominium will form part of a development (the "Development") on the lands known as 880-890 The Queensway, Toronto. The Condominium will be assigned a new municipal address of 6 Chartwell Road, Toronto. The Development will be bounded by Chartwell Road to the east, and The Queensway to the south, an existing condominium building known as The Hive Lofts (51 Lady Bank Road) to the west, and a new extension of a public lane to the north, beyond which is existing low rise residential lands. The new public lane may temporarily be a private lane. The overall site on which the Development is proposed is herein referred to as the "Development Lands". The Condominium will be located within a portion of the Development Lands. The remainder of the Development Lands will be the Commercial Component described further below.

The Development will consist of a single 8 storey (plus mechanical penthouse) midrise building, approximately 26 metres in height, with two underground levels (the "Building").

Purchasers are advised that various details and aspects of the Development have not been fully determined and are subject to change and modification from time to time by the Declarant. Any advertisements and depictions of the Declarant, including without limitation, character, number, location and heights of buildings, are subject to change and modification in the sole and absolute discretion of the Declarant.

The Building will contain the Condominium and a Commercial Component. The Commercial Component is not currently intended to form a part of the Condominium. It is intended to be a separate component within the Building and is intended to be developed as a separate freehold ownership which will be further subdivided. The Declarant reserves the right to develop the Commercial Component as part of a separate condominium. In the event that the Declarant determines that the Commercial Component will be a part of the Condominium, the Commercial Component would then be delineated in additional units and included within the Condominium, and this shall not constitute a material change within the meaning of the Act.

The Condominium and the Commercial Component are intended to function as a joint project in which various services, facilities, walkways and other features will be shared and sufficient easements shall be granted to enable the occupants, guests and invitees of the Condominium and the Commercial Component to have access to the respective properties as explained herein.

The condominium corporations created upon the registration of the Condominium is hereinafter referred to as the "Corporation".

Section 3 – Description of the Building and Units

(i) Residential Units, Parking Units, Locker Units, and Combined Parking/Locker Units

The Building will contain the Condominium and the Commercial Component. The Building will have 2 underground levels containing the parking garage, lockers and various building facilities. Refer to Section 2 in respect of alternate ways in which the development may be completed, which shall not constitute a material change within the meaning of the Act.

Vehicular access to the Building, including the underground parking garage of the Condominium as well as outdoor parking for the Commercial Component and shared loading facilities (being part of the Commercial Component), will be from the public lane at the north property line, which connects to Lady Bank Road to the west, and will be extended to connect to Chartwell Road to the east.

Pedestrian access to the Commercial Component will principally be multiple entry points on The Queensway and off Chartwell Road at the southeast corner of the Building, each directly to the Commercial Component. Pedestrian access to the residential portions of the Building, including the Condominium will be principally located off of Chartwell Road on the east side of the Building. A shared entry is located on the north side of the Building off of the extended public lane.

The Condominium will contain, inter alia, 103 residential units (each a "Residential Unit") on levels 2 to 8 inclusive. Parking Units and Locker Units of the Condominium will be located on the 1st and 2nd underground levels of the Building. One Combined Parking/Locker Unit will be located on the 2nd underground level of the Building.

Each Residential Unit owner shall have the exclusive use of portions of the common elements, as described in the declaration (the "Declaration"). Subject to the provisions of the Declaration, by-laws and rules, each Residential Unit owner is responsible for the maintenance and repair of his Residential Unit.

Purchasers are advised that elevator service for the Building is to be provided by one set of two elevators that serve all levels of the Building.

The Condominium will contain approximately 81 parking units located on the 2 underground levels of the Condominium and approximately 8 locker units located on the 2 underground levels of the Condominium, as well as one unit that is intended to be a combined parking and locker unit, where access to the locker is through the parking space, on the second underground level. Such parking units, locker units, and combined parking/locker unit shall be designated by the Declarant in the manner provided for in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale. The Declarant reserves the right to sell or lease any additional parking units and/or locker units to purchasers or tenants of any of the units of the Condominium, the owner(s) or tenants of the Commercial Component or they may be retained by the Declarant. At the discretion of Declarant, the Condominium Corporation may be required to purchase a number of Parking Units (to be determined by the Declarant in its sole discretion) from the Declarant, at a purchase price of no more than $55,000.00 per Parking Unit, plus HST and Land Transfer Tax.

Visitor parking will be available within the common elements of the Condominium, with approximately 8 visitor parking spaces within the first underground level, and approximately 7 visitor parking spaces outdoors accessed off of the new public lane at the north side of the Building. Visitor parking is not intended to be shared with the Commercial Component, which will have its own parking spaces outdoors accessed off of the new public lane. The Declarant makes no representation or warranty as to the availability of parking.

Purchasers are also advised that one car sharing space is intended to be located within the common elements of the Condominium, outdoors accessed off of the new public lane at the north side of the Building. This space will be subject of a licence or lease agreement with a car sharing operator, and its use will be subject to the terms of the car sharing operator. The use of the car sharing program will not be limited to owners of Condominium units or the Commercial Component.

The Declarant reserves the right, at its option, to increase or decrease the number of Residential Units, parking units, locker units and/or combined parking/locker units within the Condominium, provided that each purchaser's common expenses will not change materially. Further, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Declarant reserves the right, at its option, to increase or decrease the number of levels within the Condominium, including the underground levels, and any portion of the Building. Accordingly, the purchaser's Residential Unit number, level number, parking unit number and locker unit number may change from that originally proposed in the Agreement of Purchase and Sale or in this Disclosure Statement and any changes contemplated herein shall not constitute a material change within the meaning of the Act.

(ii) Accessible Parking

The Declarant will designate a certain number of parking units as accessible in such number and in such locations as the applicable governmental authority designates. In the event that a person with a disability, as defined pursuant to the provisions of the Highway Traffic Act, R.S.O. 1990 c.H.8, purchases or leases a parking unit which is not designated as accessible, and provides notice to the Corporation in writing requesting the use of a handicapped parking unit, the user or any person occupying a handicapped parking unit, provided that user is not a person with a disability, shall upon notice from the Corporation exchange with the person with a disability the right to occupy the accessible parking unit with the parking unit that the person with a disability had the right to occupy. Such exchange of right to uses shall continue until the earlier of (i) the person with a disability ceases to be a person with a disability; or (ii) the person with a disability ceases to have the right to occupy a parking unit. No rent, fees, charges or costs whatsoever shall be charged by the owner, occupant or the Corporation in connection with above noted procedure.

(iii) Energized Parking Units

The Condominium may contain a limited number of Parking Units (the "Energized Parking Units") that will contain an electrical receptacle (the "Electrical Receptacle") for the use of a motor vehicle (an "Electrical Motor Vehicle") that contains an engine that operates in part or solely by an electrical battery. The Declarant reserves the right not to include any Energized Parking Units, or to provide only a conduit for potential future installation. The Energized Parking Units will be for the sole use of the owner (or tenant) of such unit.

Section 4 – Amenities and Facilities

(I) Amenity areas in the Condominium

There will be constructed within the Condominium one or more amenity areas which are intended to form a part of the Common Elements. Amenity areas are intended to consist of the following:

- (a) Indoor bicycle parking on Level 1
- (b) Playroom on Level 1
- (c) Fitness Room on Level 1
- (d) Indoor and Outdoor Amenity areas on Level 6, consisting of:
 - (i) Indoor Party Room
 - (ii) Outdoor Terrace

Construction of the amenities to be contained within the Condominium is anticipated to commence in July 2022 and the proposed date of their completion is May 2025. Please note, however, that the foregoing anticipated dates may be delayed due to delays in construction commencement, delays due to strikes and other labour disruptions, as well as shortages of material(s) and equipment, or due to inclement weather conditions, or by other causes or events within or beyond the Declarant's control.

It is unlikely that any of the amenities to be contained within the Condominium will be operational and available for use or enjoyment by any unit purchasers during their respective periods of interim occupancy.

The amenities and facilities contained within the Condominium will be available for use by those owners of Residential Units that reside in their respective units, as well as the tenants of non-resident owners, along with their household and invited guests, subject to the Rules of the Condominium. For greater certainty and clarity, owners who do not reside at their Residential Units shall not be permitted to use the amenities and facilities of the Condominium.

Section 5 – Description of the Commercial Component

The Commercial Component will be located on a portion of the 1st level of the Building and will contain an area of approximately 649m² (6980 ft²) of retail space and the loading area to be utilized also by the Condominium pursuant to the Reciprocal Operating Agreement described below, together with outdoor areas that may also be utilized for commercial purposes along The Queensway and a commercial patio with an area of approximately 37m² (399 ft²), although the Declarant reserves the right to increase or decrease the size of the Commercial Component and/or to exclude the exterior areas or any part or parts thereof from the Commercial Component all as may be determined by the Declarant. The Commercial Component shall be used and occupied only for commercial purposes in conformity with all applicable zoning and building by-laws and regulations of the City of Toronto and any other governmental authority having jurisdiction (the foregoing collectively referred to as the "Applicable Zoning By-Laws").

As previously described herein, vehicular access to the Commercial Component is intended to be directly from the new public lane extension at the north limit of the Development Lands, with pedestrian access directly from the exterior from multiple points on The Queensway and from Chartwell Road at the southeast corner of the Building. The Commercial Component will have a separate waste room within the building, and will incorporate parts of the corridor on the ground level (to be accessible also by the Condominium). All necessary easements shall be created and provision made in the Reciprocal Operating Agreement for the sharing of all related costs in respect of such use and access. Shared portions of the Commercial Component also include the loading bay facilities accessed from the future public lane on the north side of the Building, which will be used by both the Commercial Component and the Condominium. The loading bay facilities will be controlled by the Commercial Component, subject to the terms of the Reciprocal Operating Agreement. Shared portions of the Commercial Component also include short term bicycle parking at the north entrance adjacent to the loading area.

Any owner or tenant of the Commercial Component shall be entitled to erect or maintain signs and/or advertising materials within or affixed to windows, exterior walls and doors within the Commercial Component, provided such displays conform with the Applicable Zoning By-Laws and any sign policy established by the owner of the Commercial Component.

The invitees of the Commercial Component are not permitted to make use of any of the facilities or amenities of the Condominium and may not access any parts of the Condominium other than areas required to access the Commercial Component.

Parking for users of the Commercial Component is available outside of the Building on the ground floor, accessed through the new public lane extension. Such parking is not shared with the Condominium, and forms a part of the Commercial Component.

The Declarant advises that it reserves the right to develop the Commercial Component as a separate condominium plan or combine the Commercial Component into the Condominium, in which event all required changes to the applicable documents shall be incorporated, and any changes contemplated herein shall not constitute a material change within the meaning of the Act.

Section 6 – Description of the Reciprocal Operating Agreement

The Corporation and the owners of the Commercial Component shall enter into an agreement (the "Reciprocal Operating Agreement") which will:

- (a) describe and convey the various easements over various parts of the Condominium and various parts of the Commercial Component, including easements for the purposes of
 - (A) pedestrian and vehicular access;
 - (B) support;
 - (C) installing, maintaining, operating, altering, repairing, replacing and inspecting utilities and other servicing systems; and
 - (D) the use and employment of various parts of the development;
- (b) establish the cost sharing mechanism with respect to the expenses of operating, maintaining and replacing the facilities, services, building staff, and portions of the Condominium and Commercial Component which are shared between them, including without limitation, property management, landscaping, snow removal, utilities, general maintenance of sidewalks, mechanical equipment (including storm water retention tank), loading and delivery facilities, shared servicing systems (including fire protection and life safety equipment), and associated facilities and equipment and other mechanical and electrical services and facilities.
- (c) establish as to who will be responsible for the operation, maintenance, repair and replacement of the shared services and facilities described in the preceding paragraph on a permanent basis and provide that initially the Declarant shall control the aforesaid functions; and
- (d) contain such other provisions as are required to give effect to matters therein contained, including provisions for the collection of the amounts due under the Reciprocal Operating Agreement, administration of the matters therein provided, and such other matters as may be deemed appropriate by the Declarant, in its sole and absolute discretion.

The cost sharing pursuant to the Reciprocal Operating Agreement is intended to be shared on the basis of the proportionate floor area of the Condominium and the Commercial Component, provided that such proportion may be adjusted in order to properly reflect the respective uses by each component of the various shared facilities in an equitable manner. Purchasers are advised that while the exact percentages and proportions are not determined at this time, the amounts in the Budget reflect the expected costs attributable to the Condominium with respect to such shared facilities and costs.

Section 7 – Budget Statement

A Budget Statement for the one year period immediately following registration of the Declaration and the Description is included with this Disclosure Statement. Purchasers are advised that the Budget Statement which accompanies this Disclosure Statement shall, as aforesaid, be increased at the rate of 6.5% per annum after July 1, 2024. In the event that registration occurs sometime thereafter, then the Budget Statement (and all figures reflecting expenses set forth therein) shall be increased by an inflation factor of 6.5% per annum compounded. In such event, purchasers acknowledge and agree that they shall be bound by such revised budget and the acceptance of such revised budget should not be construed as a material change to the Disclosure Statement. Furthermore, nothing set forth in the Budget Statement should be construed or interpreted as a representation or warranty that the actual registration of the Condominium shall take place by the date noted above, namely July 1, 2024.

One of the largest components of the Budget Statement is the cost attributed to utilities. Purchasers are advised that, as a result of uncertainty in the utility distribution markets, the Declarant's reasonable assumptions regarding such utility costs may be incorrect as a result of circumstances which are not capable of being accurately predicted as of the date of registration of the condominium and which are beyond the Declarant's control. Consequently, prior to registration of the Condominium, the projected costs for such utilities shown in the Budget Statement which accompanies this Disclosure Statement shall be updated to reflect market conditions as of the date of registration as an alternative to applying an assumed inflation factor to such projected costs as provided in the Budget Statement (in the Declarant's sole discretion). The Budget Statement which accompanies this Disclosure Statement and the common expenses applicable to each unit shall be revised accordingly. Purchasers specifically acknowledge and agree that any increase in utility costs from that which was originally represented in the Budget Statement which accompanies this Disclosure Statement shall not be the responsibility of the Declarant, despite section 75 of the Condominium Act, 1998. Purchasers acknowledge that the possibility of an increase in utility costs has been properly disclosed and, consequently, any increase shall not constitute a material change to the Disclosure Statement or such Budget Statement. In addition, purchasers agree that this acknowledgement may be pleaded by the Declarant as a complete defense to any application or objection raised by purchasers in this regard.

E. MARKETING OF BLOCKS OF UNITS

The Declarant does not presently intend to market any units in blocks to investors but reserves the right to do so; however, no restriction has been placed on the number of units that may be purchased by an individual or corporation.

F. SIGNIFICANT FEATURES OF AGREEMENTS

The following represents a brief narrative description of the significant features of the agreements required to be described under section 72(3)(n), but any statements made below are qualified in all respects by the contents of such documents.

(I) Management Agreement

The Corporation will enter into a management agreement with a company appointed by the Declarant (the "Manager") pursuant to which the Manager will be the exclusive representative and managing agent of the Corporation for a period of 3 years from the date of creation of the Corporation. The duties of the Manager are fully set out in the management agreement and include, among other things the enforcement of the terms of the Declaration, by-laws and rules, the collection of common expenses, the repair and maintenance of common elements, and the keeping of accounts of all financial transactions involved in managing the property of the Corporation. The Manager shall be entitled to a payment for its managerial services in an amount set out in the Budget attached hereto.

The management contract may be terminated by the Corporation in accordance with Section 111 of the Act. The Manager may terminate the contract by the Manager giving to the Corporation 60 days' written notice to such effect.

A copy of the proposed Management Agreement is attached hereto.

(II) Insurance Trust Agreement

The Corporation may enter into an agreement with a trustee (the "Trustee"), which agreement provides for insurance proceeds to be paid over to the Trustee and either to be utilized in payment of repairs and reconstruction if such is appropriate or in the alternative, to be distributed amongst those entitled thereto if the buildings are not to be repaired or rebuilt. The agreement also provides for payment of a fee to the Trustee.

A copy of the proposed insurance trust agreement is attached hereto.

(III) Proposed Agreement with a Television Provider

The Corporation may enter into or assume an agreement (the "Television Agreement") with a television provider (the "Television Provider"), which agreement grants to and in favour of the Television Provider, a right of access or easement over, under and across the common elements of the Corporation in order to facilitate the ability of the Television Provider to install, maintain, repair, replace and operate its television services lines throughout the common elements of the Condominium. All television lines, equipment, wires, attachments and appurtenances installed by the Television Provider shall remain the personal property of the Television Provider, even though same may be affixed to any unit. The Television Agreement will provide that if the Corporation desires to contract with a communications service provider other than the Television Provider, then the Corporation must purchase any wiring (that is in the Television Agreement commonly called the "inside wire") upon the terms and conditions as set out in the Television Agreement at a cost equal to the undepreciated cost of the inside wire.

(IV) Proposed Agreement with a Telecommunication Provider

The Corporation may enter into or assume an agreement (the "Telecommunications Agreement") with a telecommunication provider (a "Telecommunication Provider"), which agreement grants to and in favour of the Telecommunication Provider a right of access or easement over, under and across the common elements of the Corporation in order to facilitate the ability of the Telecommunication Provider to install, maintain, repair, replace and operate its telephone and telecommunications lines and services throughout the common elements of the Condominium. All telephone and telecommunications lines, equipment, wires, attachments and appurtenances installed by the Telecommunication Provider will remain the personal property of the Telecommunication Provider even though same may be affixed to any Unit. The Declarant reserves the right to permit the Telecommunication Provider to market its services in the Building. Further, Purchasers are advised that as of the date of this Disclosure Statement, the Declarant intends to enter into any contract (to be assumed by the Corporation) for the provision of bulk internet services to the Residential Units (the "Bulk Services Agreement"); however the Declarant reserves the right to instead require individual Residential Units to contract for their own internet service directly with a provider, if desired. The Bulk Services Agreement is intended to provide services on a bulk basis to the Condominium by the applicable Telecommunication Provider at favourable bulk rates. The proposed Budget of the Corporation includes the cost of the services provided pursuant to any Bulk Services Agreement, intended to be charged by the Corporation to the Residential Unit owner in the percentages set out in Schedule "D" to the Declaration.

(V) Proposed Agreements Utility Supply Providers

The Corporation may enter into or assume an agreement (the "Utility Supply and Services Agreement") with a utility supply provider (a "USP"), which provides for the USP owning, operating, maintaining and repairing the utility distribution infrastructure within the Condominium. In this regard, the Utility Supply and Services Agreement will grant to and in favour of the USP a right of access or easement over, under and across the common elements of the Condominium in order to install, maintain, repair, replace, and operate its utility distribution throughout the common elements of the Condominium. Each residential Unit will be separately metered as described in the Metered Utilities section below, to measure the consumption rate of the utility. Utility costs for each unit shall not be part of the common expenses allocated to such Unit. The owner of each respective Unit shall be responsible for the payment of all costs and expenses for utilities consumed by such Unit including the following: (a) the cost of the utility commodity; (b) an administration fee payable to the USP for reading the consumption meter and administering the monthly billing; and (c) a distribution fee payable to the USP as prescribed by the applicable governmental authority from time to time. On or before the occupancy closing date, each owner shall enter into a utility supply and services agreement directly with the USP. The Utility Supply and Services Agreement may provide that if the Corporation desires to contract with another utility supply provider, the Corporation must purchase the utility distribution system upon the terms and conditions set out in such agreement at a cost equal to the undepreciated cost of such system.

(VI) Access and Environmental Control System (Smart Community Services)

The Declarant may install an access and environmental control system in the Condominium in order to integrate Unit owners' digital control of lobby access, thermostats, community cameras, community messaging, property management, and digital door locks/pads for access to Residential Units and amenities. In this regard, the Declarant may enter into a smart community services agreement with respect to the installation and operation of the equipment required for such system and the Corporation will assume such lease or other agreement.

(VII) Metered Utilities

Purchasers are advised that the Residential Units will be metered for electricity, hot water and cold water consumption. Heating and gas consumption costs, if any, as well as internet service are included in the Budget of the Corporation and form part of common expenses. Bulk internet services will be charged to Residential Unit owners in the separate percentages set out in Schedule "D" to the proposed Declaration. All other utilities and services, including telephone and cable television may be contracted for by owners and occupants directly with the providers thereof to the Condominium and such services are not included, or paid for on behalf of the Residential Units as part of common expenses. The Declarant reserves the right to switch any utilities that are bulk metered to a metered service and to make electricity and/or either or both of the hot water and cold water bulk services with the costs thereof being included in the common expenses.

Some units may have exclusive use to larger outdoor terraces that are equipped with a rough-in for gas supply, although not all outdoor terraces will be so equipped. Purchasers are advised that it is the intention of the Declarant that the consumption of gas service to these areas will form part of the common expenses of the Corporation. The Declarant reserves the right to instead either (a) meter each such supply, to be paid by each respective unit owner; or (b) have only one gas meter (or sub-meter or other form of consumption meter) installed within the common elements of the Condominium to monitor the consumption of gas service to all serviced terraces or balconies and that each owner with use of a serviced terrace or balcony would be responsible for an equal share of consumption costs for all of the serviced terraces and balconies; or (c) provide an alternate manner in which consumption may be monitored and invoiced to owners with use of a serviced terrace.

(VIII) Warranty Agreement Between Condominium and Declarant

The Corporation shall enter into an agreement (the "Warranty Agreement") with the Declarant, which shall provide that (a) the Corporation shall have no rights against the Declarant beyond those that are specifically granted to the Corporation under the Condominium Act, the Ontario New Home Warranties Plan Act, R.S.O. 1990, c.O.31 (the "Warranties Plan Act") and by Tarion Warranty Corporation, formerly the Ontario New Homes Warranty Program; (b) the Corporation's only recourse against the Declarant for a final and binding resolution of any outstanding, incomplete or deficient items and any other matters relating to the Property, the Condominium and the buildings shall be through the process established for and administered by Tarion Warranty Corporation; (c) the Corporation, together with the Declarant, shall appoint and constitute Tarion Warranty Corporation as the sole and final arbiter of all such matters; (d) the Corporation shall indemnify and save the Declarant harmless from all actions, causes of actions, claims and demands for damages or loss which are brought by the Corporation in contravention of said Agreement; and (e) the Agreement shall not be terminated or terminable by the Corporation following the turnover meeting.

G. MISCELLANEOUS

- (a) The Declarant has no actual knowledge of any judgments against the Corporation to be created by the Declarant, nor does it have any actual knowledge of any pending lawsuits to which the Corporation is a party.
- (b) There are no current or expected fees or charges to be paid by unit owners, or any of them, for the use of the common elements or part thereof and other facilities related to the Property, except otherwise as may be expressly provided for in this Disclosure Statement or in the documents prepared in conformity therewith.
- (c) The Declarant has not made an application for approval, as described under subsection 72(3)(e) of the Act, with respect to the Property.

- (i) The Declarant does not intend to cause the Corporation to amalgamate with another corporation within 60 days of the date of registration of the Declaration and description of the Corporation.
- (j) The Declarant does not intend to require the Corporation to pay fees or charges to the Declarant or another person, save and except for (a) those fees or charges set out in the Budget Statement annexed hereto, and (b) at the discretion of Declarant, the Condominium Corporation may be required to purchase a number of Parking Units (to be determined by the Declarant in its sole discretion) from the Declarant, at a purchase price of no more than $55,000.00 per Parking Unit, plus HST and Land Transfer Tax..
- (k) Under subsection 82(8) of the Act, the Declarant is entitled to retain the excess of all interest earned on money held in trust over the interest that it is required to pay to the purchaser under section 82 of the Act.

- (l) The Declarant does not own land that is adjacent to the land described in the description, except for the Commercial Component.
- (m) All purchasers of Residential Units are advised that noise levels due to traffic, public roadways and public transportation facilities may be of concern, occasionally interfering with some activities of the occupants. Central air conditioning has been installed to provide ventilation when windows are closed to achieve suitable indoor noise levels.

If the relevant governing authorities require the purchaser to receive a copy of the Notices, then a copy of the Notices as revised as necessary, may be given directly to the purchasers, or shall be mailed or electronically transmitted to their respective addresses as shown on the Agreements of Purchase and Sale or to their respective solicitors and such mailing and transmission shall be deemed to constitute appropriate notification.

The aforesaid provisions will be contained in the Declaration.
- (p) In order to reduce or eliminate the penetration of sound from one unit to another unit, not less than 75% of the floor area of each room in each Residential Unit (with the exception of the kitchen, the bathroom and the entrance foyer areas) shall be covered by broadloom or by an area rug with suitable underpadding. Any owner who wishes to install hardwood or tile flooring in areas other than the kitchen, entrance foyer and bathroom must install noise attenuation materials below the hardwood and tile flooring and lay carpeting on at least 75% of the hardwood and tile flooring.

PART TEN – GENERAL MATTERS

Section 39 – Check Metering of Utilities

- (a) The Corporation may contract for the purchase of any utility from the appropriate utility provider. Additionally, each Owner may be required to contract with a local distribution company, a private retailing company and/or from a metering company for the supply of any utility to the Unit. Utilities consumed in each Unit may be measured by a suite metering system (a "SMS") operated by the company that installed the SMS (the "Metering Company") and may be invoiced to such Owner by the Metering Company in accordance with an agreement to be entered into by the Corporation, or the respective Unit Owner and the Metering Company. In the alternative, the Declarant may at first instance enter into such an agreement and upon either the registration of the Corporation or upon occupancy of each respective Residential Unit the Declarant shall be automatically released from all of its liabilities and obligations thereunder with the result that it shall no longer from such time be liable to the other party(ies) to any agreements for any breach of the agreement caused or occurring subsequent to such date. Correspondingly, the Corporation or the Residential Unit Owner, as the case may be, shall assume all such liabilities and obligations from such date.
- (b) Each Owner shall receive and be responsible for payment of the invoice with respect to the consumption of such utilities for his Unit. The Owner shall remit payment to the relevant Metering Company for utility consumption, separate from any other obligations the Unit Owner has with respect to payment of common expenses as an Owner within the Condominium. For greater certainty, the cost of such utility consumption within the Residential Units shall not form part of the common expenses.
- (c) The following shall apply where the Corporation is liable to the utility supplier at first instance, but shall not apply where the Residential Unit Owner contracts directly with the utility supplier:
 - (i) any monies owing with respect to invoices for any utility consumption described in this Section and not paid to the relevant Metering Company by the Owner according to the terms of the invoice, shall be paid by the Corporation to such Metering Company and shall thereupon be a debt owed by the Owner of the Unit and shall be collectable by the Corporation as if same were common expenses in arrears and for such purposes only shall be considered common expenses. Payment to the Corporation shall be made in such manner and with such frequency as determined by the Board from time to time acting reasonably in the event of such default. Interest will accrue on arrears of money owing for such utility consumption at a rate set out herein for arrears owing to the Corporation;

- (ii) in the event a Unit Owner is in default of payment of invoices to the Metering Company, as a condition of being supplied or continuing to be supplied with such utility, the Corporation has the right to require an Owner to maintain a deposit with the Corporation in an amount equal to two month's common expense fees. The Corporation is entitled to apply such deposits against monies owing by a defaulting Owner with respect to the supply of such utility; and
- (iii) the Corporation shall be entitled, subject to complying with all other laws and regulations, to either stop the supply of such utility to any Unit where payments owing for same are more than 30 days in arrears and/or to register a common expense lien against the Unit.

Section 40 – Rights of Entry to a Unit

- (a) The Corporation, or any insurer of the property or any part thereof, their respective agents, employees or authorized representatives, and any other person authorized by the Board, shall be entitled to enter any Unit at all reasonable times and upon giving reasonable notice, for the purposes of making inspections, adjusting losses, making repairs, correcting any condition which violates the provisions of any insurance policy, remedying any condition which might result in damage to the property, carrying out any duty imposed upon it by the Corporation, or to perform the objects and duties of the Corporation or to exercise the powers of the Corporation, or in order to exercise any right, remedy or privilege any one of them may have pursuant to the Reciprocal Operating Agreement or to carry out any duty imposed by such agreements or such other obligations that bind the Corporation.
- (b) The Declarant and its authorized agents and contractors shall be entitled to enter upon any Unit and the Common Elements of the Corporation to rectify any matter required to be satisfied under any municipal, regional and/or utility agreement until all of the Declarant's obligations under such agreements have been satisfied in full.
- (c) In case of an emergency, any agent, employee or authorized representative of the Corporation may enter any Unit at any time without notice, for the purpose of repairing the Unit or the Common Elements or for the purpose of correcting any condition which might result in damage or loss to the property or any assets of the Corporation. The Corporation or anyone authorized by it may determine whether such an emergency exists.
- (d) The Corporation, its agents, employees, authorized representatives and others authorized by the board shall have the right to enter any Unit at all reasonable times and upon giving reasonable notice to read, install, maintain, repair or inspect:
 - (i) any part of the Building (including without limitation, the maintenance, repair and replacement of any windows or window washing anchors); and
 - (ii) any metering devices, installation or equipment necessary for the providing or monitoring of utilities or services to the Unit or other Units or the Common Elements.

For the purposes of the monitoring, repair and replacement of the windows and wall systems, roof anchors to be utilized for working apparatus relating to the aforementioned uses described in this paragraph or by personnel may be installed on the exclusive use portion of the Unit and cannot be removed by the Owner

- (e) Any supplier of a utility is entitled to enter any Unit and the Common Elements upon 24 hours notice to any Owner or the Corporation, as the case may be, and without notice in the case of emergency, for the purpose of

- (g) The Corporation shall retain a master key to all locks to all Units and exclusive use areas. No Owner, resident, or tenant shall change any lock or place any additional locks on the doors to any Unit or in the Unit or to any part of the Common Elements of which such Owner, resident or tenant has the exclusive use without all such locks being on the Corporation's master key system.
- (h) The rights and authority hereby reserved to the Corporation, any insurer as aforesaid, and their respective agents, employees or authorized representatives, does not impose upon them any responsibility or liability whatsoever for the care or supervision of any Unit except as specifically provided in the Governing Documents.

Section 41 – Owner's Default

If any Owner of a Unit fails to pay the Corporation any amount (the "Amount") of money required to be paid pursuant to this Declaration that may not be a common expense, the Corporation's by-laws and/or rules or otherwise when required, then in addition to any other rights, powers or remedies available to the Corporation at common law, by statute, or in equity, the Corporation shall be entitled to:

- (a) charge and levy interest against such Owner (hereinafter referred to as the "Defaulting Owner") in respect of such unpaid Amount and on all costs and expenses incurred by the Corporation in collecting (or attempting to collect) same, including all legal expenses incurred by the Corporation on a solicitor-and-his/her-own-client basis, at a rate equal to 24% per annum, calculated monthly, not in advance, with interest on the unpaid Amount commencing to accrue from and after the date which the Amount is due and payable and with interest on all of the expenses incurred in collecting (or attempting to collect) same commencing to accrue from and after the respective dates that the Corporation incurred or expended same, and all such interest shall continue to accrue at the aforesaid rate until the date that all of the foregoing amounts are fully paid; and
- (b) maintain and enforce a lien against the Defaulting Owner's Unit(s), as security for the payment of the Amount (hereinafter referred to as the "Lien") and all costs and expenses incurred by the Corporation in collecting (or attempting to collect) same together with all outstanding interest accruing thereon as aforesaid, with the Lien being enforceable by the Corporation in the same manner, and to the same extent, as a real property mortgage or charge, and with all the powers, rights and remedies inherent in (or available to) a mortgagee or chargee when a mortgage or charge of real estate is in default, pursuant to the provisions of the Mortgages Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. M.40, as amended and/or any other applicable statutory provision or common law principle applicable thereto, and in the event that the Land Registrar requires the Corporation, as a prerequisite to the registration and/or enforcement of the Lien, to apply to a court of competent jurisdiction of any order, direction, advice or authorization, then the Corporation shall be entitled to forthwith apply to such court for same and the Defaulting Owner shall for all purposes be deemed to have consented to any such application by the Corporation, and concomitantly, the Defaulting Owner shall be forever barred and estopped from bringing or instituting any action, suit, claim or other proceeding to defend, defeat, hinder or delay any such application by the Corporation or the maintenance and enforcement of the Lien by the Corporation.

Section 42 – Invalidity

Each of the provisions of this Declaration shall be deemed independent and severable, and the invalidity or unenforceability in whole or in part of any one or more of such provisions shall not be deemed to impair or affect in any manner the validity, enforceability or effect of the remainder of this Declaration, and in such event all of the other provisions of this Declaration shall continue in full force and effect as if such invalid provision had never been included herein.

Section 43 – Waiver

The failure to take action to enforce any provision contained in the Act, the Governing Documents or the Reciprocal Operating Agreement, irrespective of the number of violations or breaches which may occur, shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so thereafter, nor be deemed to abrogate or waive any such provision.

Be it enacted as a by-law of TORONTO STANDARD CONDOMINIUM CORPORATION NO.
(hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation" or "this Corporation" as follows:

ARTICLE I
DEFINITIONS

The terms used herein and, in particular, the capitalized terms used herein shall have ascribed to them the definitions contained in the Condominium Act, 1998, S.O. 1998, c.19, as amended, and the Regulations made thereunder {all of which are hereinafter referred to as the "Act"}, and the declaration of the Corporation.

ARTICLE II
SEAL

The corporate seal of the Corporation shall be in the form impressed hereon.

ARTICLE III
REGISTER

The Corporation shall maintain a record (hereinafter called the "Register") which shall note the name and address for service of the owner and mortgagee of each unit who has notified the Corporation of his entitlement to vote. The owner's address for service shall be the address shown for his unit and the mortgagee's address for service shall be the address shown for him on his mortgage registered in the Land Titles Office, unless the Corporation is given notice of a different address by such owner or mortgagee.

ARTICLE IV
MEETING OF MEMBERS

1. Annual General Meetings: The annual general meeting of the owners shall be held at such place within the City of Toronto, and at such time and on such day in each year as the board of directors of the Corporation (hereinafter called the "board") may from time to time determine, for the purpose of hearing and receiving the reports and statements required by the Act and the bylaws of the Corporation to be laid before the owners at an annual general meeting, and for the purposes of electing directors, confirming by-laws passed by directors, appointing an auditor and fixing or authorizing the board to fix his remuneration, and for the transaction of such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting. In circumstances where the board reasonably determines that there are significant risks to the health and safety of owners in attending a meeting in person, the board may, by resolution of the board setting out its rationale for such determination, decide to allow an annual meeting to be conducted by electronic means, or by a combination of electronic and in person meeting (hereinafter called an "Electronic Meeting"). The board shall lay before each annual general meeting of owners a financial statement made in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as well as the report of the auditor to the owners, and such further information respecting the financial position of the Corporation as the by-laws may require. The board shall hold an annual general meeting not more than 3 months after the registration of the declaration and description and subsequently within 6 months of the end of each fiscal year of the Corporation.

2. The First Meeting: The first annual general meeting shall be held not more than 3 months after the registration of the declaration and description. The owners shall, at such first meeting, appoint one or more auditors to hold office until the close of the next annual general meeting, and if the owners fail to do so, the board shall forthwith make such appointment. The remuneration of an auditor so appointed shall be fixed by the owners, or by the board if authorized to do so by the owners, but the remuneration of an auditor appointed by the board shall be fixed by the board. The Corporation shall then give notice in writing to an auditor of his appointment forthwith after such appointment is made.

3. Interim Meeting of the First Board: The first board as appointed by the declarant shall call and hold a meeting of owners by the later of 30 days after the day on which the declarant has transferred 20% of the units and 90 days after the day on which the declarant transfers the first unit in the Corporation. In circumstances where the board reasonably determines that there are significant risks to the health and safety of owners in attending a meeting in person, the board may, by resolution of the board setting out its rationale for such determination, decide to allow such meeting to be conducted as an Electronic Meeting. At such interim meeting, the owners other than the declarant may elect 2 directors to the first board to hold office in addition to the directors appointed by the declarant even if the addition of an elected director results in more directors on the board than the declaration allows. The quorum for such interim meeting shall be constituted when 25% of the units in the Corporation not owned by the declarant are present at the meeting or represented by proxy. Such a meeting is not required to be called if by the day set for the meeting, the declarant no longer owns a majority of the units and advises the board in writing of that fact.

4. Turnover Meeting: The board, elected or appointed at a time when the declarant owns a majority of the units, shall, not more than 21 days after the declarant ceases to be the registered owner of a majority of the units, call a meeting of the owners to elect a new board, and such meeting shall be held within 21 days after the calling of the meeting (the "turnover meeting"). In circumstances where the board reasonably determines that there are significant risks to the health and safety of owners in attending a meeting in person, the board may, by resolution of the board setting out its rationale for such determination, decide to allow the turnover meeting to be conducted as an Electronic Meeting. If the turnover meeting is not called within such time, any owner or any mortgagee entitled to vote may call the meeting. At this meeting, the declarant or its agents shall give to the new board elected at that meeting the seal of the Corporation and all the books, documents, agreements, plans, warranties, financial records, and all other information required to be transferred pursuant to Section 43 of the Act. Furthermore, within 60 days after the turnover meeting, the declarant shall give the board an audited financial statement prepared as at the date of such meeting.

5. Special Meetings: The board may at any time call a meeting of the owners of the Corporation for the transaction of any business, the nature of which shall be specified in the notice calling the meeting. In circumstances where the board reasonably determines that there are significant risks to the health and safety of owners in attending a meeting in person, the board may, by resolution of the board setting out its rationale for such determination, decide to allow such meeting to be conducted as an Electronic Meeting. The board shall, upon receipt of a requisition in writing made by owners who together own at least 15% of the units, are listed in the record maintained by the Corporation under s.47(2) of the Act and are entitled to vote, call and hold a meeting of the owners within 35 days of receiving the requisition or add the business to be transacted to the agenda of the next annual general meeting if the requisitionists request or consent. If such meeting is not called and held, any of the requisitionists may call the meeting; and in such case, the meeting shall be held within 45 days of the day on which the meeting is called, and the Corporation shall, upon request by the requisitionist who called the meeting, reimburse the such requisitionist for the reasonable costs incurred in calling the meeting. If the nature of business to be presented at the meeting includes the removal of one or more of the directors, the requisition shall state, for each director proposed to be removed, the name of the director, the reasons for removal and whether the director occupies a position on the board that under subsection 51 (6) of the Act is reserved for voting by owners of owner-occupied units.

6. Notices: Notice of the time, place, and date of the turnover meeting, and each annual general or special meeting, shall be served on an owner not less than 15 days before the day on which the meeting is to be held, to each owner who has notified the Corporation in writing of the owner's name and address for service and whose name appeared on the record at least 20 days before the date of such meeting, and served on each mortgagee of a unit who under the terms of the mortgage has the right to vote at a meeting of the owners in place of the unit owner and has notified the Corporation in writing of the right and the mortgagee's name and address. Each notice of meeting, as hereinbefore required, shall be in writing and have the content required by subsection 47(9) of the Act and shall be served in accordance with subsections 47(7) and (8) of the Act, as the case may be.

7. Reports and Financial Statements: The corporation shall attach to the notice of the annual general meeting a copy of the financial statements and auditor's report. A copy of the minutes of the meeting of owners and of the board shall, within 10 days of such meeting, be furnished to each mortgagee who has, in writing, requested same.

8. Persons entitled to be present: The only persons entitled to attend a meeting of owners shall be the owners and mortgagees entered on the register, the auditor of the Corporation, the directors and officers of the Corporation, others who, although not entitled to vote, are entitled or required under the provisions of the Act or the by laws of the Corporation to be present at the meeting. Any other person may be admitted only on the invitation of the Chairman of the meeting or with the consent of a majority of those present at the meeting.

9. Electronic Meeting Requirements: In the event a meeting is set up solely as an Electronic Meeting, such meeting shall be deemed to be held at the Corporation's address for service. The platform used for an Electronic Meeting shall grant all those attending the meeting the ability to have real-time participation and shall permit them to reasonably and adequately observe the Electronic Meeting and communicate, in real time, with the chair, any guest and with each other, in a manner similar to the manner in which an attendee may participate and communicate at a meeting in person. All owners attending the Electronic Meeting shall have access, in real time, to all questions posed and all answers given at the meeting. All owner attending the Electronic Meeting shall have access, in real time, to the result of any vote cast at the meeting.

10. Quorum: At any meeting of owners other than the interim meeting referred to in paragraph 3 above, a quorum shall be constituted when persons entitled to vote and owning not less than 25% of the units are present in person or represented by proxy at such meeting. If 30 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of any meeting of owners has elapsed and a quorum is not present, the meeting shall be dissolved and shall stand adjourned. Notice of the time, day and place of the reconvening of such adjourned meeting shall be given not less than 10 days prior to the reconvening of such meeting. For the interim meeting referred to in paragraph 3 above, the quorum shall be constituted when 25% of the units in the Corporation not owned by the declarant are present at the meeting or represented by proxy. For the purposes of an Electronic Meeting, an owner qualifies as being present for the purpose of quorum where such owner is in attendance through the electronic means chosen by the board and the identity of the owner is capable of being confirmed by the person or platform specifically assigned such responsibility by the board and a reliable record confirming unit owners in attendance can be generated.

11. Right to vote: At each meeting of owners, and subject to the restrictions in Section 16 of this Article, every owner of a unit shall be entitled to vote, if he is entitled to receive notice of the meeting and is otherwise entitled to vote at the meeting. A mortgagee entitled to receive notice of a meeting of owners has the right to vote at a meeting in the place of the unit owner or exercise the right, if any, of the unit owner to consent in writing if the mortgagee gives notice to the corporation at least 4 days before the date of the meeting of the mortgagee's intention to exercise the right. If there is more than one mortgagee entitled to vote in respect of one unit, the mortgagee who has priority shall be entitled to vote in respect of the unit, and if that mortgagee fails to exercise the right then the mortgagee who is next in priority may exercise the right. If none of the mortgagees who have the right to vote exercises the right, then the unit owner has the right to vote at a meeting of the owners subject to subsection 51 (1) of the Act or to consent in writing. Any dispute over the right to vote shall be resolved by the Chairman of the meeting upon such evidence as he may deem sufficient. The vote of each such owner or mortgagee shall be on the basis of one vote per unit, and where two or more persons entitled to vote in respect of one unit are evenly divided on how to exercise their vote, the vote in respect of that unit shall not be counted.

12. Method of voting: At any annual general, special or turnover meeting, any question shall be decided by a show of hands or on a recorded vote, that is (i) marked on a ballot cast personally or by proxy; (ii) marked on an instrument appointing a proxy; or (iii) indicated by telephonic or electronic means if the board chooses to make available to owners a medium by which owners are able to cast a recorded vote by telephonic or electronic means (hereinafter called the "e-voting system"). A recorded vote may be requested by a person entitled to attend such meeting as aforesaid either before or promptly after the vote. Unless a recorded vote is so requested, a declaration by the Chairman that such question has by the show of hands been carried is prima facie proof of the fact, without proof of the number of votes recorded in favour of, or against, any such question. A demand for a recorded vote once given, may be withdrawn. Notwithstanding the above, the voting for the election of directors shall be by recorded vote only.

13. Representatives: An executor, administrator, committee of a mentally incompetent person, guardian or trustee (and where a corporation acts in such capacity any person duly appointed as proxy for such corporation) upon filing with the Secretary of the meeting sufficient proof of his appointment, shall represent the owner or mortgagee at all meetings of the owners of the Corporation and may exercise the owner's vote in the same manner and to the same extent as such owner. Should there be more than one executor, administrator, committee, guardian or trustee, the provisions of Section 16 of this Article shall apply.

14. Proxies: Every owner or mortgagee entitled to vote at meetings of owners, may, by instrument in writing, appoint a proxy for a particular meeting of owners, who need not be an owner or mortgagee, to attend and act at the meeting in the same manner, to the same extent, and with the same powers as if the owner or mortgagee were present himself. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing signed by the appointer or his attorney authorized in writing. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited with the Secretary of the meeting before any vote is cast under its authority. An instrument appointing a proxy for the election or removal of a director at a meeting of owners shall state the name of the directors for and against whom the proxy is to vote. An owner or mortgagee cannot appoint someone attending a meeting by electronic means to be a proxy for them.

15. E-Voting: Votes cast by electronic voting shall be deemed a ballot (hereinafter called an "e-ballot") for the purpose of any vote conducted at the meeting for which the e-ballot was cast. All questions proposed for consideration through the e-voting system will provide the opportunity to the vote in favour or against such questions and/or in favour of each candidate for election to the board of directors. Any e-ballot is valid only for one meeting of the owners (and any adjournment of the meeting) and expires automatically after the completion of the meeting of owners (or completion of the adjourned meeting, as applicable). Only an owner of a unit may cast an e-ballot and the e-voting system does not authorize another person to cast votes on behalf of an owner. The e-voting system used must authenticate the owner's identity as well as the validity of each electronic vote to ensure that the vote is not altered in transit. The e-voting system shall separate any authentication of the owner from the e-ballot, so that an e-ballot cannot be traced to a specific owner. The e-voting system shall produce an electronic receipt for each owner who casts an e-ballot, which shall include the specific vote cast, as well as the date and time of submission. An electronic report generated by the e-voting system may be relied upon and countered by the scrutineers and/or chairperson at a meeting of owners for purposes of tabulating votes and such record shall be deemed to be a ballot for the purpose of the corporation's obligations to maintain records in accordance with the Act.

16. Co-owners: If two or more persons own a unit, or own a mortgage in respect of which a right to vote is exercisable, any one of the owners or mortgagees, as the case may be, may in the absence of the other owner(s) or mortgagee(s) vote, but if more than one of them are present or are represented by proxy, they shall vote in agreement with each other, or by majority of those entitled to vote in respect of the unit, failing which the vote for such unit shall not be counted.

17. Votes to govern: At all meetings of owners every question shall, unless otherwise required by the Act, the declaration or the by-laws, be decided by the majority of the votes cast on the question, as set out in Section 11 of this Article.

18. Entitlement to Vote: Except where, under the Act or the by-laws of the Corporation, the unanimous vote of all owners is required, an owner is not entitled to vote at any meeting if any common expense or other monetary contribution payable in respect of his unit are in arrears for 30 days or more prior to the meeting. However, any owner not entitled to vote as aforesaid, may vote if the Corporation receives payment of the arrears with respect of the owner's unit before the meeting is held.

ARTICLE VI BOARD OF DIRECTORS

1. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the board.

2. Number and Quorum: Until amended by by-law, the number of directors shall be 5 of whom 3 shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the board. Notwithstanding vacancies, the remaining directors may exercise all the powers of the board so long as a quorum of the board remains in office.

3. Qualifications: Each director shall be 18 or more years of age, each director shall be an owner of a dwelling unit in the Corporation, no two directors shall reside in the same dwelling unit and directors shall not be related. No undischarged, bankrupt or mentally incompetent person shall be a director and, if a director becomes a bankrupt or mentally incompetent person, then he thereupon shall cease to be a director. In addition, a director shall immediately cease to be a director if a certificate of lien has been registered against a unit owned by the director and the director does not obtain a discharge of the lien within 90 days of the registration of the lien. In addition, a director shall immediately cease to be a director if he fails to attend three board meetings in any given year and is unable to provide an explanation for his/her absence that is satisfactory to the board, acting reasonably.

4. Election and Term: The directors of the Corporation shall be elected in rotation and shall be eligible for re-election. At the first meeting of the owners held to elect directors, 2 directors shall be elected to hold office for a term of 1 year; 2 directors shall be elected to hold office for a term of 2 years; and 1 director elected to the position of Director of Owner Occupied Units, as defined in Article VI, Section 15 hereof, shall be elected to hold office for a term of 3 years. Such directors may, however, continue to act until their successors are elected. If more than 1 of such directors whose terms are not of equal duration shall resign from the board prior to the expiration of their respective terms, and shall be replaced at a meeting of owners called for that purpose, the director(s) receiving the greater votes shall complete the longest remaining terms of the resigning directors subject to Article VI Section 15 below. At each annual general meeting thereafter a number of directors equal to the number of directors retiring in such year shall be elected for a term of 3 years.

5. Removal of Directors: A director may be removed before the expiration of his term by a vote of owners who together own a majority of units, and the owners may elect at any annual general or special meeting any qualified person in the place of any director who has been so removed, or who has died or resigned, for the remainder of his term.

6. Filling of Vacancies: If a vacancy in the membership of the board of directors occurs, other than by way of removal by a vote of owners or as a result of the number of directors being increased, the majority of the remaining members of the board may appoint any qualified person to be a member of the board to fill such vacancy until the next annual general meeting, at which time the vacancy shall be filled by election by the owners. However, if a vacancy arises and there is not a quorum of directors in office, the directors then in office shall forthwith call a meeting of owners to fill all the vacancies, and in default thereof, or if there are no directors in office, the meeting may be called by any owner.

7. Calling of Meetings of the Board of Directors: Meetings of the board shall be held from time to time at such place and at such time and on such day as the President and Vice-President (who is a director), or any two directors, may determine; and the Secretary shall call meetings when directly authorized by the President and by the Vice-President (who is a director), or by any two directors. In addition to any other provision in the by-laws, a quorum of directors may at any time, call a meeting of the directors for the transaction of any business. Unless otherwise provided in the by-laws, notice of any meeting so called shall be given personally, by prepaid mail or by telegraph to each director not less than 10 days before the time when the meeting is to be held and shall state the time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be discussed at the meeting, save that no notice of a meeting shall be necessary if all the directors are present and consent to the holding of such meeting or if those absent have waived notice of the meeting or otherwise signified in writing their consent to the holding of such meeting.

8. Regular Meetings: The board may appoint a day or days in any month or months for regular meetings at a place and hour to be named. A copy of any resolution of the board fixing a place and time of regular meetings of the board shall be sent to each director forthwith after being passed, but no other notice shall be required for any such regular meeting.

9. Meeting by Teleconference: A meeting of the directors may be held by teleconference or another form of communications system that allows the directors to participate concurrently if all of the directors consent to the means used.

10. First Meeting of New Board: The board may, without notice, hold its first meeting for the purpose of organization, and for the election and appointment of officers, immediately following the meeting of the owners at which the directors of the board were elected, provided a quorum of directors is present.

11. Disclosure by Directors of Interest in Contracts: Every director of the Corporation who has, directly or indirectly, any material interest in any material contract or transaction, to which the Corporation is or will be a party, shall disclose in writing to the Corporation the nature and extent of the interest in such contract or transaction. The disclosure shall be made at the meeting of the board, and entered in the minutes of the meeting, at which the contract or transaction is first considered, or at the first such meeting that the interested director attends, or if the director becomes interested after the contract or transaction is entered into at the next meeting of directors. Subject to the Act, such director shall refrain from voting and shall not, in respect of such contract or transaction, be counted in the quorum and shall not be present during the discussion at the meeting. A general notice to the board by a director declaring that he is a director or officer of, or has a material interest in, any company or other entity that is a party to a contract or proposed contract with the Corporation, is a sufficient declaration of his interest in relation to any contract so made. If a director has made a declaration or disclosure of his interest, and has not voted in respect of the contract or transaction, then such director, if he was acting honestly and in good faith at the time the contract or transaction was entered into, is not, by reason only of his holding the office of director, accountable to the Corporation or to its owners for any profit or gain realized from the contract or transaction, and such contract or transaction is not voidable by reason only of the director's interest therein. In respect of any contract or transaction involving the purchase or sale of real or personal property by the Corporation that the seller acquired within 5 years before the date of the contract or transaction or the proposed contract or transaction, the director shall disclose the cost of the property to the seller, to the extent which such information is within the director's knowledge or control.

12. Standard of Care: Every director and officer shall exercise the powers and discharge the duties of his office honestly and in good faith, and exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

13. Protection of Directors and Officers: No director or officer shall be liable for the acts, neglect or default of any other director or officer, or for any loss or expense happening to the Corporation through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by resolution or order of the board for or on behalf of the Corporation, or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the monies of the Corporation shall be invested, or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious act of any person with whom any of the monies, securities or effects of the Corporation shall be deposited, or for any loss occasioned by an error of judgment or oversight on his part, or for any other loss, damage or misfortune which might happen in the execution of the duties of his office or in relation thereto, unless the same shall happen through his own dishonest or fraudulent act or acts.

14. Indemnity of Directors and Officers: Every director or officer of the Corporation and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, estate trustees and other legal representatives and successors, shall at all times be indemnified and saved harmless by the Corporation from and against:

- a) all costs, expenses, charges, damages and liabilities which such director or officer suffers, sustains or incurs in respect of any action, suit or proceedings that is brought, commenced or prosecuted against him for or in respect of anything done, omitted to do or permitted to be done by him in connection with the execution of the duties of his office (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Liabilities"); and
- b) all other costs, charges and expenses which such director or officer properly sustains or incurs in relation to the affairs of the Corporation;

unless the Act or the by-laws of the Corporation otherwise provide. The Corporation shall, not later than one (1) week after the turn-over meeting, use its best efforts to purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of every director or officer in order to indemnify them against the Liabilities, provided that such insurance shall not indemnify any officer or director against the Liabilities if same were incurred by such officer or director as a result of a contravention of Section 37(1) of the Act.

15. Director of Owner Occupied Units: Provided at least 15% of the units are owner occupied units on or after the time at which the board is required to call the turnover meeting, the owners shall elect one director to a position reserved for a director elected solely by the owners of owner occupied units (the "Director of Owner Occupied Units") as required by section 51 (6) of the Act. Only owners of units that are owner occupied shall be entitled to vote for the position of Director of Owner Occupied Units. If a vacancy of the position of Director of Owner Occupied Units arises, then the owners of units that are owner occupied shall elect a director to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term. Any notice of meeting in relation to the election of directors shall state that one position on the board is reserved for voting by owners of owner occupied units and indicate the persons, if any, which have notified the board in writing as of the day before the notice is sent that they intend to be candidates for the Director of Owner Occupied Units position.

ARTICLE VII OFFICERS

1. Elected Officers: At the first meeting of the board and after each election of directors, the board shall elect from among its members a President and a Secretary. In default of such election, the then incumbent, if a member of the board, shall hold office until his successor is elected. A vacancy occurring from time to time in such office may be filled by the board from among its members.

2. Appointed Officers: From time to time the board may appoint one or more Vice-Presidents, or more assistants to any of the officers so appointed. The officer so appointed may, but need not be, a member of the board. One person may hold more than one office and if the same person holds both the office of Secretary and the office of Treasurer he may be known as Secretary-Treasurer.

3. Term of Office: Subject to the provisions of any written agreement to the contrary, the board may remove at its pleasure any officer of the Corporation.

4. President: The President shall, when present, preside at all meetings of the owners and of the board, and shall be charged with the general supervision of the business and affairs of the Corporation. Except when the board has appointed a General Manager or Managing Director, the President shall also have the powers and be charged with the duties of that office.

5. Vice-President: During the absence of the President his duties may be performed and his powers may be exercised by the Vice-President, or if there are more than one, by the Vice-Presidents in order of seniority (as determined by the board), save that no Vice-President shall preside at a meeting of the board or at a meeting of owners who is not qualified to attend the meeting as a director or owner, as the case may be. If a Vice-President exercises any such duty or power, the absence of the President shall be presumed with reference thereto. A Vice-President shall also perform such duties and exercise such powers as the board may prescribe from time to time.

6. General Manager: The General Manager, if one be appointed, shall be responsible for the general management and direction of the Corporation's business affairs, subject to the overriding authority of the board and the supervision of the President, and shall have the power to appoint and remove any and all employees and agents of the Corporation not elected or appointed directly by the board, and to settle the terms of their employment and remuneration.

7. Secretary: The Secretary shall give or cause to be given all notices required to be given to the owners, directors, auditors, mortgagees and all others entitled thereto. He shall attend all meetings of the directors and of the owners and shall enter or cause to be entered in the books kept for that purpose, minutes of all proceedings at such meetings. He shall be the custodian of all books, papers, records, documents and other instruments belonging to the Corporation and he shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the board.

8. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall keep or cause to be kept full and accurate books of account in which shall be recorded all receipts and disbursements of the Corporation and, under the direction of the board, he shall control the deposit of money, the safekeeping of securities and the disbursements of the funds of the Corporation. He shall render to the board at any meeting thereof, or whenever required of him, an account of all his transactions as Treasurer and of the financial position of the Corporation, and he shall perform such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the board. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may be combined.

9. Other Officers: The duties of all other officers of the Corporation shall be such as the terms of their engagement call for or the board requires of them. Any of the powers and duties of an officer to whom an assistant has been appointed may be exercised and performed by such assistant unless the board otherwise directs.

10. Agents and Attorneys: The board may have power from time to time to appoint agents or attorneys for the Corporation with such powers of management or otherwise (including the power to sub-delegate) as the board, in its sole discretion, may think fit.

11. Disclosure by Officers of Interest in Contracts: Every officer of the Corporation who is not a director and has, directly or indirectly, any material interest in any material contract or transaction, to which the Corporation is or will be a party, shall disclose in writing to the Corporation the nature and extent of the interest in such contract or transaction. The disclosure shall be made at the first meeting of the board, and entered in the minutes of the meeting, at which the contract or transaction is first considered, or if the officer becomes interested after the contract or transaction is entered into at the next meeting of directors. A general notice to the board by a director declaring that he is a director or officer of, or has a material interest in, any company or other entity that is a party to a contract or proposed contract with the Corporation, is a sufficient declaration of his interest in relation to any contract so made. If an officer has made a declaration or disclosure of his interest, then such officer, if he was acting honestly and in good faith at the time the contract or transaction was entered into, is not, by reason only of his holding the office of officer, accountable to the Corporation or to its owners for any profit or gain realized from the contract or transaction, and such contract or transaction is not voidable by reason only of the officer's interest therein. In respect of any contract or transaction involving the purchase or sale of real or personal property by the Corporation that the seller acquired within 5 years before the date of the contract or transaction or the proposed contract or transaction, the officer shall disclose the cost of the property to the seller, to the extent which such information is within the officer's knowledge or control.

ARTICLE VIII BANKING ARRANGEMENTS & CONTRACTS

1. Banking Arrangements: The banking business of the Corporation or any part thereof shall be transacted with such bank located in Ontario listed under Schedule I or II to the Bank Act (Canada) or trust company authorized by law to receive money on deposit as the board may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time by resolution, and all such banking business, or any part thereof, shall be transacted on the Corporation's behalf by such one or more officers or other persons as the board may designate, direct or authorize from time to time by resolution, and to the extent therein provided, including, without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the operation of the Corporation's accounts, the making, signing, drawing, accepting, endorsing, negotiating, lodging, depositing or transferring of any cheques, promissory notes, drafts, acceptances, bills of exchange and orders relating to any property of the Corporation; the execution of any agreement relating to any such banking business and defining the rights and powers of the parties hereto; and the authorizing of any officer of such bank to do any act or thing on the Corporation's behalf to facilitate such banking business.

2. Execution of Documents: Subject to the provisions of the Act, deeds, transfers, assignments, contracts and obligations on behalf of the Corporation may be signed by the President or a Vice-President together with the Secretary or any other director. Any contract or obligation within the scope of any management agreement entered into by the Corporation may be executed on behalf of the Corporation in accordance with the provisions of such management agreement. Notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary contained in the by-laws of the Corporation the board may, subject to the provisions of the Act, at any time and from time to time direct the manner in which, and the person or persons by whom any particular deed, transfer, contract or obligation or any class of deeds, transfer, contract or obligations of the Corporation may or shall be signed.

3. Execution of the Status Certificate: Certificates provided pursuant to Section 76(1) of the Act may be signed by any officer or any director of the Corporation, provided that the board may, by resolution, direct the manner in which, and the person(s) by whom, such certificates may or shall be signed.

ARTICLE IX FINANCIAL

Until otherwise ordered by the board, the financial year of the Corporation shall end on the 31st day of December in each year or on such other day as the board by resolution may determine.

ARTICLE X
NOTICE

1. Method of giving notice: Except as otherwise specifically provided in the Act, the declaration, or the by-laws, any notice, communication or other document, including budgets and notices of assessment required to be given or served shall be sufficiently given, if given in accordance with the following:

- a) to an owner, by giving same to him, or to any director or officer of the owner, either personally or by ordinary mail, postage prepaid, addressed to him at the address for service given by such owner for the Corporation's register, or if no such address has been given, then to such owner at his respective unit;
- b) to a mortgagee who has notified the Corporation of his interest in any unit, by giving same to him, or to any officer or director of such mortgagee, either personally or by ordinary mail, postage prepaid, addressed to such mortgagee at the address for service given by such mortgagee to the Corporation; and
- c) to the Corporation, by giving same personally to any director or officer of the Corporation, or by ordinary mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the Corporation at its address for service as set out in the declaration, or as changed in accordance with the requirements of the Act.

2. If any such notice is mailed as aforesaid, the same shall be deemed to have been received and to be effective on the 3rd business day following the day on which it was mailed.

3. Omissions and Errors: Except as provided in the Act, the accidental omission to give any notice to anyone entitled thereto or the non-receipt of such notice or any error in any notice not affecting the substance thereof shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting of owners or directors held pursuant to such notice or otherwise founded thereon.

ARTICLE XI
ASSESSMENT AND COLLECTION OF COMMON EXPENSES

1. Duties of the Board Re Common Expenses: The common expenses as provided for in the Act and in the declaration, shall be assessed by the board and levied against the owners in the proportions in which they are required to contribute thereto pursuant to the provisions of Schedule "D" of the declaration. The board shall, from time to time, and at least once annually, prepare a budget for the property and determine by estimate the amount of common expenses for the next ensuing fiscal year or remainder of the current fiscal year as the case may be. The board shall allocate and assess such common expenses as set out in the budget for such period, among the owners, according to the proportions in which they are required to contribute to same, and such common expenses shall be payable monthly on the first day of each month during the fiscal year.

2. Duties of the Board Re Reserve Fund: In addition to the foregoing, the board shall, subject to the provisions of the declaration which may qualify or limit such obligation, make provision for the reserve fund in the annual budget, for major repair and replacement of common elements and assets of the Corporation. The Corporation shall establish and maintain this reserve fund, and shall collect from the owners as part of their contribution towards the common expenses, amounts that the board determines sufficient for such major repair and replacement, calculated on the basis of expected repair and replacement costs and life expectancy of the common elements and assets of the Corporation. Moreover, the Corporation shall conduct periodic studies to determine whether the amount of money in the reserve fund and the amount of contributions collected by the Corporation are adequate to provide for the expected costs of major repair and replacement of the common elements and assets of the Corporation in accordance with s. 94 of the Act.

3. Notice of Common Expenses to Owners: The board shall advise each owner promptly in writing of the total amount of common expenses payable by each owner respectively, and shall give copies of all budgets on which such common expenses are based to all owners and mortgagees entered on the register, in accordance with the by-laws of the Corporation.

4. Owner's obligations: Each owner shall be obliged to pay to the Corporation, or as it may direct, the amount of common expenses assessed against each owner, in equal monthly payments on the first day of each and every month for the 12-month period or other period of time to which such assessment is applicable, until such time as a new assessment is given to such owner. If the board so directs, each owner shall forward to the Corporation forthwith a series of twelve postdated cheques covering the monthly common expense payments payable during the period to which such assessment relates. Alternately, the Corporation may require the owner to establish a pre-authorized debit whereby the Corporation or the property manager shall debit from the owner's account, the monthly common expense contribution. In addition to the foregoing, any losses, costs or damages incurred by the Corporation by reason of a breach of any rules and regulations of the Corporation in force from time to time by any unit owner, or by members of his family and/or their invitees or licensees, shall be borne and/or paid for by such owner, and may be recovered by the Corporation against such owner in the same manner as common expenses.

5. Extraordinary Expenditures: Extraordinary expenditures not contemplated in the foregoing budget, for which the board shall not have sufficient funds, and funds required to establish reserves for contingencies and deficits, may be assessed at any time during the year in addition to the annual assessment, by the board serving notice(s) of such further assessment(s) on all owners.

6. Conveyance of unit: No owner shall be liable for the payment of any part of the common expenses assessed against his unit prior to a transfer by him of such unit but payable by him subsequent thereto, provided that he first gives notice of such assessment to the transferee of such unit.

7. Default in payment of assessment:

- a) Arrears of payments required to be made under the provisions of this Article XI shall bear interest at the rate of 4% per annum above the prime lending rate charged by the Corporation's bank to its best risk commercial customers, and shall be compounded monthly until paid and shall be deemed to constitute a reasonable charge incurred by the Corporation in collecting the unpaid amounts within the meaning of the Act.
- b) In addition to any remedies or liens provided by the Act, if any owner is in default in payment of a common expense assessment levied against him, for a period of 15 days, the board may bring legal action for or on behalf of the Corporation to enforce collection thereof, and there shall be added to any amount found due, all costs of such action, including costs as between a solicitor and his own client.

ARTICLE XII DEFAULT

1. Notice of Unpaid Common Expenses: The board whenever so requested in writing by an owner or mortgagee entered on the register, shall promptly report to such owner or mortgagee any unpaid common expenses due from, or any other default by, any owner and any other moneys claimed by the Corporation against any owner which are 30 days past due.

2. Notice of Default: The board, when giving notice of default in payment of common expenses or any other default to the owner of the unit, shall concurrently send a copy of such notice to each registered mortgagee of such unit who has requested that such notices be sent to him.

BUDGET NOTES

I INDIVIDUAL UNIT ASSESSMENT

The monthly common expense for each unit is determined by dividing each of; (i) the total budgeted High Speed Bulk Internet charges attributed to the Property ($84,848.31), (ii) the total of all Other budgeted common expense charges attributed to the Property ($506,397.00) by twelve (12) to determine the monthly assessment. The High Speed Bulk Internet amount is then multiplied by the unit's percentage contribution to the Bulk Internet, as shown in Schedule "D" of the proposed Declaration attributed to the Bulk Internet charges. The monthly Access and Environment Control System amount is then multiplied by the unit's percentage contribution to the Access and Environment Control System, as shown in Schedule "D" of the proposed Declaration attributed to the Access and Environment Control System charges. The monthly amount of all other budgeted expenses is then multiplied by each unit's percentage contribution to the common expenses, as shown in Schedule "D" of the proposed Declaration attributed to all other budgeted expenses. The sum of all three (3) amounts are added together to find the total monthly individual common charge.

1. Total Monthly Common Expenses

$591,245 ÷ 12 = $49,270.42

2. Monthly Individual Common Expenses

The individual unit monthly common charge for High Speed Bulk Internet is determined by multiplying the total monthly charge for High Speed Bulk Internet ($7,070.69) by the percentage contribution to High Speed Bulk Internet for each unit in Schedule "D" of the proposed Declaration attributable to the High Speed Bulk Internet charges. The individual unit monthly common expense for all Other budgeted expenses is determined by multiplying the total of all Other monthly budgeted expenses ($42,199.75) by the percentage contribution to common expense for each unit in Schedule "D" of the proposed declaration attributed to the Other Budgeted expenses. A schedule of monthly common charges for the High Speed Bulk Internet and a schedule of monthly common expenses for each residential unit, parking and storage unit is attached to this budget statement. Parking and storage spaces are treated as individual units. The monthly assessment payable by any owner is equal to the combined sum of the monthly common charge assigned to each residential unit for Bulk Internet plus the monthly common expense assigned to each residential unit, each parking and/or storage unit purchased or assigned on the attached Schedule of Monthly Common Expenses.

II OPERATING EXPENSES ($442,252)

A. UTILITIES ($116,000)

1. Hydro (77,000)

The budget is based on comparable property requirements and the current rates from Toronto Hydro of 10.3 cents per kilowatt hour and administrative/distribution charges have been escalated by 6% and compounded annually. The budget includes electricity for the common areas only. Each residential unit will be separately metered or check metered and the cost of electricity to the residential units will be the responsibility of the respective unit owner and will not form part of the common expenses. Should the rates for hydro at time of registration be greater than 12.2 cents per kilowatt hour or the administrative/distribution charges have increased from current charges, then the budget will be adjusted accordingly to reflect the rates at the time of registration.

2. Water ($52,000)

The budget is based on comparable property requirements and the current rates from The City of Toronto of $4.074 per cubic meter and have been escalated by 4% and compounded annually. The budget includes water and sewage charges for the common areas only. Each residential unit will be separately metered or check metered and the cost of hot and cold water and wastewater to the residential units will be the responsibility of the respective unit owner and will not form part of the common expenses. Should the rates for water at time of registration be greater than $4.766 per cubic meter, then the budget will be adjusted accordingly to reflect the rates at the time of registration.

3. Less In-Suite Water Consumption Recovery (-$38,000)

The total cost of each residential unit's water and wastewater consumption will be invoiced back to each unit based on their individual sub-meter or check meter reading and will be payable by the unit owners in addition to their common expense payments. In the event that this Recovery System Process, is not allowed or unable to be implemented, then it would result in an increase in common expenses by an average of approximately $30.74 per residential unit per month, and this amount would form part of the common expenses in the future. Please refer to the Disclosure Statement for further details.

4. Gas ($25,000)

The budget is based on comparable property requirements and the current rates from Enbridge Gas of 13.630 cents per cubic meter and administrative/distribution charges have been escalated by 4% and compounded annually. The budget includes natural gas costs for heating the common areas, domestic hot water; and roof top fresh air corridor circulation, on a bulk billing basis. Should the rates for gas at time of registration be greater than 15.78 cents per cubic meter or administrative/distribution charges have increased from current rates, then the budget will be adjusted accordingly to reflect the rates at the time of registration. Please refer to the Disclosure Statement for further details.

SCHEDULE XII
Sections 73 and 74 of the Condominium Act – Purchaser’s
Right to Rescind

Sections 73 and 74 of the Condominium Act, 1998

Section 73

Rescission of agreement

73 (1) A purchaser who receives a disclosure statement under subsection 72 (1) may, in accordance with this section, rescind the agreement of purchase and sale before accepting a deed to the unit being purchased that is in registerable form.

Notice of rescission

(2) To rescind an agreement of purchase and sale under this section, a purchaser or the purchaser's solicitor shall give a written notice of rescission to the declarant or to the declarant's solicitor who must receive the notice within 10 days of the later of,

- (a) the date that the purchaser receives the disclosure statement; and
- (b) the date that the purchaser receives a copy of the agreement of purchase and sale executed by the declarant and the purchaser.

Refund upon rescission

(3) If a declarant or the declarant's solicitor receives a notice of rescission from a purchaser under this section, the declarant shall promptly refund, without penalty or charge, to the purchaser, all money received from the purchaser under the agreement and credited towards the purchase price, together with interest on the money calculated at the prescribed rate from the date that the declarant received the money until the date the declarant refunds it.

Section 74

Material changes in disclosure statement

74 (1) Whenever there is a material change in the information contained or required to be contained in a disclosure statement delivered to a purchaser under subsection 72 (1) or a revised disclosure statement or a notice delivered to a purchaser under this section, the declarant shall deliver a revised disclosure statement or a notice to the purchaser.

Definition

(2) In this section,

"material change" means a change or a series of changes that a reasonable purchaser, on an objective basis, would have regarded collectively as sufficiently important to the decision to purchase a unit or proposed unit in the corporation that it is likely that the purchaser would not have entered into an agreement of purchase and sale for the unit or the proposed unit or would have exercised the right to rescind such an agreement of purchase and sale under section 73, if the disclosure statement had contained the change or series of changes, but does not include,

- (a) a change in the contents of the budget of the corporation for the current fiscal year if more than one year has passed since the registration of the declaration and description for the corporation,
- (b) a substantial addition, alteration or improvement within the meaning of subsection 97 (6) that the corporation makes to the common elements after a turn-over meeting has been held under section 43,
- (c) a change in the portion of units or proposed units that the declarant intends to lease,
- (d) a change in the schedule of the proposed commencement and completion dates for the amenities of which construction had not been completed as of the date on which the disclosure statement was made, or
- (e) a change in the information contained in the statement described in subsection 161 (1) of the services provided by the municipality or the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing, as the case may be, as described in that subsection, if the unit or the proposed unit is in a vacant land condominium corporation.

Contents of revised statement

(3) The revised disclosure statement or notice required under subsection (1) shall clearly identify all changes that in the reasonable belief of the declarant may be material changes and summarize the particulars of them.

Time of delivery

(4) The declarant shall deliver the revised disclosure statement or notice to the purchaser within a reasonable time after the material change mentioned in subsection (1) occurs and, in any event, no later than 10 days before delivering to the purchaser a deed to the unit being purchased that is in registerable form.

Purchaser’s application to court

(5) Within 10 days after receiving a revised disclosure statement or a notice under subsection (1), a purchaser may make an application to the Superior Court of Justice for a determination whether a change or a series of changes set out in the statement or notice is a material change.

Rescission after material change

(6) If a change or a series of changes set out in a revised disclosure statement or a notice delivered to a purchaser constitutes a material change or if a material change occurs that the declarant does not disclose in a revised disclosure statement or notice as required by subsection (1), the purchaser may, before accepting a deed to the unit being purchased that is in registerable form, rescind the agreement of purchase and sale within 10 days of the latest of,

- (a) the date on which the purchaser receives the revised disclosure statement or the notice, if the declarant delivered a revised disclosure statement or notice to the purchaser;
- (b) the date on which the purchaser becomes aware of a material change, if the declarant has not delivered a revised disclosure statement or notice to the purchaser as required by subsection (1) with respect to the change; and
- (c) the date on which the Superior Court of Justice makes a determination under subsection (5) or (8) that the change is material, if the purchaser or the declarant, as the case may be, has made an application for the determination.

Notice of rescission

(7) To rescind an agreement of purchase and sale under this section, a purchaser or the purchaser’s solicitor shall give a written notice of rescission to the declarant or to the declarant’s solicitor.

Declarant’s application to court

(8) Within 10 days after receiving a notice of rescission, the declarant may make an application to the Superior Court of Justice for a determination whether the change or the series of changes on which the rescission is based constitutes a material change, if the purchaser has not already made an application for the determination under subsection (5).

Refund upon rescission

(9) A declarant who receives a notice of rescission from a purchaser under this section shall refund, without penalty or charge, to the purchaser, all money received from the purchaser under the agreement and credited towards the purchase price, together with interest on the money calculated at the prescribed rate from the date that the declarant received the money until the date the declarant refunds it.

Time of refund

(10) The declarant shall make the refund,

- (a) within 10 days after receiving a notice of rescission, if neither the purchaser nor the declarant has made an application for a determination described in subsection (5) or (8) respectively; or
- (b) within 10 days after the court makes a determination that the change is material, if the purchaser has made an application under subsection (5) or the declarant has made an application under subsection (8).
