Hi Tracy,

Here are some pics of the nosing issue I was talking about. On the 9" section there is supposed to be a rail but the tile was run too far so there was no room for a post unless it sat over the tile. My tile guy is going to pop some tiles this weekend and we will need to schedule someone to fix the nosing and install the small section of railing. I had Gerd he said that's the only way to fix properly.

Thanks
Justin Stoll
